Trustees Pull Off Cars—Supreme Court May Be Asked For Injunction

SALEM, Jan. 15.—Thirty thousand persons who usually ride to business in trolley cars, crowded into motor buses or walked in the near zero atmosphere today. All local lines of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railways here and a large part of the interurban service of that company to this city were discontinued at midnight, the public trustees of the road having refused to operate the cars in this vicinity longer in the face of continued losses of revenue alleged to be due the competition of "jitneys."

Hotel at Putnam, Conn., Destroyed by Fire—Loss Estimated at $20,000

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Firemen worked under freezing conditions today to put out a blaze which burned for an hour in a State street building occupied by the Park Sausage and Provision Co. Escaping gas was an added hazard for the firemen. The flames ran from the basement to the fourth floor before they were stopped. The loss was estimated at $40,000.

Hotel Destroyed
PUTNAM, Conn., Jan. 15.—The Chickering House, a three story frame hotel in the center of the city, was destroyed by fire early today. Many guests lost their personal effects. One man was carried from the third floor by firemen. The loss was estimated at $20,000.

TELEPHONE GIRLS AT ASSOCIATE HALL

The annual dancing party of the telephone girls of this city is looked forward to with about as much anticipation as any other social event of the winter season here and for that reason it is expected that there will be a record-breaking crowd on hand at Associate hall this evening when the "hello girls" will stage their 1920 party.

The committee in charge has made arrangements for an unusually pretentious affair, and those who have memories of previous parties will value this statement at its true worth. This is a leap year and just to show that they are on the job the Appleton street mounds have arranged special leap year features that will certainly "start something" among their friends of the merrier sex. All lines will be "busy" at Associate hall this evening and those who do not put in their call early in the evening will surely be out of luck.

DEATH CAME AS RESULT OF SHOCK

Enoch Gerrish, aged 59 years, married, was found dead in a chair in his room at 295 Appleton street, this morning. Death was the result of a shock. He was known to have gone to his room last night between 9 and 10 o'clock and was not seen again until a chamber maid found his body, practically fully clothed, this forenoon.

Deceased was connected with the Middlesex County Training school at North Chelmsford as a cottage master until a year ago. He had worked there off and on for a number of years. The medical examiner viewed the body and had it removed to the rooms of Undertaker Saunders.

High School Students Outline a Program for Chamber of Commerce

Great Oaks from little Acorns grow~

"What do the coming citizens of Lowell think of their city? Some of them are going to spend their lives here. Perhaps they have some idea of what they would like to have done to make their city more progressive, and desirable as a home. Lowell is spending money on schools in order to fit boys and girls for the responsibilities of the future.

Will the city get the full return on the investment or will some other community, perhaps a rival, reap a part of the benefit?

A week ago the students of the Lowell high school were asked in connection with the expansion and reorganization campaign of the board of trade to express their views regarding the needs of Lowell in which they might be expected to have an interest because of their future participation in the work of the community.

The survey was based on three questions. They were answered in writing by 357 boys and 470 girls, a total of 827 students.

Similar surveys have been made in high schools in other cities by those who made the survey here. It is stated that the replies made by the Lowell students were up to the average in variety of suggestions and extent of local observation. It was also noted that, contrary to the usual response, many more than half of those answering the questionnaire find so much that appeals to them in Lowell that they expect to stay here. Usually less than half are decided about remaining in the town where they are attending high school.

The whole survey probably may be taken as a reflection of what is taught in the homes as well as what is

MAYOR PLANS TO EXPAND LOCAL TRAFFIC FORCE

Mayor Perry D. Thompson plans to expand the traffic force of the local police department considerably during the present year, he said today, and included in his program for the year is the purchase of several more motorcycles and sidecars for members of the force assigned to duty on the outskirts of the city. Three of these machines were purchased by the mayor last year and have proved a complete success. They allow the three men who use them to cover anywhere from 75 to 100 miles per day and do away with the need of putting extra men on the force to meet the natural growth of the city.

Even in such weather as the present the machines are on duty and, in fact, have not missed a day since they were installed in the department, according to the mayor.

"I shall not have to put any more men on duty to carry out my traffic plan," said His Honor today, "providing

Prohibition Amendment Goes Into Effect at Midnight Tomorrow

In reply to numerous inquiries reaching this office today relative to the exact time the prohibition amendment takes effect, The Sun telephoned the revenue collector's office in Boston and was informed that the amendment will be in operation throughout the country at 12.01 a. m. Jan. 17. In other words, at one minute after midnight Jan. 16, the new law will be in full operation. The liquor dealers, therefore, who have on hand any liquor which they wish to remove or dispose of according to law, have one day in which to complete the work. Prohibition thus becomes part of the organic law of the nation.

Pays $35,000 For One Hog

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Jan. 15.—Chief's Best, a spotted Poland China hog, brought $35,000 in a sale here this week. Forty head which were sold brought a total of $64,380.

LAUSANNE, Jan. 15.—Four monarchs who are living in this country were interested spectators at the sale of the jewels and objects of art owned by the estate of the late Princess Vera Lobonoff of Russia here yesterday. They were former King Constantine and his queen, of Greece, and former Emperor and Empress Charles and Zita of Austria-Hungary. They made no purchases. A Parisian dealer bought a necklace for 500,000 francs and other jewels brought very high prices.

SALOONMEN PLAN ACTIVE WAR

Organize To Defeat Candidates Responsible For Prohibition

"Put Over at Time When Protest Would Have Been Branded Pro-German"

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 15.—Saloonmen here are planning active war against the prohibition amendment. At a meeting of the Providence Retail Liquor Dealers' association today it was voted to organize to "defeat or re-election any candidates who were instrumental in bringing about prohibition and all new candidates for public office understood to be unfavorable to a 'proper' solution of the present problem."

"The amendment was put over on us at a time when any murmur of protest from us would have been branded as pro-German," declared John Thompson, president of the local association, today, adding that most of the saloons here will remain open for the sale of such soft drinks as the law "such as it is" will allow, until the issue has been fought out to a finish.

Only Bulwark Against Bolshevism, Declares Bliss—Urges Loan For Food

Baker Recommends U. S. Furnish Surplus Military Supplies to Poland

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—General Bliss, who was a member of the American peace delegation today told the house ways and means committee.

"Poland is the only bulwark against Bolshevism," said General Bliss, who appeared before the committee to discuss the proposed loan of $150,000,000 for food relief in Europe.

Military experts are of the "growing opinion" that the "Moscow government will turn toward Poland," General Bliss said, adding that the Russians outnumbered the Poles, were well trained, well equipped and well led, while the Poles were "poorly equipped as to everything."

The allied governments, General Bliss continued, should be called upon by the United States to give some of their surplus military supplies to the Poles, if this country establishes $150,000,000 of credits for European countries to buy food here.

Baker Would Send Supplies
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Recommendations that the United States furnish surplus military supplies to Poland and aid in repelling the westward advance of the Bolsheviks, have been made to the state department by Secretary Baker.

JURY DEADLOCKED IN THE NEW CASE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 15.—The jury in the case of Harry New, charged with the murder of Freda Lesser, was deadlocked last night with apparently little chance of reaching an agreement, according to the statement of the foreman. Deliberations began Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The foreman reported to Superior Judge Craig at 3 o'clock that the jurors were divided as to whether New was guilty of second degree murder or manslaughter.

W. W. Shaw Says After Everything Else Failed It Saved My Life

One of the Most Remarkable Statements Ever Given Us for Publication Concerning Vitalitas Comes From Wm. W. Shaw, Augusta, Me.

Here is a statement given us for publication from Mr. Shaw that sounds so unreasonable, giving praise for Vitalitas for what it did for him, that dear reader, we are going to ask you as a favor to either believe this statement as you see it, or get in communication with Mr. Shaw personally. To prove to you that we mean just what we say, we are giving you his name and address so there will be no mistake. William W. Shaw, R.F.D. No. 2, Augusta, Me. Note this also: we offer a reward of $100.00 if it can be proven that we ever paid one cent to anyone for a testimonial. All statements that are published are from people who wish to assist other sufferers by telling them what a wonderful remedy Vitalitas is and for no other reason. Mr. Shaw related his case to our Mr. Legendre, as follows: "I am 55 years old and for the past several months I have had a severe case of stomach trouble. I was told by several physicians that I had cancer of the stomach. With this information I went to the Augusta General hospital and had an X-ray treatment, finally having to give up, and on August 6th, 1919, I took to my bed. I was advised by an old soldier, a Mr. Kennedy of Augusta, to try Vitalitas which I did, and after taking three bottles of this wonderful remedy I am able to appear in Waterville as a jurymen. I now feel fine in every way and I consider it my duty to let others know of this great remedy. I am positive Vitalitas saved my life. Vitalitas is a wonderful remedy beyond any question of doubt. Thousands of people are getting splendid results from its use where all other remedies have failed. For rheumatism, indigestion, stomach, kidney or liver ills, it has no equal. RAILROADS OF GERMANY ARE WAR WRECKED

BY FRANK W. HOSKOCK
Editor Cincinnati Post, N.E.A. Correspondent in Europe

HANOVER, Germany, Jan. 15.—The transportation problem is one of the most perplexing that confronts Germany today.

Before the war the German railroads were an example of efficiency and comfort. Now the German system is a wreck. For instance, before the war, 10 trains ran between Bremen and Hanover daily. Now there are two, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Both are very slow trains.

Few Fast Trains

Fast trains run only on the main line—and there are few of them. The rolling stock has deteriorated to an appalling degree. Many first-class coaches have been stripped of their metal decorations. Leather straps, used to raise and lower windows, have been replaced by strips of canvas. The leather has been stolen to resole shoes.

Plush has been stripped from the seats. This was used to make clothing for women and children.

Windows, in many first-class carriages were broken during the mad rushes for seats. Sometimes the glass was removed and cut to fit the window of a home. These windows are boarded up.

Trains are not heated because of the coal shortage. Passengers wrap themselves in blankets and huddle together to keep warm.

Blame Fear Factors

There are four reasons for this condition: the coal shortage, surrender of equipment to the entente, refusal of men to work in the shops or yards and the consequent deterioration of rolling stock.

Passenger trains do not run on Sundays. Freight trains are moved and a special effort is made Sundays to carry large quantities of coal. Occasionally, when the coal shortage becomes acute, passenger traffic is tied up for a week or 10 days. There is some talk among government officials of having regular periods monthly during which nothing but coal can be transported.

Germans attribute the lack of coal mainly to the fact that they must make regular deliveries to the entente and that they have not sufficient rolling stock left in good repair with which to handle the situation.

ENTERTAINMENT IN KITSON HALL. BY DRAMATIC CLASS STUDENTS OF THE Y.W.C.A. Students in the dramatic class of the Y.W.C.A. presented two enjoyable one-act sketches last evening in Kitson hall under the direction of Mrs. H. J. Corwin. The sketches were given in a most commendable manner and reflected much credit not only on the young women but also on their director. The first was entitled "Her Uncle's Bootie" and those taking part were Mildred Wheat, Nelda Grass, Miss Lelahas, Caroline Schultz, Maude of seaweed.

Murphy, Grace Condon and Sarah Hayes. The other sketch, "No Men Wanted," introduced Maude Murphy, Francis Johnson and Helen Casey. Between the sketches there were solos by Miss Gladys Holden with Miss Julia Cummings accompanying, and readings by the Misses Helen and Helene Connors.

According to experiments made at the Pasteur Institute in Paris, an average of about six quarts of alcohol can be obtained from each 100 pounds of seaweed.

MANY VERMONT TOWNS FACE BANKRUPTCY

DURLINGTON, Vt., Jan. 15.—Three-fifths of the small towns in this state are threatened with bankruptcy before the end of 1920, according to Gov. Percival W. Clement. In an address last evening before the 50th annual daymen's and 37th annual sugarmakers' conventions in combined session here today.

"You should impress upon your representatives in the legislature of 1921," said Gov. Clement, "the fact that probably three-fifths of the towns in the state will be in financial difficulties before the end of the year and that the state revenue from known sources will probably be less rather than greater. Absolute economy must be observed if our towns are to continue as solvent units of a great corporation."

The keynote of Gov. Clement's address was economy in state finances and in the finances of the small towns who were threatened with serious financial conditions during the coming year.

BRITISH RAILWAYMEN ACCEPT OFFER

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Delegates of railwaymen's unions have accepted the government's offer in settlement of wage demands made by employees in the lower grades of the service.

After the close of this morning's meeting of the delegates, J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the national union of railway men, said: "The conference has decided by a very narrow majority to accept the government's offer."

The delegates of the railwaymen reported the decision to Sir Eric Geddes, the minister of transport. After they had seen the minister their leader, Mr. Thomas, said: "It is settled. It has been a very difficult job, probably the most difficult of all our tasks."

"There was a considerable difference of opinion among the delegates until the last moment," Mr. Thomas continued, "and the result was doubtful, but I hope the men will accept it as an honorable settlement. It marks a new departure in industrial questions."

SKATING PAR EXCELLENCE AT SHEDD PARK

The best skating of the year is now on tap at Shedd park and despite the extremely cold weather of today a good-sized crowd was on hand to enjoy the smooth surface of the skating rink. The park department has had the ice cleared off following the recent snow storm and everything is in first class condition for good skating.

There is also excellent coasting at the North and South commons and Fort Hill park. The latter place is especially popular with coasters owing to the long rides which may be had from the summit of the hill.

STREET RAILWAY TRAFFIC DELAYED

The jinx was very much on the job on the local street railway lines last yesterday afternoon and succeeded in more or less "jazzing up" the service in several sections of the city sometime during the day.

A report of the service interruptions given out by Manager Thomas Lees shows that practically the entire blame for the trouble can be attributed to the jinx aforesaid, for in almost no instance was the local railway company at fault.

Lack of power and exceptionally heavy riding on the Lawrence end of the Lowell-Lawrence route caused delays in the service between the hours of 5 and 6:30 p. m. Trouble with the power system in Nashua was also responsible for the late arrival of Lowell-Nashua cars in Merrimack square between 7 and 8 o'clock.

Disabled cars delayed the Westford street service between 4 and 6 o'clock and also the High street service between 6 and 6:30.

A disabled car on the North Chelmsford route, coupled with a 15-minute hold-up at the grade crossing at the Middlesex street station, was responsible for delays on this route between 4:15 and 6:25. Frozen air systems and stalled motor trucks on the tracks caused delays on several other lines during the early part of the evening.

Says His Prescription

Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenbush Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

Finally, decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who look to him with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Druggists, chemists, have been unprincipled agents for Allenbush in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.—Adv.

PULLING ALL TOGETHER

This store believes in co-operation. Without co-operation its service to the public would be ineffective. Without team-work it would not be the great store which its patrons know. In the multiplicity of its departments there must be a "pull-all-together" or failure to make progress.

The same is true of cities. The citizens of every department of a city must learn to "pull-all-together," or fail of progress. That is what we want for Lowell.

That is why this store is "rooting" for the expansion and reorganization of the Lowell Board of Trade into a Chamber of Commerce. It believes that the principles of service and "pulling-all-together" upon which the Board is being reorganized spell progress for the city in civic and commercial ways. NOW FOR LOWELL.

HUNGARIANS GET TERMS TODAY

Conditions of Peace Will Be Presented to Delegation at Paris Today

Premiers Send Ultimatum to Belgrade, Demanding Answer to Italian Compromise

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The heads of the allied governments who are holding conferences here over the various pending peace problems held no meeting this morning, the hour of their conference today being set at 3 o'clock. An hour later Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti, together with Hugh G. Wallace, the American ambassador, and Baron Matsui, the Japanese ambassador, will hand the conditions of peace formulated for Hungary to the Hungarian delegation which arrived in Paris recently.

The Hungarian representatives informed Paul Dutasta, general secretary of the peace conference, that they would attend submitting at the same time a quantity of documents supporting the Hungarian claims for the maintenance of Hungary's old boundary lines.

A summary of the terms of peace offered Hungary will be made public tonight.

Ultimatum to Belgrade

PARIS, Jan. 15.—Just at the time when Italians seemed likely to agree to the acceptance of a solution to the Fiume question which has been approved by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, a division has been created among the Jugo-Slavs regarding the problems involved.

According to best information obtainable, the Slovene element of the new Slav kingdom is stoutly opposed to a compromise by which Italy would give up some of the territory apportioned her on the Dalmatian coast in exchange for full sovereignty over Fiume, with a strip of land connecting that city with the province of Istria, to the west.

Other elements favor accepting the compromise but because of the impossibility of reaching an agreement, the Jugo-Slav delegation has been obliged to reject the proposal. Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau thereupon issued a sort of ultimatum demanding that the government at Belgrade decide without delay upon what it wanted to do, and give a categorical answer of "yes" or "no" to the Italian compromise.

It is impossible to ascertain here whether President Wilson has been consulted regarding the proposed Fiume settlement, which appears to be in absolute contradiction to the president's firm stand. Neither has absolutely satisfactory assurance been given that Italy, as a whole, will approve the compromise.

Demand For Ex-Kaiser

PARIS, Jan. 15.—(Hayas)—Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti will today examine the text of the demand to be made upon Holland for the extradition of former Emperor William, according to the Matin. The premiers will also inspect the list of German officers and soldiers accused of violations of the laws of war and whose surrender will be demanded from the Berlin government. This list is said to comprise approximately 500 names.

Car Service Suspended

Dec. 18, when the trustees stepped virtually all service in the Salem district for 24 hours until the authorities of this city, Beverly and Peabody had voted to withdraw "jitney" licenses. Operation of the "jitneys" was resumed here within a few days, however, when the city council had endorsed a petition for a special election to decide whether their previous action in revoking the licenses should be upheld. This election will be held on Jan. 27.

COUGHING, WEAK AND RUN-DOWN AFTER FLU

Regained flesh and strength quickly, and tells how

"I nearly died from 'flu' last October, and it left me with a weak cough. The doctor gave me one bottle of medicine after another, but it did me no good. Went to Charlotte, N. C., and took the treatment of a specialist without any permanent benefit.

"I saw Mils Emulsion advertised and started using it. It helped me right from the start. I had no appetite and my stomach was in bad shape. But 12 bottles have straightened me out entirely. I eat anything without distress, my cough is gone and I have gained back my strength and flesh."—Emma W. Emerson, in "The Evening Star," C. D. Don't trifle with a weak, run-down condition. It leaves you open to serious diseases. Get your strength back. Mils Emulsion costs nothing to try. Mils Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. WHERE THE DEMOCRATS WILL MEET JUNE 28th

The Exposition Auditorium of San Francisco, where the Democratic National convention will be held beginning June 28, is grouped, with the city hall and public library, around a plaza, forming the civic centre. The building was erected at a cost of $2,000,000 and has a seating capacity of 12,000. There are also numerous halls which can be opened into larger rooms to accommodate conventions of any size.

tained a restricted service to adjoining places, the Boston & Maine trains received a large share of patronage and 40 buses were in service for local business. The buses did not pass beyond the city boundary lines as they have no licenses to operate in Beverly, Danvers, Peabody and Marblehead.

On the other hand the trolley cars took passengers from Salem to these adjoining places but refused to accept any passengers who desired to go from one point to another within this city. Passengers on the cars in bound from outlying places were allowed to leave the cars at any desired point in Salem, a fact which led to some trouble for conductors as when a through car stopped to leave a passenger, it was frequently stormed by a crowd of waiting Salemites who insisted on boarding it.

On Trains Discharged

The school department had special buses to convey pupils from remote sections of the city to the schools.

and the railway company made special provisions for transporting the workers to and from the big plant of the United Shoe Machinery Co., in Beverly.

It was announced that the railway company would maintain tomorrow and Saturday the same limited service to other points as was in effect today, but that arrangements for Sunday had not been completed. Sixty employees of the company were discharged today, and according to the management the number will be increased to 100 by tomorrow. These men earn an average of $30 a week.

An effort made by the chamber of commerce to have Governor Coolidge intervene so as to keep the cars in operation until after Jan. 27, when the referendum vote on the bus license question is to be taken, was unsuccessful.

HUNTING DEER WITH BOW IS WOODCRAFT TEST

BY DR. SEXTON POPE

(America's Most Expert Bowman)

Killing a deer with the bow and arrow is largely a matter of woodcraft. Unlike the hunt for bear, panther, coyotes and animals of that sort, the use of dogs by archers in search of deer is impractical.

This narrows the quest down to an ability to locate a buck by still hunting—no true sportsman would kill a deer or fawn—and then approaching within striking distance, say 60 or 75 yards, without being detected.

Ishi, the Yana Indian with whom Arthur Young and I had the pleasure of hunting during the five seasons he lived among white men in California, always prepared most carefully for a deer hunt.

The night before he avoided strong smelling food, fearing that his breath might become noticeable. On the morning of the hunt he always washed out his mouth with a tea made of aromatic herbs, gargled his throat and bathed his body to free it from human odors.

He had an old deer-head, stuffed with dried grass, which he used as a decoy. Placing this on his head and concealing himself at the edge of a deer run, Ishi would begin his primitive—but very thorough—methods of attracting his quarry within arrow range; which, for him, was fifty yards or less.

With the English-pattern long-bows we now use we have killed deer at 65 to 110 yards, driving steel-pointed arrows entirely through the body.

On a recent trip I hit a fork-horn at 65 yards, driving an arrow completely through him, so that it flew twenty yards beyond the deer, striking deeply in the ground.

One beauty about hunting deer with the bow and arrow is that you shoot without sound and do not disturb the game. I have dropped arrow after arrow around a deer browsing on a hillside 150 yards away, without having the animal do more than glance up at the shafts as they sped through the air and then quietly go on feeding.

Finally a lucky shot has "pinked" him in the shoulder and he was off like a flash!

Another humane thing about shooting game with the bow is that arrows cause more bleeding than bullets. We keep our points very sharp by filing them, and the wounds they make are clean-cut. If a cavity is struck, it is practically always fatal; if only a flesh wound, very little damage is done and it heals readily.

We have only wounded three deer that we did not get, and these were harmless ones. In one instance the arrow hit a deer in the shoulder joint. The animal ran a short way, then reached up with his hind leg, caught the arrow in the cleft of his hoof, pulled it out—and disappeared.

Hunting deer with the bow and arrow is the most entrancing sport that I know of. There is something in the sight of a feathered arrow toward a stag, fifty or sixty yards away, that gives one a thrill beside which the shooting of a rifle at the same object pales into insignificance.

Try it once and see if you don't agree with me.

SPIRITISM ATTACKED BY REV. FR. CORRIGAN

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—The Rev. James J. Corrigan, S. J., head of the departments of ethics at Boston college, speaking before the Young Men's Catholic association at Boston college high school last evening on "Sir Oliver Lodge and Spiritism," declared "the net result to Sir Oliver's visit and lectures will be a great increase in the number of fraudulent mediums, a renewal of spiritism's sordid commercialism, and an unprecedented crop of psychics and hysterics."

The address was the first of five which Fr. Corrigan will deliver before the association on the evidential value of Sir Oliver's proofs for spiritism and the "New Revelation."

"London is medium-mad," said Fr. Corrigan. "Never has occultism had so many fervent disciples. Fashionable mediums are having the times of their lives. Their consulting rooms are thronged with an eager crowd of inquirers."

"This is the upshot of Sir Oliver Lodge's revival of spiritism in England. An uncritical public has been made the dupe of a crowd of mediumistic exploiters and blackmailers. Let Boston beware!"

"It is stated that Sir Oliver is going to give 'new proofs' of survival and communication with the departed. It must be confessed that his long and unsuccessful efforts heretofore do not give warrant for much hope. The verdict of science on his old proofs is clear and unmistakable—they are unimpressive, inconclusive, beyond the warrant of the facts."

"It is admitted that remarkable happenings occur at times in so-called spiritistic practices. Sir Oliver Lodge is bringing out nothing new so far as the facts are concerned. Accounts of them are found among the customs of Assyria, Persia, Egypt, Greece, Rome, China, Japan and India."

Mock Fraud and Trickery
"Sir Oliver Lodge says he is in direct communication with his departed son, Raymond. In common with other spiritists he holds that the disembodied spirits of the dead are in touch with the living. A 'new revelation' is in process of delivery."

"Do the facts warrant Sir Oliver's conclusions and inferences? Many explanations are offered, and by scientific men, who differ absolutely from Sir Oliver in their conclusions."

"Some maintain that most of the happenings result from fraud and trickery. Certain it is that spiritism has much to be ashamed of in 70 years of notoriously fraudulent mediumship. The whole history of the spiritistic movement is filled with evidences of fraud."

"To take up with spiritistic practices is, of a certainty, to invite physical, mental and moral ruin, and, not infrequently, complete loss of faith. The church warns her children away from the danger by putting spiritistic practices under her absolute ban."

TO CALL 15 ADMIRALS TO TESTIFY AT PROBE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Fifteen admirals, named by Chairman Hale of the senate naval sub-committee investigating naval decoration awards, are among those Secretary Daniels has been asked to summon as witnesses in the investigation which begins tomorrow.

The list is headed by Admiral Sims, who brought the controversy over naval awards into the open by declining to accept a distinguished service medal on the ground that war honors had not been properly distributed in the navy.

After the admirals have testified, commanding officers of naval vessels sunk or seriously damaged by submarine attack during the war, probably will be called before the committee.

PARKS HAS WISDOM LIKE UNTO SOLOMON

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 15.—It's a far cry between King Solomon, with his shrewd decisions, and the Massachusetts Industrial Accident board, but when it comes to getting results it might be said that the judges in the latter organization wouldn't have to take a great deal of back water if they were pitted in decision-making against the lawgiver known in history as one of the wisest that ever wore the purple.

Solomon, it will be remembered, was called upon to decide a case in which two women claimed the motherhood of one child and each wanted the king to award the youngster to her. The demeanor of each seemed equally sincere, so the king couldn't tell which one was stringing him. To discover the mother he ordered the child cut in two and divided between the women. Then the anguish shown by one of the claimants denoted it was she to whom the child belonged.

Joseph A. Parks, a member of the industrial accident board, which passes upon claims for compensation under the workmen's compensation law when an employee is injured, was called upon to decide a case in which one Charles Talewitz, an employee of the Waltham Bleachery and Dye Works, asked that the board order resumption of weekly payments after they had been discontinued.

Talewitz suffered an injury to his right arm while pushing a truck last summer and was given compensation at the rate of approximately $132 a week. As the law reads, compensation is stopped when an employee recovers from an injury unless he is otherwise incapacitated. When the thirteen per cent was cut off, Talewitz claimed that he wasn't being given a full measure of justice, saying that he still has a pain all through the arm and consequently isn't able to do a tap of work.

Mr. Parks listened to the tale of Talewitz and also to that of the opposition. He told both sides he would consider the case and appeared so interested in the claimant's side that on ending the hearing he asked for a handshake, which was duly exchanged.

His decision, in part, follows: "I find that this man should go to work. He shook hands with me very readily when I asked him to and I found that he had as good a grip as it was possible for a man of his build to have. The evidence shows that the employee has not been totally disabled."

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO- PHOSPHATE

Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft, curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by A. W. Dows and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, relating her own experience, writes: "Bitro-phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

DANCING PARTY AT LINCOLN HALL

As a prelude to their annual parish reunion to be held in Associate hall next Wednesday evening, members of St. Patrick's parish conducted a most successful dancing party last evening in Lincoln hall. Despite the sharp temperatures prevailing outside, there was a good-sized crowd present to enjoy a long program of dance numbers that continued from shortly after 8 o'clock until midnight. A short orchestral concert preceded the dance.

Shortly after 10 o'clock refreshments were served. A number of the clergymen of the parish were present at various times during the evening and greeted the merry-makers. A substantial sum was realized for the benefit of the table to be conducted at the reunion under the direction of Rev. James A. Curtin.

The dance was in charge of a committee which included Miss Lillian O'Brien, Mrs. Della Donohue, Mrs. Louisa Keefe, Mrs. John McDermott and Mrs. Aletto Parent.

THE SUGAR SITUATION IS IMPROVING

That the local sugar situation is steadily improving and that the "famine" of the past few months is now practically at an end, was the statement of Daniel Cosgrove, president of the Lowell Grocers and Butchers' association, speaking before the members of the organization in the Elks' building last evening. The meeting was well attended and considerable routine business was transacted.

Clarence Fairburn spoke at some length on matters pertaining to the organization, and was given a vote of thanks for his efforts in behalf of the members. David Gerow was elected as a representative to Community Service, Inc. During the evening reports were read by George F. McGuire, the secretary.

TELEVIEW CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Teleview Christian association conducted a social for about 100 Teleview school students last night, with music as the chief diversion. Selections by the banjo-mandolin club and by the "syncopated seven," a school septet added to jazz, were greatly enjoyed. There also were songs by Dick Hadley and J. Rice, and piano selections by Boris Leststein. Light refreshments were served at the close of the program.

PLAN BIG THRIFT DRIVE

Date For Nation-wide Campaign Is From January 17 to 24

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Eight ways to be thrifty will be taught the people of the United States, in a national thrift campaign extending from Jan. 17 to Jan. 24.

"National Thrift Week" will witness the Y.M.C.A. with government backing carrying a thrift message to every man, woman and child in the country. The campaign is being conducted with the co-operation of the banking, insurance, real estate and commercial interests of the country.

Among the influential men who are supporting the movement, both financially and actively, are Homer J. Ferguson, president of the United States chamber of commerce; Herbert S. Houston, former president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale; Gov. Allen of Kansas, Adolph Lewisohn and E. K. Satterlee, New York banker.

The campaign will be conducted solely along educational lines. How to spend wisely will be stressed upon even more than how to save.

Each of the eight days set aside for the campaign will be devoted to one special subject and line of activity. The first day, Saturday, is intended to be a thrift or bank day, and will emphasize the service a bank renders a community. It will be conducted by the banking interests in each locality. The other days, their designation and purpose, will be:

- Sunday, Jan. 18—Share With Others Day.
- Monday, Jan. 19—Life Insurance Day.
- Tuesday, Jan. 20—Own Your Own Home Day.
- Wednesday, Jan. 21—Make a Will Day.
- Thursday, Jan. 22—Thrift in Industry Day.
- Friday, Jan. 23—Family Budget Day.
- Saturday, Jan. 24—Pay Bills Promptly Day.

BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS FOR RHEUMATISM

This painful malady is the direct result of a poisonous condition of the blood. It is caused by a disregard of that condition known as constipation. Unless the alimentary tract is kept clean, sweet and wholesome the food ferments, decays and causes ill health. Bliss Native Herb Tablets are nature's remedy for relieving the system of blood impurities, by maintaining a healthy condition of the liver, kidney and bowels. A dollar box contains 200 tablets, and will last the average family six months. Be sure and get the genuine and avoid spurious imitations. Look for the money back guarantee on every box, and our trade mark. Put up in two sizes, 50c and $1.00.

Sold by leading druggists and local agents everywhere. Made by Alfonso G. Bliss Co., Washington, D. C.

CIDER IS NOW PLACED WITHIN "DRY" BAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In one of the broadest constructions yet placed on provisions of the act for enforcement of constitutional prohibition, Prohibition Commissioner Kremer has ruled that fruit juices and ciders come within the dry ban if they contain more than one-half of one percent alcohol.

The commissioner's interpretation of the law was set forth yesterday in a memorandum charging prohibition directors and inspectors with the added duty of examining the alcoholic content of such beverages.

The drastic regulation goes into effect with constitutional prohibition Jan. 16. Violation of it carries the same penalties as for the manufacture or sale of stronger liquors.

Officials, in discussing the ruling, asserted that such a step could not be taken under war-time prohibition, nor was it enforceable under the prohibition laws of most of the states. Hitherto, the bureau of internal revenue has held fast to the policy of assessing taxes against fermented liquors containing more than one-half of one percent alcohol, but actually the regulations could not be applied to cider and fruit juices because of the technical language of the law, it was said.

Strict enforcement of the regulation will hold liable dealers in fruit juices and ciders in which the alcoholic content increases even while in storage. The department does not intend, however, to gauge all beverages thus produced, officials said, but a "watchful eye" would be kept on these manufacturers and dealers. Natural fermentation will offer no excuse for evasion of the regulation, it was declared.

VARTANOUSCH KARAGHEUSIAN

ARAB SLAVE IN UNITED STATES NEW YORK.—Miss Vartanousch Karagheusian, first American girl held as an Arab slave to arrive in America, has had a run of thrilling adventures. Her family was driven miles into Turkish territory, in the vicinity of Mesopotamia, and she alone survived the march. Being assigned to a Turkish hospital at Vartanousch, she managed to escape to the British lines and was then sent to the American relief station at Beirut. Her brother, John, a wealthy rug merchant of Minneapolis, met her on her arrival in New York.

WORLD ALMANAC FOR THE YEAR 1920

The celebrated World Almanac has made its appearance for 1920 and as usual, this handy compendium of all kinds of information, will be given a prominent place in offices and homes where a readily available digest of facts and figures is used frequently. The 1920 Almanac is even more complete than its predecessors and in nearly tabulated form contains information concerning various events that have transpired in the past year. The 15th amendment to the constitution is given in full as well as the complete text of the peace treaty which was recently ratified by countries which took part in the world war with the exception of the United States. The usual elaborate tables of vital statistics, laws, historical facts, etc., all find their proper places in this handy volume. A complete index is one of the most helpful features of the work.

The names of the 60,000 Canadians killed in the world war will be inscribed on the walls of a church which will be erected in Notre Dame de Grace, a suburb of Montreal.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

PLEASANT MEETING AT THE C.Y.M.L.

An enjoyable get-together of the C.Y.M.L. and St. Patrick's Holy Name society was staged at the C.Y.M.L. headquarters on Suffolk street Tuesday evening. The program embraced a splendid entertainment in which several members of the two clubs appeared in song and minstrelsy, remarks by Rev. James L. Keenan, spiritual director of the organizations, and a whist, billiards and checker tournament in which the honors went to the C.Y.M.L.

President Pendergast of the C.Y.M.L. and President Flannery of the visiting club were the other speakers. The entertainment program included selections by Frank Bourke, John J. Keefe, Patrick McGarrett and Philip Flynn.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrup are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, and fill up with homemade sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pinex and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The C.Y.M.L. were present and are as follows: President John J. Flannery; vice president, John J. Keefe; financial secretary, John F. Murphy; recording secretary James H. Walsh; board of trustees, William Deist, John Delmore, John Flannery, James Flannery, William Furey, Paul Grady, John Keefe, Daniel Leahy, John McDermott, Frank McGarrett, John Murphy, Frank O'Neill, John Randall, Timothy O'Han and James Walsh.

The committee in charge of the evening's entertainment and refreshments were as follows: Patrick Grady, John McDermott, James Walsh, Frank Murphy, John J. Keefe, Frank McGarrett, Daniel Leahy, B. Furey, J. O'Connor, T. Roban and W. J. Pendergast.

LUNATIC INSPIRED SONG, WRITER SAYS

LONDON.—Several of England's song hits were inspired by a lunatic, their author, P. E. Weatherly, declares. "I knew him in a hospital when I was a boy," Weatherly says. "He told me fairy stories I later wrote into popular ballads."

A Woman Is As Old As She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor." Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store.

Beauty depends upon health.

Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weakness of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.

To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young but feel young. It overcomes the weakness and builds you up.

Your druggist can supply you with liquid or tablets; or send ten one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial pkg. of the tablets will be mailed to you. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been in use 50 years.

If you wish to know all about yourself, drop a line to Dr. Pierce for free pamphlet on Diseases of Women. Should you desire to consult his medical staff of physicians or ask for information, the same will be cheerfully furnished you wholly without cost and your letter will be treated as strictly confidential.

YANKEE DIVISION DANCE AT STATE ARMORY

The spirit of "Carry On for the Y.D." was finely typified at the state armory in Westford street last evening, when 1500 former members of that New England division with their friends danced until the midnight hour, and enjoyed one of the best social affairs of the winter season. The dance was held for the purpose of raising additional funds for the campaign to build a Yankee division clubhouse in Boston, of which Lowell has been allotted $300 as its quota, and the local total of $300 already secured by individual gifts was substantially augmented.

Up to last evening Treasurer Roland Black of the Union National bank had reported the following subscriptions:

James J. Kerwin $25.00
Frank S. Dean 25.00
Walter L. Parker 25.00
John Jacob Rogers 50.00
Mrs. J. Pryor Stevens 5.00
George H. Runels 10.00
Charles A. Stevens 250.00

Total $390.00

The Y.D. danced last night in a drill shed whose bleak, stern lines were rich in a display of national flags and colored bunting. The United States Cartridge Co. band was seated on an impromptu stage at the far end of the hall, with a background of pale blue on which the division insignia was prominently displayed. The side walls and roof were almost entirely covered with attractive displays of bunting and testoons of flags hid the balcony rail. The boys in charge were deeply indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Armstrong, Miss Florence Armstrong and Miss Helen Fennel, who composed a decorating committee. Their efforts were greatly appreciated.

Prior to the general dancing, the United States Cartridge Co. band played a snappy concert program under the able leadership of William Regan, while cabaret numbers were contributed by George "Babe" Rogers.

From 8.30 until 12 o'clock a dance program of 16 numbers was enjoyed. Mayor and Mrs. Thompson and Commissioner Murphy being present for a short while to represent the interest of the city. Throughout the evening the balcony was filled with friends of the boys, who seemed to enjoy the affair quite as much as the dancers below.

Officers of the dance follow:

General manager, John J. O'Rourke; assistant general manager, John T. McQuesten; floor director, Daniel P. Brennan; assistant floor directors, Patrick J. Brown, Harvey N. Bishop, William Murray; chief aid, Earl M. Gray; assistant chief aids, Russell Smith, James P. McCready, George M. Walsh; chairman of reception committee, Charles A. Stevens; treasurer, Roland W. Cashin, George J. Faneuf and Walter S. Douglas.

The Y.D. club dance committee was composed as follows:

AMERICAN UKRAINIANS IN CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The national convention of American Ukrainians opened here today with delegates of 1000 Ukrainian societies, scattered all over the United States, attending. The convention is held under the auspices of the Ukrainian national committee.

The chief objects of the sessions are to perfect an organization for the relief of war sufferers in Ukraina, where great numbers of persons are reported to be dying of typhus; to outline a program for combatting bolshevism to plan for the establishment of a Ukrainian language daily newspaper here; to promote commercial relations between the United States and Ukraina and to appeal to the United States government for the recognition of the Ukrainian republic.

Some Vienna theatres do without ushers by mounting electric lights in such positions that they illuminate the numbers on seats as long as they are unoccupied.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisilf coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisilf coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

FEAR SPREAD OF DISORDERS

Communists Use Berlin
Riots To Inflamm Masses
Throughout Germany

Manifesto Urges Election
of Revolutionary Employes' Councils

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—A communist manifesto issued today urges the immediate election of revolutionary employes' councils in all industrial establishments.

Fear Riots, Will Spread
LONDON, Jan. 15.—Fears are expressed in diplomatic despatches received here that the Berlin imbroglio may spread throughout Germany, and even to Vienna through the agency of the communists, this element using the recent Berlin disorders to inflame the masses by representing those killed as martyrs to the cause of the people.

Vienna, it is pointed out, would be likely to furnish fertile ground for the agitators because of the great unrest that already exists there.

Thus far no disorders are reported outside of Berlin.

The advice, in analyzing the upheaval in Berlin, point to its original cause as the dissatisfaction of the independent socialists over the failure of the government to provide a method for the establishment of the workmen's councils called for by the constitution, but gave the immediate cause as indignation at the attitude of the government towards strikers. This resulted in the organization of the redstar building.

The violence that followed, however, is declared to have been due to communist agents, who took advantage of the assemblage and, working on mob psychology, started the riot which resulted so disastrously.

Quiet in Berlin
LONDON, Jan. 15.—Berlin was completely quiet Wednesday, according to a wireless despatch from the German capital. The large factories were working normally, and the railway tram services were not interrupted.

Strong indignation is expressed in every branch of industry at the unscrupulousness of the independents.

A Child's Soft Teeth

Are Easily Injured

The teeth of young children are not yet thoroughly calcified; many have naturally soft, chalky teeth. Many tooth pastes contain powder, pumice, or shell, acid-calcium-phosphate. Prof. Gies of Columbia college found one of these which was gritty enough to scratch glass! It is well for mothers to be careful.

A great many professional men allow only Albodon Dental Cream to be used in their homes. Dr. Henry R. Krehler, professor chemistry at Toledo university, considers it a superior preparation, and the children of the Rochester Orphan asylum have their "tooth drills" with it.

Albodon is calcium carbonate, saponified and mixed with the well-known antiseptic oils of cloves, cinnamon and eucalyptus. It is peculiarly effective and safe for women and children. A tube lasting five weeks can be bought, guaranteed, at any drug store.—Adv.

the despatch adds, because the leaders hid behind machine guns while the masses were driven forward to face the guns of the soldiers.

It is announced that the Berlin government will not permit demonstrations on the occasion of the burial of the victims of Tuesday's rioting.

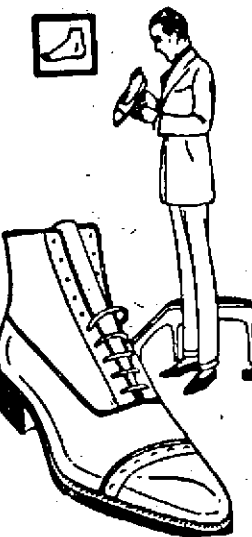

More Demonstrations Coming
GENEVA, Jan. 15. (Naves)—Recent events in Berlin are said to be only the prelude to others of more importance which the independent socialists intend to provoke on the occasion of the anniversary of the death of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, Jan. 16, according to German advices.

Troops March on Leipzig
LONDON, Jan. 15.—German troops were marched to Leipzig on Tuesday, where they occupied the squares and public buildings, according to a Berlin despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., today. Machine guns were placed in commanding positions.

REPORT ON DEATH OF PETRIE CHILD

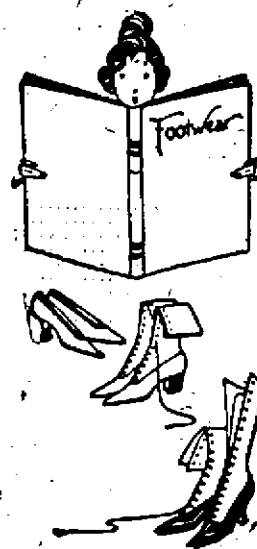

Medical Examiner Thomas B. Smith said today that he did not expect to receive a report for several days from Professor William M. Whitney of Harvard university on his investigation relative to the death of little Eleanor Petrie, 14 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Petrie. It is understood that the analysis of the child's digestive organs, on which will be based the fact of whether or not death was the result of arsenical poisoning, is quite exhaustive and will take at least ten days.

ONE OF GANG KILLED A MAN AND ALL MUST PAY THE PENALTY

Left to right: Thomas Kornchek, who accidentally killed Phillip Yanow; (upper) Michael Bahr and Phillip Rotyuski, and (lower) Samuel Zaluski and Alex. Martynuk, Kornchek's four companions.

Canadian Law Says All Are Guilty of Accidental Crime--Legal Authorities Say Similar Law Would Abolish Lynching in United States

BY LEE J. SMITH
TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 15.—Canada has a law which, legal authorities insist, would abolish lynching in the United States and cut down the number of crimes of violence. It would, they say, serve to check the "crime wave" which is sweeping through every large city in the country.

Five men are held in the grim little jail in Peterboro. They were sentenced to hang Jan. 15 under this law. They were convicted because one of them accidentally killed a man, while all were committing robbery.

The trials of all five consumed exactly seven days of court, with evening sessions.

Follows the Law
Chief Justice Sir William Mulock was almost overcome by emotion in passing sentence, but he only followed the plain course laid down for him by the law.

The five men were vigorously defended by Basil W. Essery, formerly corporation counsel in Toronto, and G. M. Gordon of Peterboro.

They are Michael Bahr, Thomas Kornchek, Phillip Rotyuski, Samuel Zaluski and Alex. Martynuk, all Russians, save Bahr, who is Austrian.

The death sentence has been commuted to life imprisonment for all but Bahr and Kornchek on the plea of Barrister Essery. No pardon or parole can intervene in the cases of the three, who will spend at least 20 years in prison, after which time the Canadian custom favors release, if the prisoner's record is clean.

Bahr led the gang in a holdup of the employees of the Ontario Rock Co., at Havelock, 17 miles east of Peterboro.

Were Gambling Best
He is said to have induced the four Russians to accompany him to the Havelock from Toronto on the promise that they could win money from the quarry workers by gambling. When they reached the quarry, Bahr suggested getting money without bothering to play cards, and the five ascending the stairs of the bunkhouse where the crew was asleep, Kornchek was in the lead, fumbling his way in the dark with an army automatic pistol thrust before him in his nervous right hand. The gun had a hair-trigger.

At the top of the stairs, Kornchek stubbed his toe against the head of bunk No. 13, occupied by Phillip Yanow, and the pistol was discharged.

The quarry workers were robbed of $110. The man in bunk No. 13 was stripped of his money belt while he lay moaning. The excited amateur bandits did not realize that he had been hit, but thought he was merely playing possum.

Surprised at Death
They were all arrested the next morning at Indian river. They had relied on the fact that foreigners seldom complain when they have been robbed, and were boldly making their way back toward Toronto, keeping together in broad daylight and pausing for target practice along the way. They were surrounded to learn of the killing.

There was no direct evidence linking them with the death of Yanow until Zaluski, an ex-soldier, leaped to his feet during the trial of one of his associates, and pleaded to be permitted to tell everything.

The Canadian criminal code, which closely follows the British, provides that "if several persons form a common intention to prosecute any unlawful purpose, and to assist each other therein, each of them is a party to every offense committed by any of them in the prosecution of such a common purpose, and to assist each other therein, each of them is a party to every offense committed by any of them in the prosecution of such a common purpose, commission of which offense was or ought to have been known, to be a probable consequence of the prosecution of such a common purpose."

All Equally Guilty
That bars the element of accident, and makes the five bungling bandits equally guilty.

Canadian attorneys explain that the prevalence of lynching in the United States is difficult for an Englishman to understand because, under British law, it would only be necessary to prove that a man was a member of a lynch mob to convict him of first degree murder.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

(By Theatres' Own Press Agents)
THE STRAND
Be with the crowd and laugh yourself tired at Charlie Chaplin in his latest million dollar comedy, "A Day's Pleasure." More new stunts and side-splitting. See them all and howl with delight. The other features include Alice Lake and an all-star cast in a dramatic, intensely human story of a New England fisher girl faced with the problem of whether to reveal or not to the man she loved more than life, a secret of her youth, entitled "Should a Woman Tell?" It's a gripping story. The other feature is "Peggy-Hylan in 'The Web of Chance.'"

Don't forget the coming of the Mack Sennett Bathing Girls, in person. It's a real novelty that will attract, entertain and satisfy. Don't miss it.

OPERA HOUSE
"Johnny Get Your Gun" is a farce comedy of rare merit, and the satisfying manner in which it is being treated by the Lowell Players at the Opera House this week, commands itself to all lovers of this brand of stage entertainment. If it's a good, hearty laugh you are looking for, you will find it at the Opera House.

Walter Buckley, as the egotistical Englishman in search of an American heiress, is particularly amusing, and John Meahan and the rest are good.

Next week's play, "Branded," will offer Miss Marguerite Fields her biggest dramatic role of the season. It's the story of a woman who goes from girlhood to motherhood and finally to martyrdom. It's greater than "Madame X." Don't miss it. Order your tickets early.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
A dancer who has been a champion at two styles of dancing is Johnnie Ford, who, with his Five Original Melody Mads, is appearing at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. The act is a mixture of excellent foot work and a mixture of vocal music. Five pianos are used by the mads, who distribute a lot of hitting melodies. It is a top-notch act all the way through. Ralph Ash and Sam Hyams, who are comedy producers, have a turn called "Nothing in the Level." The name is derived from a song which one of the pair sings. William Grew and Gwendoline

2 AMERICANS KILLED IN SIBERIAN BATTLE

LONDON, Thursday, Jan. 15.—Two Americans were killed and three wounded in a clash with an armored train of Gen. Semenov, commander-in-chief of the All-Russian armies, between Lake Balkal and Verkhneudinsk, in the province of Trans-Baikalia, according to the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Harbin. The Americans were reported to have captured the train.

Details of the brush between the Americans and the Semenov forces were unavailable.

Other clashes were reported between the Czechoslovaks and Gen. Semenov's troops.

A Moscow wireless despatch says the majority of the Cossacks in the Amur region and also the Burelans and the Kirghiz of the Trans-Baikalia region have revolted against the massacres of Gen. Semenov and repudiated his representatives.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Russian soviet troops, which are almost 400 miles east of Tula, will be aided by Chinese Bolsheviks, according to a Moscow despatch.

The Bolsheviks expect soon to encounter Japanese forces, and the Moscow despatch states the soviet forces will not "undertake any aggressive action calculated to provoke a collision." It says, however, that "the menace of the Japanese and of the entire vassals in the west will compel the soviet authority to devote a great part of its forces to military purposes."

The Ukrainians, who are reported as having occupied Odessa, do not appear to be fighting as comrades of the Bolsheviks, although they are opposing Gen. Denikin's troops.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Dorothy Dalton, one of the most interesting and attractive stars in filmdom, comes to the Merrimack Square theatre today for a three days' engagement in one of her most successful productions, "His Wife's Friend."

The story is taken from "The White Rock," a mystery is entertainingly mingled with love and adventure in the plot. Robert Warwick in "An Adventure in Hecuba" is the other feature for the latter half of the week, and a comedy and news picture round out an excellent bill.

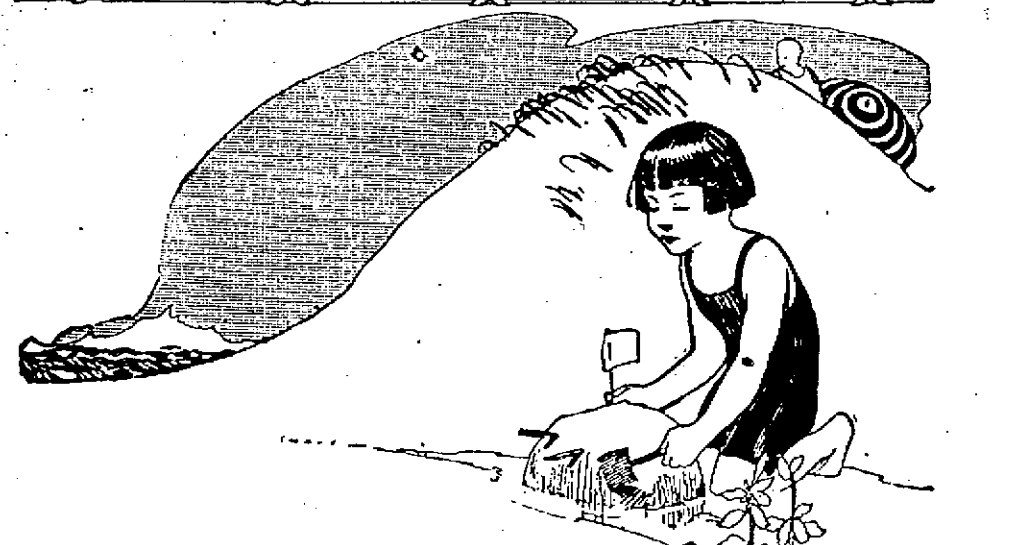

THE OWL THEATRE
"Love at First Sight" will supplant the former saying, "Love at first sight," according to the experience of Jack Robin, leading character in "Burlar by Proxy." Jack Pickford's latest picture, which will be seen commencing Thursday at the Owl theatre.

Pickford plays the part of Robin, in love with Dorothy Mason, whose voice he heard while driving his sporting roadster down a fashionable avenue. The love bug hits Jack so hard he turns burglar to assist in winning the girl.

The added attraction is Beatriz Michelena, one of the most beautiful and magnetic actresses of the screen, who has a vivacious and intensely vital role in her new production, "Heart of Juanita," made under the direction of Geo. B. Middleton.

No character in life or in drama makes a stronger appeal than that of a woman whose sin is that of the heart, whose impulses have made her the victim of a brutal man who uses her as a lure and then casts her aside for another.

Juanita, queen of the dance hall in the primitive settlement, was not a virtuous woman by conventional standards, but she was faithful to one man. (Ford as a lure by Jim Brandt, the dance hall boss, Juanita was the wife of the primitive place of amusement. When a duffy-haired blonde from San Francisco captured the fancy of the boss, Juanita's love turned to hate. "Ye fool! Ye ain't got any strings

GOOD-BYE, WEAK NERVES!

"Nothing wrong but my nerves." We hear it everywhere. Nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken arm or leg than a shattered, run-down, nervous system.

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells of all their strength and vitality; then come the sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry, and fear, that go with a run-down nervous system.

In cases of this kind, Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and build up the phosphate-hungry nerve centers. It takes hold right from the start.

The way the majority of people "come back" is remarkable. You can almost see their nerves grow strong, steady and peaceful. Their eyes sparkle, their cheeks are filled out, and flushed with the healthy, ruddy glow that only pure, red, ironized blood can give, and their whole system is alive with youth, energy and good spirits.

Phosphated Iron will do all this for old or young if they will give it a chance. Get a box today and watch it build you up.

NO WRESTLING BOUTS
The wrestling bouts scheduled for last night at the Crescent rink were called off. Jim Brooks, the promoter, announced that all the wrestlers were on hand, but the attendance did not warrant going through with the show. He said that the cold weather and the fact that the local Greeks were observing their New Year last night, kept many from attending and consequently he postponed the show until some future date.

MARRIES BY PROXY GETS FOUR CHILDREN	LONDON.	The next time
Smith	marries	he'll take a lawyer with him to the altar. Smith now has a wife and a ready-made family of four because he didn't know the marriage law was obsolete in England. Smith was engaged to Mrs. Sarah Ann Jones, a widow with no family. Mrs. Jones couldn't come to the wedding and rather than delay the matter, Smith escorted Mrs. Jones' sister, also Mrs. Sarah Ann Jones, to the church and was wed.

POLO NOTES
For the benefit of all concerned it is hoped that the fans will keep up the good work inaugurated on Tuesday night and refrain from smoking during the progress of the games.

POLO NOTES
Fred Jean and his speedy "Tigers" will be with us tomorrow night.

POLO NOTES
George Hart and Steve Pierce, rushers for Fall River, have developed into a very classy pair, under the careful coaching of Big Jean. He has all his men travelling fast and is also showing good speed himself.

POLO NOTES
Owner Cronin of the Worcester team is one of the most enthusiastic men connected with the game. He usually travels with the club and he knows the game from A to Z. One night his team arrived in one of the cities minus a goal tender. He scoured the town and spent considerable money telephoning and telegraphing for a substitute, but without success. Finally in desperation he donned the regalia himself and went out there and put up a pretty good game at that.

POLO NOTES
Lowell's new uniforms are about as classy as anything we have seen on the polo surface.

POLO NOTES
Jack O'Brien will be right there in his old position tomorrow night, and if he plays anywhere near as good a game as he did last Tuesday night, Lowell's chances of winning are exceedingly good.

POLO NOTES
Terry Martin whips Friedman in Providence, Jan. 15.—Terry Martin of Providence won the decision over the Friedman of New York in the main bout of 12 rounds at Marlboro last night. Mickey Devlin, state lightweight champion, scored another knockout over Al Wiltze, lightweight champion of Connecticut, in the fourth round.

EACH DINER GETS CASE OF BEER
NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 15.—The first annual dinner of the real estate board of Newark almost ended in a riot last night when Christian Folgeson, president of the United States Brewing Co. and owner of the largest brewery in New Jersey, started the 500 diners with the announcement that every man present would be given a case of "brew" beer. The rush that followed in the general anxiety to have no name escape the list somewhat resembled a kridion scrimmage.

EACH DINER GETS CASE OF BEER
Mr. Folgeson announced he made the gift in order to "tide the banqueters over until the prohibition amendment is declared invalid." The beer will be delivered today. Some of it, the donor explained, was 4 per cent, some 5 per cent and a few cases of ale had a 7 per cent kick.

MARRIES BY PROXY GETS FOUR CHILDREN	LONDON.	The next time
Smith	marries	he'll take a lawyer with him to the altar. Smith now has a wife and a ready-made family of four because he didn't know the marriage law was obsolete in England. Smith was engaged to Mrs. Sarah Ann Jones, a widow with no family. Mrs. Jones couldn't come to the wedding and rather than delay the matter, Smith escorted Mrs. Jones' sister, also Mrs. Sarah Ann Jones, to the church and was wed.

POLO NOTES
For the benefit of all concerned it is hoped that the fans will keep up the good work inaugurated on Tuesday night and refrain from smoking during the progress of the games.

POLO NOTES
Fred Jean and his speedy "Tigers" will be with us tomorrow night.

POLO NOTES
George Hart and Steve Pierce, rushers for Fall River, have developed into a very classy pair, under the careful coaching of Big Jean. He has all his men travelling fast and is also showing good speed himself.

POLO NOTES
Owner Cronin of the Worcester team is one of the most enthusiastic men connected with the game. He usually travels with the club and he knows the game from A to Z. One night his team arrived in one of the cities minus a goal tender. He scoured the town and spent considerable money telephoning and telegraphing for a substitute, but without success. Finally in desperation he donned the regalia himself and went out there and put up a pretty good game at that.

POLO NOTES
Lowell's new uniforms are about as classy as anything we have seen on the polo surface.

POLO NOTES
Jack O'Brien will be right there in his old position tomorrow night, and if he plays anywhere near as good a game as he did last Tuesday night, Lowell's chances of winning are exceedingly good.

POLO NOTES
Terry Martin whips Friedman in Providence, Jan. 15.—Terry Martin of Providence won the decision over the Friedman of New York in the main bout of 12 rounds at Marlboro last night. Mickey Devlin, state lightweight champion, scored another knockout over Al Wiltze, lightweight champion of Connecticut, in the fourth round.

EACH DINER GETS CASE OF BEER
NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 15.—The first annual dinner of the real estate board of Newark almost ended in a riot last night when Christian Folgeson, president of the United States Brewing Co. and owner of the largest brewery in New Jersey, started the 500 diners with the announcement that every man present would be given a case of "brew" beer. The rush that followed in the general anxiety to have no name escape the list somewhat resembled a kridion scrimmage.

EACH DINER GETS CASE OF BEER
Mr. Folgeson announced he made the gift in order to "tide the banqueters over until the prohibition amendment is declared invalid." The beer will be delivered today. Some of it, the donor explained, was 4 per cent, some 5 per cent and a few cases of ale had a 7 per cent kick.

HELP POLAND

On more than one occasion during the war, when long lines of young men crowded High street, as they left the Polish church on Sundays, the remark was made that if they had been in Poland during the war, most of them would have been killed, for the reason that the opposing forces of Russia and Germany fought back and forth over a large part of the country as many as half a dozen times, each army burning and wrecking everything as it retired.

Yes, Poland for two years was the storm centre of the war and suffered terribly; but those who survived have had the good fortune to see the fragments of their ancient nation reunited after centuries of separation and oppression, and once more forming one nation under their own government with Paderewski, the well known pianist, as the leading spirit, counsellor and adviser of the new republic. Well may the men of Polish origin in this country rejoice at the deliverance of their fatherland; well may they look back to her with a filial love and reverence, and with earnest hopes for her future prosperity.

All prosperity may come in the future years; but today, the people of Poland are starving and no food can be found unless sent by other nations.

Here, then, is a duty and a responsibility that comes to the young Poles of this and other American cities. If they love their race, if they have any national pride, they should send to their starving country folks cargoes of food and fuel sufficient to tide them over this terrible period of famine.

Every Pole in the United States should contribute one, two or three weeks' pay for the relief fund.

Of what use is a few paltry dollars in such a national emergency as this? Out of gratitude to God for saving them from the horrors of war and bringing freedom to stricken Poland, the men and women of that nationality now in this country should show their sympathy by contributing enough money to relieve their suffering kinsfolk now threatened with death from starvation.

NORTHCLEFFE'S VIEWS

Lord Northcliffe, in a recent London despatch, dealt with the Irish situation and contradicted many of the false statements circulated in this country by British propagandists. It appears that he is in favor of a settlement of the Irish question which would over-rule the claims of Ulster to dominate the rest of Ireland. He states that the salaries and wages paid in Ireland are the lowest in any English speaking country at the present time and that some English workers earn as much in a day as Irish laborers earn in a week. He dwells upon the rich natural resources of Ireland and the necessity of industries to offer opportunities for profitable employment for the people. He denies the statement that the people are thriftless and unwilling to work. He judges of their inclination by what he saw of the Irish people in this country. He says they are good workers and that they love to work under right conditions, when they are fairly paid.

It seems that if Premier Lloyd George concurred with Lord Northcliffe, the Irish question might be speedily settled. The prime minister, however, is playing politics and keeping the Ulster unionists on his side as the most aggressive branch of the old Tory party. His plans for a settlement of the Irish question, combined with his efforts to stamp out the Sinn Finn by military force, have only aggravated the situation. The friends of Ireland are determined to keep up the fight and carry it into Canada, Australia and other British colonies, in several of which movements for complete independence have already been inaugurated.

SHOOTING AT THE MOON

The man in the moon, at the safe distance of 219,000 miles from our planet, need not feel in the least alarmed at any alleged risk of having his luminous visage disfigured by any rocket or pyrotechnic missile projected from our planet. Only flashes of light and radio pulsations imparted to the luminiferous ether, can affect our satellite as directed from our mundane abode by human power.

We are not ready to accept as true the alleged story that Prof. Goddard of Clark university, has invented a rocket that can carry to the moon. We are willing to admit that it may rise 200 miles or to the utmost limits of our atmosphere; but beyond that, it is not likely to go very far.

The diameter of the moon is about one-fourth the diameter of the earth, or a little over 2000 miles. There is a line between the moon and the earth at which the attraction of the earth is overcome by that of the moon, and where a small body moving in space would be drawn towards the centre of the moon. Should Prof. Goddard's rocket reach that point, it would have powerful assistance to draw it towards the moon.

What this rocket may do is to produce a flash outside our atmosphere that will be reflected on the moon. But as for going to the moon and exploding there, the supposition that such a thing is at all within the range of possibility is seriously to be doubted.

HOOVER AND EUROPE

Herbert Hoover has done everybody a service by publicly diagnosing Europe's condition. He finds the patient is more frightened than permanently hurt. Only 5 per cent of Europe's population is in danger of starvation. Sufficient help for the needy can be supplied by 15 per cent of America's surplus wheat and flour. What the rest of Europe requires is to get back to work, and chiefly to mine coal. So speaks Doctor Hoover.

Europe, says Hoover, can get all the financial credit it needs in the United States through the usual commercial channels. Europe has the necessary collateral in its South American, Chinese and other securities as yet untouched. The whole affair is simply a matter of business. That may sound harsh; but it isn't. You don't help a man to his feet by carrying him, but by steadying him.

Reports from Europe persistently describe the allies as recovering their balance. Hoover says it's true. He declares, in effect, that Europe is solvent, and needs only to get its nerve back. Europe couldn't have a better recommendation for credit. By picturing Europe as a going concern, Hoover has done the allies a far better turn than those who cry bankruptcy to the world. If Europe and America accept Hoover's judgment, civilization will right itself the quicker through facing realities.—N.E.A.

A NEW MILL TOWN

President Wood of the American Woolen company of Lawrence, is going back to the corporation system of forty years ago, under which the textile companies provided houses for their officials and operatives. The only difference is, that in the olden days, boarding houses were also maintained for the operatives. Mr. Wood may adopt this feature later on as a means of lowering the cost of living for the unmarried operatives. He is also to maintain a company store which is a feature of certain big companies in Pennsylvania and other states. The store may be all right at first, but if not an exception, it will ultimately receive the greater part of the money earned in the mills.

In building Shawsheen village in Andover, with streets and all the conveniences needed in an active little town, Mr. Wood is embarking on an enterprise that will be closely watched. The houses are to be sold on easy terms to the employees of the company, and with the insurance and other features provided by the American Woolen company, its host of foreigners will surely decide to change their opinion of the "cup of lead" and of the United States in general. It is presumed that loyalty to the flag will be a synonym in the qualification of every resident of Shawsheen village. In this light, President Wood may discharge a heavy debt that his company owes to the city of Lawrence.

WOMEN IN POLITICS

The republican party is giving much attention to the demands of women for representation on the committees preparing for the national convention. To begin with, the 48 state chairmen who will sit in the convention, will be "aided and abetted" by 48 state representatives of the Women's Division of the National Committee. The women are going right in for an equal share in everything except in presenting candidates for the presidency. Chairman Hays is very obsequious in his deference to the attitude of the women. He is planning to bring as many as possible into the republican party, and hence they are to be represented on the platform committee, which is to submit a draft to the convention next June. It is generally conceded that the women may be able to furnish the party with some platform ideas of which there seems to be such a dearth among the party leaders.

The government did the right thing in refusing to accept any part of the indemnity money demanded by the allies from Germany, on account of the destruction of the war vessels at Scapa Flow. It is a small matter, so far as we are concerned, but it seems like blood money. We don't want it. The American delegates to the peace conference did not approve of the punishment meted out to Germany under the conditions. Indeed, they rather approved of the sinking of the vessels under a different arrangement, however.

It would indeed be good news for Lowell if the report proved to be true that the American Woolen Co. is to purchase the Bigelow Carpet Co.'s plant. This factory would make an excellent site for a plant of the American Woolen Co., and we have no doubt that a sufficient number of suitable operatives could readily be obtained. President Wood is doing things on a very large scale these times, and it would not be surprising if his operations would extend beyond the limits of Lawrence and Shawsheen village.

Can you imagine with what equanimity a public school teacher, who contributes a good round sum annually to secure a pension for herself, would contribute an additional sum to provide pensions for janitors of schools and other city buildings?

The bill for pensions for janitors of city buildings goes to the legislature with the endorsement of the municipal council. It is now up to the citizens to see that it be defeated.

At last, both operators and miners agree to accept the award of the coal commission. This may safely be taken as a proof that both will be favored at the expense of the consumer.

The Taunton jail is to be closed March 1, as New Bedford jail can accommodate all the prisoners from both cities. This, it is taken, is the result of prohibition.

The Harvard Brewery may not be liquidating; but its payment of dividends in good old rye whisky has caused many people to regret that they are not stockholders.

Aunt Sarah Jennings, Salisbury, Pa., has quit patching trousers. Well, she's entitled to quit, having mended 28,225 pairs in the half century she has been half-patching pants for men and boys of central Pennsylvania.

"Folks are too prosperous now to wear patched clothes," Mrs. Jennings is quoted. "In the old days when men got a dollar, or at most two, a day, they were patched trousers even on Sunday. Now they won't wear 'em to work in."

Country Snow

(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)
Out in the country where the snow is white
It brings a benison to bless the sight.
Here is a stretch of what was weeded
Now robed in softness, exquisitely laced;
Here is fresh napery spread across a field
Preparing for its feast of summer yield;
Here is a wood with every finger peared;
Here is a royal-robed and ermined world
Bearing in every eye a chaste delight, tinting the day and blushing the night.
Out in the country where the snow is white.

I had been city-bound a grievous time
And morning snow had turned to evening grime.
Until I had forgot that whited cabin
Scolding the far horizon, like a balm
From a far chimney, like a ghost at dawn.

A wreath of smoke gropes out and straight is gone.
No sound nor color mars the quietude.
As if all nature, in a hush of mood,
Were dreaming of our loved and loving dead.
With God's white coverlet above them spread.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Frank O. Stevens of Auburn, Maine, was a buddy of mine at the first Plattsburg camp during the spring of 1917 and we received second lieutenant commissions on the same day in August. He went home to Maine for 14 days and we met again at Devens on August 29. For three days we lived together and tramped the muddy roads of the cantonment which at that time had not received its first consignment of troops. Then orders took me away on Sept. 3, and from that day until yesterday, our paths never crossed. But yesterday was another day and again at Camp Devens we met in almost the identical spot we parted company on that fall day, two years and five months ago.

He still wears the officers' uniform, but he is a first lieutenant now, regular army. He is a little older, somewhat heavier, much more serious and on his left breast a faded cross of guerre with two palms gives an inkling of what he has been through. I told my story as we sat together at the hostess house and then he told his. I try to re-spin it for you, although lack of memory will necessitate the skipping of names and actual dates. With apologies, here it is:

"Well, old timer, as I recall it, you blew out of this camp on the third day of September, 1917. I stayed here through August, holding my commission as a provisional second lieutenant. Along in October orders came taking me to Camp Green down in Carolina and I was subsequently assigned to a company of the 60th Infantry, 5th Division. There was part of the Second, Third and Fourth there, too, but it gradually grew into the Fifth and along in April, 1918, we set out for Europe. That was the start.

"We hung around the piers for six days and then sailed. We went to Southampton and then Liverpool and after another short wait shipped across the channel to France. A training area came first, but it wasn't very long before we were sent up. That was in June, I think. On the 4th of July we went into action and from that time until the armistice was signed I was on every front from the ocean to Switzerland.

"Orders to report to special machine gun schools took me away from the outfit on several occasions, but I always went back. We got hell day in and day out. My machine gun company was in the Argonne for 41 days, with no chance for a bath or a change of clothing, and sleeping each night in the mud. But it was around the Meuse that we got it proper. I don't know why I wasn't shot off the earth there, and I didn't get a scratch. I went up after a machine gun nest at the top of a hill—six officers and 216 men—after we had taken it there were two officers and 108 men left. The lumps let us come on quite a distance and then put a box barrage around us. We fought our way out, but paid heavily for it.

"It was there I got a whole skin full of mustard gas which eventually took me back for three weeks in the hospital. It was late in the afternoon that I left an advanced machine gun emplacement to go back to the outfit and evidently a Boche battery spotted me for a shell hit about 10 feet to the left. Instinctively I jumped for the hole for I knew the second one wouldn't be apt to hit in the same place, but just as I reached it another one hit right behind me and the concussion knocked me into the crater and practically covered me with dirt. I didn't know they were mustard gas shells until I landed face down. I guess I was partially 'out,' but had sense enough to grab for my mask when I smelled the gas. Everything went black just then and when I woke up an hour later my right arm was crooked around, holding the mask in front of my face. I got back to the company and didn't feel any different than usual, except for a slight headache. Then my throat commenced to get sore and it was hard to talk. My eyes dripped water and the doc at the dressing station sent me back. I was in the hospital three weeks and during that time I never spoke above a whisper and for two weeks was totally blind.

"After the armistice we went into Luxembourg and for the following eight months I did every job ever heard of in the army. I finally wound up at Brest, in July, 1919, ready to sail, but was put on active duty again and was not able to get on a passenger list until early last December. I got home just in time for Christmas. I'm still a casual officer and have Siberian orders in my pocket, but now that the American troops are being withdrawn from there I may miss that trip."

"There are many things left out in this narration, one of them his nearest approach to death, but it didn't occur in action. It was on a street car in Brest which got away from the woman driver and crashed into a truck filled with men. The woman driver and two soldiers were killed and the car reduced to splinters, but he escaped with only a few scratches.

"I didn't mention his war cross and make it just a matter of fact story, perhaps not tell the whole of it—undeserving and all that sort of stuff—for how just that kind of a man."

We often wondered during those Plattsburg days, which seem years and years ago, if we would each come through whole and meet again to swap stories. We did.

TO COMBAT INFLUENZA IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—A campaign of defense against a possible recurrence here of an influenza epidemic began under direction of John Dill Robertson, city health commissioner. Reports of three deaths from "flu," 137 new cases and 25 deaths from the influenza ally, pneumonia, with 52 new cases in 24 hours prompted the action.

The health commissioner ordered downtown street sweeping down at night and an effort was made to have surface and elevated cars kept as free from dust as possible.

"Indications are that we are not in for an epidemic," said Dr. Robertson. "When influenza swept the country 30 years ago, it returned in a comparatively light form the following year. In my opinion that is what is happening to us now."

BOSTON MAN TO BE U. S. AGENT AT BERLIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The United States government, beginning Saturday, will be represented at Berlin by Ellis Loring Dresel of Boston, who has been designated as commissioner. Mr. Dresel has been in Paris for the past few months. He will leave for Coblenz, accompanied by Allen W. Dulles, who will act as his secretary. Officials of the state department said yesterday that Commissioner Dresel cannot represent the United States government officially at Berlin because of the treaty situation in the senate, but can keep in touch with the situation and keep the state department advised. He also will be in position to render assistance to American business men in Germany, but so long as Germany and the United States are technically at war his work will be unofficial and informal. He has a diplomatic status only to the extent that he represents the state department, and cannot be officially received.

N. H. GOVERNOR SUES FOR $50,000

Brings Action Against Newspaperman For Alleged Malicious Libel

Three Men Arrested at Portsmouth Following Charges of Vice Conditions

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 15.—Papers were served early today in an action for $50,000 brought by Governor John H. Bartlett against Edward J. Gallagher, correspondent for a Boston paper, and editor of the Concord Patriot, and against the New Hampshire Patriot Co. for alleged malicious libel and defamation of character.

The charges upon which the action is based were said to have been reprinted in the Patriot from a Boston paper and it is claimed libeled the governor's name with certain "corrupt and immoral practices" said to have taken place in Portsmouth.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 15.—S. Decker and J. M. MacFarlane, Boston newspapermen, and H. W. Weinbaum, who is connected with a local newspaper, were arrested here last night on capias writs issued in the case of the first two for alleged malicious libel, and in the case of Weinbaum for alleged circulation of libel, as a result of charges of vice conditions published in a Boston newspaper and in a local newspaper. All three were released on bail of $10,000 each.

Hoover Upholds Osborne

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 15.—Asst. Sec. of the Navy Franklin L. Roosevelt arrived in Portsmouth yesterday from Washington and was received at the navy yard with full ceremonies. After a short tour of inspection of the yard he examined the naval prison.

Before leaving for Boston Mr. Roosevelt stated he found conditions at the prison very satisfactory and that he had come here to investigate two complaints, one being from a board and the other from an investigator of the department of justice. He left with Lieut. Com. Osborne, ex-warden of the Sing Sing prison, some specific charges which are to be answered in writing to the department of justice.

A complaint had been made about the feet of Portsmouth citizens of escaped naval prisoners, but Mr. Roosevelt felt that this complaint was unwarranted.

because during the 2½ years Lieut. Com. Osborne has been in charge of the prison, 6652 prisoners have been handled and only eight have escaped. Mr. Roosevelt further stated that no hearsay evidence would be considered. He expects to return here at a later date and will give those who have preferred charges an opportunity to be heard.

Rear Admiral Herbert O. Dunn, commander of the 1st naval district; rear Admiral Alexander P. Halstead, commander of the Portsmouth navy yard, and Capt. John J. Hyland, aid to rear Admiral Dunn, were Sec. Roosevelt's escort.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The League of Nations will come into being tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at a public ceremony to be held in the "clock room" of the French foreign office. Leon Bourgeois, the French representative, will preside and make the opening address, while Earl Curzon of Kellistown, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, will also speak. Hugh C. Wallace, the American ambassador to France and American representative at the peace conference will not attend.

Hughes M. Bourgeois and Earl Curzon, the meeting will be attended by Vittorio Salicruti, Italian foreign minister; Premier Venizelos of Greece; Paul Hymans, Belgian foreign minister; Count Quiroga de Leon, Spanish ambassador to France; Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain; Dr. Alfonso Costa, Portuguese peace delegate, and Dr. Gasloa da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France.

Press comment on the meeting dwells principally upon the absence of the United States from this entry into the realization of President Wilson's chief aim in the peace conference. Most of the newspapers of Paris predict this absence will not be of long duration, and say: "The League of Nations cannot be complete until America is represented."

BRYAN PREDICTS RATIFICATION TODAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—William J. Bryan, on route to Washington yesterday, predicted that the senate would ratify the peace treaty today.

While giving no specific reason for expecting this action, Mr. Bryan said that the senate must now to the public demand that there be no more delay. "The people want action," he said, "instead of words."

reported in the press and discussed in school.

"The questions on which the survey was based were as follows: 'What vocation do you expect to pursue as a life work?'

"Do you intend to remain permanently in Lowell? (If not, why not?)" "As a future citizen what would you suggest that the chamber of commerce undertake for the general improvement of Lowell?"

As to vocations, 155 of the boys and 100 girls were undecided. Some of the vocations which the boys intend to pursue were: Textile chemistry, architectural engineering, textile manufacturing, business administration, mechanical engineering, journalism, medicine, automobiles, brokerage, chemistry, the ministry, office work, pharmacy, electrical work, civil and mechanical engineering, landscape gardening, scientific farming, the law, jobbing, shoe dealing, stenography, contracting, telegraphy, stenography, illustrating, motion picture production, steam engineering, the priesthood, music, mechanical drawing, dentistry, machinery, undertaking, banking, Episcopal ministry, furniture dealing, airplane, mechanics, marine engineering, printing, grocery, the milkman, soldiery, the chauffeur, the salesman, the constructing engineer, architecture, civil service, magic and ventriloquism, cartoon drawing, bookkeeping, mining engineering, naval engineering, a naval officer, and the shorthand reporter.

Among those named by the girls were stenography, teaching, private secretarialship, office work, nursing, bookkeeping, social welfare work, physical training, music, domestic science, organ playing, agriculture, telegraphy, dental nursing, telephone operating, clerical library work, surgery, housekeeping, designing, landscape gardening, dietetics, art, singing, missionary work, literary work, that of a waitress, millinery, the law, dressmaking and the merchant.

The answers to the second question showed that 232 boys and 266 girls expected to remain permanently in Lowell, while 133 boys and 130 girls said they would not or were undecided as to whether they would stay permanently in this city. Many of those who stated they would leave the city gave as their reason that there were better opportunities elsewhere or living was better. However, the proportion of those are intending to remain in Lowell is unusually high as compared with other cities. This is a favorable sign for Lowell's future. It means that the future of the city lies in the hands of those who have grown up in its schools. The surveys usually indicate that a majority may, or will leave the city ultimately.

The response to the third question indicated that nothing which might be done for the welfare of the city had escaped notice. While the suggestions were numerous, in quite a number of cases hundreds were in agreement. For instance, this was true in the case of the new high school. Nearly every student urged immediate construction. This, perhaps, was to be expected. Cleaner streets, deepening of the Merrimack river, the elimination of grade crossings, the expansion of the park and playground system, better street car service, improved housing conditions, the immediate erection of the auditorium, better buildings in the center, a stadium for athletics, better street lighting in the suburbs, Americanization and more sanitary tenement districts, were among the suggestions strongly stressed.

In connection with the third question one student, a senior boy wrote, "use influence to have the study of civil government taken up more generally in the schools so that the men and women of tomorrow may be able to choose really intelligent and efficient men for public office. Teach the children to regard public office as a very high honor and responsibility and to consider it far more important than high salaried private endeavor."

The civic program outlined and hailed down from the suggestions made by the high school students, follows:

New high school.
Athletic park.
Make the Merrimack river navigable.
Street improvements.
Beautification of the city.
Elimination of grade crossings.
Stimulation of the work of Americanization.
Improvement of living conditions in congested districts.
Encouragement of new industries.
A required course in civil government in the high school.
Clean streets.
Better car service.
Lower fares to the suburbs.
Additional cars on certain lines.
A dispensary in congested districts.
Another skating rink like Shedd park.
Suppression of cheap dance halls.
Abandonment of junior high school.

LION DUSTS HUSBAND

Weird Case Rivals "Lady or Tiger" — Husband Gives Up

What strange soul-twist has made Mrs. Betty Cole, young San Francisco bride of former Lieutenant H. E. Cole of the United States army, prefer the affection of a lion to the devotion of her husband?

More exotic in many ways than the famous classic "The Lady of the Tiger," the Cole case of "The Man or the Lion" provides the weirdest triangle that ever disrupted a home.

Forced by her husband to choose between him and her continued idolatry of the big shaggy household pet, he gave her when it was a cub, Mrs. Cole elected the lion, Husband Mrs. Cole promptly left.

MRS. COLE AND HER LION.

Mrs. Cole has invested her affection for the "Beloved Beast" with a mystic significance.

"My husband brought Tawny to me when he was a helpless cub," said she in explaining the estrangement. "The moment I took it in my arms I knew his soul was in some way linked to mine."

"I have always longed for a child and all my mother instinct went out to little Tawny. As he grew older we became more closely attached. I understood his prattle as a mother understands a child's. And I sang him to sleep at night."

"Now I could not live without him, nor he without me, for who would understand the great soul and heart encased in the body of a lion?"

"My husband threatened to shoot him, and Tawny fears and hates him. It is the good spirit of the lion opposing the evil spirit of Mr. Cole."

"Cole vows he still loves his wife but can't stand for her lionizing whims."

HOW TO MAKE A HUNTING BOW LIKE THE YANA INDIANS MADE IT

For the beginner at practical archery a bow of the kind used by Ishi, last of the primitive Yana Indians, is probably the best. Later the long-bow model used by the famous English archers of Robin Hood's day can be substituted and will give greater distance and accuracy to the arrow.

Ishi, in the wilds, made his bows out of juniper. In civilization he used yew wood, eucalyptus, tamarack oak, red cedar, hickory and ash.

A boy's first bow should be simple and not too strong. The easiest wood to get is hickory. Find a piece of well seasoned second growth hickory, about two inches square and five feet long. (A wagon wheel is just about this size and can be bought at a hardware store.) It should be straight grained and free from knots.

Rip or plane it down to one and one-quarter inches in both diameters. Then put a mark at the center. From this point taper both limbs gradually, so that the extremities, or tips, are half an inch square. To do this you can use a bench vise and draw-knife, or a jack plane.

Now round off the edges on two sides, so that the cross section resembles a Gothic arch. This is the belly of the bow and faces toward you when you shoot. Finish it with a wood rasp and sand paper.

The nocks or notches for the string are made by filing two deep, slanting grooves on the sides, an inch from each end. The handle is made by wrapping the center with heavy fish line or tape. The top of the handle starts one inch above the center of the bow and runs down three inches on the lower limb.

Mark the upper nock, or point it such a color that you can always recognize it, and always shoot with this uppermost.

The string is made of shoemaker's linen. Cut about forty strands of Harbour's No. 12, Irish linen, in lengths of 6 feet, wax them and give them a good twisting. Fold over a loop at one end, having an eye about one inch in width. Put a little glue on the thread and wrap it below the loop.

Bind the loop with thread so that it does not fray out, then put it over the upper nock. Let the loop slide down three inches from the end and fasten the lower part of the string by a timber hitch to the lower nock. When strung the string should be about six inches from the bow.

Bind the center of the string with red or green silk floss, well waxed. This protects it where the arrow rests. Give the wood a coat of linseed oil and shellac.

Now you have a good bow for a boy. When drawn back 26 or 28 inches, it will pull about 40 pounds, will shoot about 150 yards, and is strong enough to kill rabbits, quail, squirrels and coons.

healthy skin

Yellow, blotchy skin is not only disagreeable and repulsive in itself, but it is the outward sign of biliousness and a sluggish condition of the liver, which may gradually undermine your health.

Don't let this continue. Use "L. F." Atwood's Medicine to keep the liver, stomach and other digestive organs working smoothly. You will feel better, have more energy and your complexion will become clear and healthy. Your blood will absorb more strength from your food, and your system will be better able to withstand diseases.

Keep a bottle always ready. Take a liberal dose at the first symptom of constipation or sick headache. The true "L. F." will benefit the whole family, young and old. It is absolutely harmless, and gives relief without weakening some other organ. For 60 years it has brought health and happiness to thousands, and never fails to justify the confidence placed in it. CHECKER CHAMPION GIVES EXHIBITION

Arthur A. McCullough, recently appointed captain of the All-New England checker team, gave a brilliant exhibition of this methodical pastime at the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday night. He played a number of the checker "sharks" of the "Y" simultaneously and won every match with the exception of one, which was drawn. He then moved the wooden discs about the board while blindfolded and this feat brought down the house.

He visualized the board perfectly and rarely made a false move. In addition to actually playing, Mr. McCullough explained situations at length and showed the younger students how to crawl out of seemingly impossible predicaments.

Reports Coming In Tell of Terrible Loss of Life as Result of Earthquake

MEXICO CITY, Wednesday, Jan. 14.—Reports slowly coming in from eastern sections of the state of Puebla tell of terrible loss of life in that region as a result of the earthquake on Jan. 2. Further east, in the state of Vera Cruz, the death toll seems to be growing, reports from Coahuila stating that the number of dead in that city and in surrounding villages is more than 3000.

The lake which inundated the village of Barranca Grande was caused by a mountain collapsing and damming the river. The waters were backed up until the former site of the village was inundated.

An exploring party returned to this city today from a visit of inspection to the crater of Mount Popocatepetl. The members of the party said the crater had been entirely changed and that huge fissures had appeared. There were perceptible indications of poison vapors rising at the time the party was on the mountain and it is said they probably resulted from recent seismic disturbances. The last eruption of Popocatepetl occurred in 1802, although in 1909 there were perceptible vapors above the crater.

To Expand Traffic Force

I am allowed to purchase a couple more motorcycles. I can put these on duty on the outskirts of the city and thus relieve a number of men now on duty there.

"These men I can transfer to the central section of the city for traffic duty. At the present time, I do not believe that our traffic posts are 'covered' enough hours during the day. There should be somebody on duty in the downtown districts from 8 in the morning until 10 at night, during the summer season, at least. At the present time the men do not go on duty until 9 or 10 in the morning and come off duty for their dinner hour, finishing their day's work early in the evening. Of course, I can't work one man more than eight hours a day, but by having relief men to go on duty during dinner and supper hours and in the latter part of the evening, the department will be able to have the traffic taken care of continuously without lapses as is the case at present.

"I am planning to establish a new traffic post in the spring at the junction of Merrimack, Dutton and Moody streets in front of city hall here as I think it is an important post. During the summer season I shall also have a man stationed at the junction of Moody and Pawtucket streets, another dangerous corner."

"At the present time there are five men assigned to traffic duty in addition to the three who are on motorcycle duty."

BILL TO LICENSE GASOLINE PUMPS

In order that this city may have some ordinance governing the use and erection of gasoline pumps on its public streets, City Solicitor William D. Regan, at the direction of the municipal council, has prepared a bill for the consideration of the legislature to provide for the proper licensing of such pumps.

The act is a general one, being entitled: "An act relative to the use of public streets in the city of Lowell for the storage and sale of merchandise."

Section 1 reads as follows: "The license commission of the city of Lowell may issue under the conditions hereinafter provided and under rules of its own not inconsistent herewith and rules of the municipal council of the city of Lowell not inconsistent herewith licenses for the use of specified parts of public streets and places in said city for the storage and sale of merchandise."

Further sections of the act provide that a person wanting such a license must apply to the license commission, giving a description of the premises he proposes to use for storage purposes, gain the consent in writing of the owner of the property and in some instances of the tenants.

The application must then be approved by the license commission and referred to the municipal council which in turn will order an investigation and report by the officials of the fire department. If the report is favorable and the council approves the application, the license commission will then grant the license and charge a fee of not less than $5 or more than $100, according to the size, capacity, etc., of the storage space. The license cannot be granted for a period longer than 12 months, but may be renewed.

Owing to the many applications of local garage and automobile accessory store owners for permission to have a gasoline swinging pump on the sidewalk, the solicitor prepared the bill and the next step will be to have the legislature approve it.

CARING FOR THE HORSE IN COLD WEATHER

That Lowell people are becoming kinder to their horses with each passing year is the belief of Agent Richardson of the local Humane society.

It gives as a reason for this statement the fact that fewer complaints in connection with the improper blanketing and care of Old Dobbin have been registered this winter than during any past year.

"Lowell folks are giving their horses much better treatment than in the past," declared Agent Richardson. "Not that I wish to infer that in previous years the drivers of the city neglected their horses, but the public as a whole appears to have come to believe in the doctrine of kind treatment to their dumb servants, with the result that very few complaints have been received of animals being abused or not properly cared for during the past months."

"It is most essential that a horse should be properly looked after during the winter months, particularly with reference to warm blankets and warm blis. There is no greater cruelty than to force a steed bit into a horse's mouth during the winter months without previously warming the metal. This can be done either by dipping it into hot water or warming it over a fire or by blowing on it. Unless the frost is taken out of the steel, it will adhere to the sensitive skin in the horse's mouth and cause a painful sore."

Agent Richardson also gives a few "cold weather" rules in connection with the care of horses, which are as follows:

Protect your animals from the cold. Stop the holes in your barn. Board in your life-up. Give the horse a good bed. Water your horse three times a day. Keep your horse's feet soft and have it shod often.

THE OCCUPANCY OF ERSTWHILE SALOONS

The topic of discussion on the streets of Lowell today was "What will the liquor dealers do after tomorrow and what will be done with their places of business?" Of course it would have been a very hard task to interview every liquor dealer in this city, so the best The Sun could do was to get hold of a representative of the Lowell Liquor Dealers' association and find out through him just what will be what and accordingly some interesting information was secured.

To begin with, out of a total of over 100 liquor dealers in this city only about 40 of them have kept their places open since July 1 when the war time prohibition went into effect, and that was for the sale of 2.75 per cent. beer and soft drinks, licenses having been issued by the license commission at $1000 per, subject to regulations by the federal government. When the supreme court ruled that the sale of the 2.75 per cent. beer was illegal many of those who had taken out licenses dropped out of the business and closed their establishments, but others kept right on with the sale of beer and soft drinks.

"Tomorrow national prohibition goes into effect and no beverage containing more than half of one per cent. of alcohol will be offered for sale and that includes the famous cider with a 'kick' the sale of which has been going on in this city for some time."

Most of the liquor dealers, so it was learned, own their own stores or have long term leases on the premises and it is understood that in many cases negotiations are under way for the sub-leasing of the stores. The liquor store of P. H. Brashman in Chelmsford street, so it is said, will soon become a pool and billiard parlor, while that of D. T. Sullivan & Co. in Lawrence street has already been converted into an A. & P. store. The shop of D. J. Conney in Gorham street has been occupied for some time by a meat market, while the store of L. F. J. Turcotte, in Merrimack street, has been turned into a tonic bottling plant. The Waverly hotel in Market street is undergoing extensive repairs and changes and will be converted into a hardware store, while the proprietor of the Harris-hia hotel is making plans to convert his wine room into a modern bakery. The old Rockingham hotel in Central street has been turned into a modern bank and several other former liquor establishments have been converted into stores of another nature.

The Lowell "Liquor Dealers' association is still in existence, but its members are undecided as to what they will do. A decrease in the membership has been noted since July 1 for most of the former liquor dealers, who have dropped the business, have also turned in their membership cards and are no more connected with the organization.

BILLS OF INTEREST TO LOWELL PEOPLE

A number of new bills of interest to Lowell people have been filed with the clerk of the house of representatives at the state house, according to a bulletin received at the office of the city solicitor today. One of them provides for the regulation of the wages of scrubwomen, another to prohibit boxing where the contestants are less than 21 years old, and a third relative to the pensioning of foremen in the employ of cities and towns.

Japanese have developed a process whereby silkworms can be cultivated 10 times a year instead of twice as normally, and better silk produced.

CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT

The public is reminded that the exchange of tickets for the reserved seat coupons opens for the public on Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the Strand Theatre. As the exchange continues from 10 to 1 and as every seat in the theatre is perfectly satisfactory for a concert of this kind, there is no necessity for purchasers of tickets to get to the theatre promptly at 10 o'clock and stand in line. There has been a big advance sale of tickets, although there are still some to be had at the stores as indicated in the advertisement on another page. With an interesting and varied program such as is to be given next Tuesday evening and with such excellent artists as Reinald Werrenrath, Dicle Howell and Ben Redden, with a number by the Boston Festival Orchestra thrown in for good measure, the concert ought to be one of the most enjoyable ever given by the Choral society.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Robert Barton

DOWN THE CHIMNEY

Up out of the stump came words. Like this: "Oh, please, let me go. Please!"

Then some more words. "No, indeed, I won't! You stay where you are."

"If you'll just let me go, I'll send you some candy next Christmas."

"Next Christmas! And where do you think you'll be next Christmas?"

There wasn't any answer and the twins got more and more curious.

"Maybe it's Jocko," said Nancey. "Perhaps he's a prisoner."

"O-o-o!" cried Nick. "Maybe."

Then they discovered a hole. "Why, it's a chimney, I do believe," exclaimed Nancey. "Here's some soot. Let's go down."

So the green shoes made them very, very small, and making sure the magical mushroom was safe in Nancey's pocket, they started.

Near the bottom they began to smell the most delicious smells you ever smelled—I mean they ever smelled.

And when they got all the way down such a funny sight met their eyes they nearly fell into the soup.

Mrs. Woodchuck was getting dinner. And poor Daddy Long Legs was sticking right in the middle of it, custard pie! His must have fallen down the chimney. His high hat was on one side of his head and his cane was sticking up in the air beside him.

"Please," he was begging, "I didn't go to spoil your pie. I was hunting the barber shop when I fell down. I never heard of people having chimneys right in the middle of the street."

"Well, if you want to go out, swim out," said Mrs. Woodchuck. "You've spoiled my pie."

"The custard's eating and I can't," begged Daddy. "Now if I had a broom straw—"

Nancey and Nick stole quietly up the chimney again. They had seen a little gleam in Mrs. Woodchuck's eye and knew she was only giving Daddy a scare.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty marriage took place this morning when Mr. Valmore Vigeant, manager of Vigeant's market in Merrimack street and a prominent clubman, and Miss Antoinette Chapdelaine, a popular young woman of Pawtucketville, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at St. Joseph's rectory at 7 o'clock by Rev. Guillaume Ouellette, O.M.I. The bride was attired in a brown travelling suit trimmed with beaver and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and sweet peas. She was given away by her father, Mr. Louis Chapdelaine, while the groom was attended by his father, Mr. Ambrose Vigeant. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives at the home of the bride's parents, 4 Eighth avenue and later the happy couple left on a three-weeks' wedding trip to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. Upon their return they will make their home at 757 Merrimack street. The bridegroom, who is a popular member of Club Lafayette, was tendered a bachelor party in the quarters of the club in Warrananet street last evening and as a token of esteem he was presented a handsome leather easy chair. In the course of the evening a varied entertainment program was given and a buffet luncheon was served.

BOSTON SCHOOL HEAD WILL SPEAK HERE

The committee in charge of the annual dinner of Bishop Deane General assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, made a ten-stroke today when it secured Jeremiah E. Burke, assistant superintendent of schools in Boston and one of the most able speakers in New England, to speak at the dinner to be held next month. Mr. Burke is former superintendent of schools in Lawrence from where he went to Boston to serve as supervisor of Boston schools and was later promoted to the board of assistant superintendents. For a time he served as a member of the state board of education. He is recognized as a student and scholar of more than ordinary note and for some time the Knights of Columbus have been endeavoring to secure him as a speaker but were unsuccessful owing to the pressure of other engagements.

It is also confidently expected by Faithful Navigator Andrew Molloy and Chairman Thomas E. Deane that United States Senator Deane J. Walsh will be present to respond to a toast, thus completing a fine triad of lay speakers for the affair. Hon. Francis E. Slattery has previously expressed his intention to be present.

MAYOR PLANS TO EXPAND LOCAL TRAFFIC FORCE

Mayor Perry D. Thompson plans to expand the traffic force of the local police department considerably during the present year, he said today, and included in his program for the year is the purchase of several more motorcycles and sidecars for members of the force assigned to duty on the outskirts of the city. Three of these machines were purchased by the mayor last year and have proved a complete success. They allow the three men who use them to cover anywhere from 75 to 100 miles per day and do away with the need of putting extra men on the force to meet the natural growth of the city.

Even in such weather as the present the machines are on duty and, in fact, have not missed a day since they were installed in the department, according to the mayor.

"I shall not have to put any more men on duty to carry out my traffic plan," said his honor today, "providing

TELEPHONE GIRLS AT ASSOCIATE HALL

The annual dancing party of the telephone girls of this city is looked forward to with about as much anticipation as any other social event of the winter season here and for that reason it is expected that there will be a record-breaking crowd on hand at Associate hall this evening when the "hello girls" will stage their 1920 party.

The committee in charge has made arrangements for an unusually pretentious affair and those who have memories of previous parties will value this statement at its true worth. This is leap year and just to show that they are on the job the Appleton street maids have arranged special leap year features that will certainly "start something" among their friends of the sterner sex. All lines will be "busy" at Associate hall this evening and those who do not put in their call early in the evening will surely be out of luck.

SUDDEN DEATH FROM HEART DISEASE

Esther Dempsey, aged 15 years, died suddenly early this morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. Julia Dempsey, 207 Worthen street, as the result of an acute attack of heart disease. She was graduated from the Green grammar school last June, but did not enter the high school because of poor health. She retired last night apparently well, but awoke shortly before 4 o'clock and complained of a feeling of suffocation. She rushed to an open window, but died within 10 minutes. She was known to have had heart disease for several years and it grew so serious last summer that she was forced to spend three months at a hospital.

Firemen Rush To Rescue of 100 Persons Trapped at New Haven

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 15.—Fire this afternoon, on the seventh floor of the Exchange building in Church street, known as the Chamber of Commerce building, trapped about 100 persons on upper floors. Firemen placed ladders against the building to rescue them.

The fire may result in one or more deaths, and injury to many persons. Firemen by nets and scaling ladders rescued scores caught above the seventh floor. A number who jumped were safely caught. Charles W. Evans, attorney of Milford, Conn., health officer for New Haven county, was removed from his office overcome by smoke. The fire started in the basement and apparently ran up elevator shafts and penetrated the smoke they began search of offices. Many women who had fainted were taken out.

High School Students Outline a Program for Chamber of Commerce

What do the coming citizens of Lowell think of their city? Some of them are going to spend their lives here. Perhaps they have some idea of what they would like to have done to make their city more progressive and desirable as a home. Lowell is spending money on schools in order to fit boys and girls for the responsibilities of the future.

Will the city get the full return on the investment or will some other community, perhaps a rival, reap a part of the benefit?

A week ago the students of the Lowell high school were asked in connection with the expansion and reorganization campaign of the board of trade to express their views regarding the needs of Lowell in which they might be expected to have an interest because of their future participation in the work of the community. The survey was based on three questions. They were answered in writing by 357 boys and 470 girls, a total of 827 students.

Similar surveys have been made in high schools in other cities by those who made the survey here. It is stated that the replies made by the Lowell students were up to the average in variety of suggestions and extent of local observation. It was also noted that, contrary to the usual response, many more than half of those answering the questionnaire find so much that appeals to them in Lowell that they expect to stay here. Usually less than half are decided about remaining in the town where they are attending high school.

The whole survey probably may be taken as a reflection of what is taught in the homes as well as what is

Prohibition Amendment Goes Into Effect at Midnight Tomorrow

In reply to numerous inquiries reaching this office today relative to the exact time the prohibition amendment takes effect, The Sun telephoned the revenue collector's office in Boston and was informed that the amendment will be in operation throughout the country at 12.01 a. m. Jan. 17. In other words, at one minute after midnight Jan. 16, the new law will be in full operation. The liquor dealers, therefore, who have on hand any liquor, which they wish to remove or dispose of according to law, have one day in which to complete the work. Prohibition will then become part of the organic law of the nation.

Firemen Worked Under Freezing Conditions at Blaze in State St. Building

Hotel at Putnam, Conn., Destroyed by Fire—Loss Estimated at $20,000

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Firemen worked under freezing conditions today to put out a blaze which burned for an hour in a State street building occupied by the Park-Sausage and Provision Co. Escaping gas was an added hazard for the firemen. The flames ran from the basement to the fourth floor before they were stopped. The loss was estimated at $40,000.

Hotel Destroyed
PUTNAM, Conn., Jan. 15.—The Chickering House, a three story frame hotel in the center of the city, was destroyed by fire early today. Many guests lost their personal effects. One man was carried from the third floor by firemen. The loss was estimated at $20,000.

DEMOCRATS DEADLOCKED ON SENATE LEADER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Democratic senators in caucus today failed to elect a leader. A deadlock on a vote developed between Senators Hitchcock of Nebraska, and Underwood, of Alabama, and the caucus adjourned subject to call of the two candidates.

Two ballots were taken and the count on each was 19 to 13 with Senator Smith of Georgia withholding his vote.

The next caucuses will be held after Secretary Glass, appointed senator from Virginia, takes his seat. He is understood to favor Underwood. The caucus voted by a majority of one to invite Mr. Glass to today's meeting or allow his vote to be cast, but Senator Underwood decided not to press the matter.

The vote of Senator Smith would have broken the deadlock, but the agreement to postpone final action until Secretary Glass was seated, was said to have been reached without objection.

Forty-three senators were present, the absentees being Senators Swanson, Virginia and Smith of Arizona, who were paired, and Senator Johnson of South Dakota. Senators Hitchcock and Underwood refrained from voting.

The two democratic senators from New England, Walsh of Massachusetts and Gerry of Rhode Island voted for Senator Underwood.

SAYS U. S. MUST AID THE POLES

Baker Recommends U. S. Furnish Surplus Military Supplies to Poland

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Recommendations that the United States furnish surplus military supplies to Poland to aid it in repelling the westward advance of the Bolsheviks, have been made to the state department by Secretary Baker.

In making this announcement today to the house ways and means committee, Mr. Baker interrupted General Tasker H. Bliss, a former member of the supreme military council and the American peace delegation, who had told the committee that general revival of war in Europe was not "improbable" unless Poland could check the Russian Bolshevik armies.

The war secretary also said that the allied governments were considering participation in the movement to aid the Poles. Gen. Bliss told the committee that the Russian armies were far better equipped than the Poles, who were "the only bulwark against Bolshevism."

Describing Poland as "the possible storm centre" in Europe, Gen. Bliss declared that when "a whole people are brought to starvation," they may make war on a neighbor having food and so renew the conflagration that we had hoped had died out."

"The amendment was put over on us at a time when any murmur of protest from us would have been branded as pro-German," declared John Thompson, president of the local association, today, adding that most of the saloons here will remain open for the sale of such soft drinks as the law "such as it is" will allow, until the issue has been fought out to a finish.

Protest Would Have Been Branded Pro-German"

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 15.—Saloonmen here are planning active war against the prohibition amendment. At a meeting of the Providence Retail Liquor Dealers' association today it was voted to organize to "defeat" re-election any candidates who were instrumental in bringing about prohibition and all new candidates for public office understood to be unfavorable to a "proper" solution of the present problem.

"The amendment was put over on us at a time when any murmur of protest from us would have been branded as pro-German," declared John Thompson, president of the local association, today, adding that most of the saloons here will remain open for the sale of such soft drinks as the law "such as it is" will allow, until the issue has been fought out to a finish.

Blockade Will Not Stop Reds
The Bolsheviks, Gen. Bliss continued, are regaining coal, oil and grain lands in the old Russian empire and "will soon be able to care for themselves regardless of any blockade."

The committee is considering a proposal by Secretary Glass to advance $100,000,000 to Poland, Austria and other European countries for food relief.

RAILROADS OF GERMANY ARE WAR WRECKED

BY FRANK W. ROSTOCK
Editor, Cincinnati Post, N.E.A. Correspondent in Europe

HANOVER, Germany, Jan. 15.—The transportation problem is one of the most perplexing that confronts Germany today.

Before the war the German railroads were an example of efficiency and comfort. Now the German system is a wreck. For instance, before the war, 10 trains ran between Bremen and Hanover daily. Now there are two, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Both are very slow trains.

Few Fast Trains

Fast trains run only on the main line—and there are few of them. The rolling stock has deteriorated to an appalling degree. Many first-class coaches have been stripped of their metal decorations. Leather straps, used to raise and lower windows, have been replaced by strips of canvas. The leather has been stolen to resole shoes.

Plush has been stripped from the seats. This was used to make clothing for women and children.

Windows, in many first-class carriages were broken during the mad rushes for seats. Sometimes the glass was removed and cut to fit the window of a home. These windows are boarded up.

Trains are not heated because of the coal shortage. Passengers wrap themselves in blankets and huddle together to keep warm.

Blame Four Factors

There are four reasons for this condition: the coal shortage, surrender of equipment to the entente, refusal of men to work in the shops or yards and the consequent deterioration of rolling stock.

Passenger trains do not run on Sundays. Freight trains are moved and a special effort is made Sundays to carry large quantities of coal. Occasionally, when the coal shortage becomes acute, passenger traffic is tied up for a week or 10 days. There is some talk among government officials of having regular periods monthly during which nothing but coal can be transported.

Germans attribute the lack of coal mainly to the fact that they must make regular deliveries to the entente and that they have not sufficient rolling stock left in good repair with which to handle the situation.

ENTERTAINMENT IN KITSON HALL.
BY DRAMATIC CLASS STUDENTS OF THE Y.W.C.A.
Students in the dramatic class of the Y.W.C.A. presented two enjoyable one-act sketches last evening in Kitson hall under the direction of Mrs. H. J. Corwin. The sketches were given in a most commendable manner and reflected much credit not only on the young women but also on their director. The first was entitled "Her Uncle's Boots" and those taking part were Mildred Wheat, N. Ida Cross, Miss Leinhos, Carolino Schultz, Maude

Murphy, Grace Condon and Sarah Hayes. The other sketch, "No Men Wanted," introduced Maude Murphy, Frances Johnson and Helen Casey. Between the sketches there were solos by Miss Gladys Holden with Miss Julia Cummings accompanying, and readings by the Misses Helen and Helma Connors.

MANY VERMONT TOWNS FACE BANKRUPTCY

BURLINGTON, Vt., Jan. 15.—Three-fifths of the small towns in this state are threatened with bankruptcy before the end of 1920, according to Gov. Percival W. Clement in an address last evening before the 50th annual dairyman's and 27th annual sugarmakers' conventions in combined session here today.

"You should impress upon your representatives in the legislature of 1921," said Gov. Clement, "the fact that probably three-fifths of the towns in the state will be in financial difficulties before the end of the year and that the state revenues from known sources will probably be less rather than greater. Absolute economy must be observed if our towns are to continue as solvent units of a great corporation."

The keynote of Gov. Clement's address was economy in state finances and in the finances of the small towns who were threatened with serious financial conditions during the coming year.

BRITISH RAILWAYMEN ACCEPT OFFER

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Delegates of railwaymen's unions have accepted the government's offer in settlement of wage demands made by employees in the lower grades of the service.

After the close of this morning's meeting of the delegates, J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the national union of railway men, said:

"The conference has decided by a very narrow majority to accept the government's offer."

The delegates of the railwaymen reported the decision to Sir Eric Geddes, the minister of transport. After they had seen the minister their leader, Mr. Thomas, said: "It is settled. It has been a very difficult job, probably the most difficult of all our tasks."

"There was a considerable difference of opinion among the delegates until the last moment," Mr. Thomas continued, "and the result was doubtful, but I hope the men will accept it as an honorable settlement. It marks a new departure in industrial questions."

SKATING PAR EXCELLENCE AT SHEDD PARK

The best skating of the year is now on tap at Shedd park and despite the extremely cold weather of today a good-sized crowd was on hand to enjoy the smooth surface of the skating rink. The park department has had the ice cleared off following the recent snow storm and everything is in first class condition for good skating. There is also excellent coasting at the North and South commons and Fort Hill park. The latter place is especially popular with coasters owing to the long rides which may be had from the summit of the hill.

STREET RAILWAY TRAFFIC DELAYED

The flux was very much on the job on the local street railway lines late yesterday afternoon and succeeded in more or less "jazzing up" the service in several sections of the city sometime during the day.

A report of the service interruptions given out by Manager Thomas Lees shows that practically the entire blame for the trouble can be attributed to the flux aforesaid, for in almost no instance was the local railway company at fault.

Lack of power and exceptionally heavy riding on the Lawrence end of the Lowell-Lawrence route caused delays in the service between the hours of 5 and 6:30 p. m. Trouble with the power system in Nashua was also responsible for the late arrival of Lowell-Nashua cars in Merrimack square between 7 and 8 o'clock.

Disabled cars delayed the Westford street service between 4 and 6 o'clock and also the Hinch street service between 6 and 6:30.

A disabled car on the North Chelmsford route, coupled with a 15-minute hold-up at the grade crossing at the Middlesex street station, was responsible for delays on this route between 4:15 and 6:25. Frozen air systems and stalled motor trucks on the tracks caused delays on several other lines during the early part of the evening.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anybody's Money Unless

Alleviate Completely Painful All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who look it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of suffering he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Now, druggists have been appointed agents for Allen's in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.—Adv.

PULLING ALL TOGETHER

This store believes in co-operation. Without co-operation its service to the public would be ineffective. Without team-work it would not be the great store which its patrons know. In the multiplicity of its departments there must be a "pull-all-together" or failure to make progress.

The same is true of cities. The citizens of every department of a city must learn to "pull-all-together," or fail of progress. That is what we want for Lowell.

That is why this store is "rooting" for the expansion and reorganization of the Lowell Board of Trade into a Chamber of Commerce. It believes that the principles of service and "pulling-all-together" upon which the Board is being reorganized spell progress for the city in civic and commercial ways. NOW FOR LOWELL.

HUNGARIANS GET TERMS TODAY

Conditions of Peace Will Be Presented to Delegation at Paris Today

Premiers Send Ultimatum to Belgrade, Demanding Answer to Italian Compromise

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The heads of the allied governments who are holding conferences here over the various pending peace problems held no meeting this morning; the hour of their conference today being set at 3 o'clock. An hour later Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti, together with Hugh G. Wallace, the American ambassador, and Baron Matsui, the Japanese ambassador, will hand the conditions of peace formulated for Hungary to the Hungarian delegation which arrived in Paris recently.

The Hungarian representatives informed Paul Dulasta, general secretary of the peace conference, that they would attend submitting at the same time a quantity of documents supporting the Hungarian claims for the maintenance of Hungary's old boundary lines.

A summary of the terms of peace offered Hungary will be made public tonight.

Ultimatum to Belgrade

PARIS, Jan. 15.—Just at the time when Italians seemed likely to agree to the acceptance of a solution to the Fiume question which has been approved by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, a division has been created among the Jugo-Slavs regarding the problems involved.

According to best information obtainable, the Slovene element of the new Slav kingdom is stoutly opposed to a compromise by which Italy would give up some of the territory apportioned her on the Dalmatian coast in exchange for full sovereignty over Fiume, with a strip of land connecting that city with the province of Istria, to the west.

Other elements favor accepting the compromise but because of the impossibility of reaching an agreement, the Jugo-Slav delegation has been obliged to reject the proposal. Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau thereupon issued a sort of ultimatum demanding that the government at Belgrade decide without delay upon what it wanted to do, and give a categorical answer of "yes" or "no" to the Italian compromise.

It is impossible to ascertain here whether President Wilson has been consulted regarding the proposed Fiume settlement, which appears to be in absolute contradiction to the president's firm stand. Neither has absolutely satisfactory assurance been given that Italy, as a whole, will approve the compromise.

Demand For Ex-Kaiser

PARIS, Jan. 15.—(Havas)—Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti will today examine the text of the demand to be made upon Holland for the extradition of former Emperor William, according to the Matin. The premiers will also inspect the list of German officers and soldiers accused of violations of the laws of war and whose surrender will be demanded from the Berlin government. This list is said to comprise approximately 600 names.

Car Service Suspended

Dec. 15, when the trustees stopped virtually all service in the Salem district for 24 hours until the authorities of this city, Beverly and Peabody had voted to withdraw "jitneys" licenses. Operation of the "jitneys" was resumed here within a few days, however, when the city council had endorsed a petition for a special election to decide whether their previous action in revoking the licenses should be upheld. This election will be held on Jan. 27.

COUGHING, WEAK AND RUN-DOWN AFTER FLU

Regained flesh and strength quickly, and tells how

"I nearly died from 'flu' last October, and it left me with a terrible cough. The doctor gave me one bottle of medicine after another, but it did me no good. Went to Charlotte, N. C., and took treatment of a specialist without any permanent benefit. I saw Mils Emulsion advertised and started using it. It helped me right from the start. I had no appetite and my stomach was in bad shape. But 12 bottles have straightened me out entirely. I eat anything without distress, my cough is gone and I have gained back my strength and flesh." Emma Withers, Box 33, Belmont, N. C.

Don't trifle with a weak, run-down condition. It leaves you open to serious diseases. Get your strength back. Mils Emulsion does nothing to try. Mils Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Mils Emulsion is strongly recommended to the whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

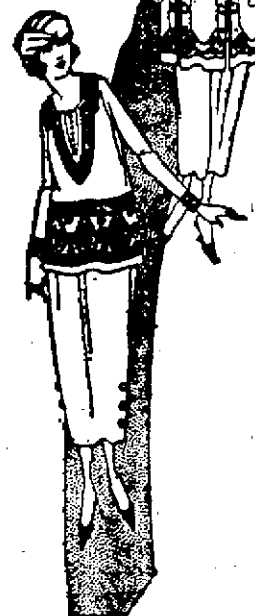

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how sore your eyes, you are urged to try Mils Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the result, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Mils Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

WHERE THE DEMOCRATS WILL MEET JUNE 28th

The Exposition Auditorium of San Francisco, where the Democratic National convention will be held beginning June 28, is grouped, with the city hall and public library, around a plaza, forming the civic centre. The building was erected at a cost of $2,000,000 and has a seating capacity of 12,000. There are also numerous halls which can be opened into larger rooms to accommodate conventions of any size.

lained a restricted service to adjoining places, the Boston & Maine trains received a large share of patronage and 40 busses were in service for local business. The busses did not pass beyond the city boundary lines as they have no licenses to operate in Beverly, Danvers, Peabody and Marblehead. On the other hand the trolley cars took passengers from Salem to these adjoining places but refused to accept any passengers who desired to go from one point to another within this city. Passengers on the cars in bound from outlying places were allowed to leave the cars at any desired point in Salem, a fact which led to some trouble for conductors as when a through car stopped to leave a passenger, it was frequently stormed by a crowd of waiting dilettantes who insisted on boarding it.

The school department had special buses in convey pupils from remote sections of the city to the schools.

and the railway company made special provisions for transporting the workers to and from the big plant of the United Shoe Machinery Co., in Beverly.

It was announced that the railway company would maintain tomorrow and Saturday the same limited ser-

vico to other points as was in effect today, but that arrangements for Sunday had not been completed. Sixty employees of the company were discharged today, and according to the management the number will be increased to 100 by tomorrow. These men earn an average of $30 a week.

An effort made by the chamber of commerce to have Governor Coolidge intervene so as to keep the cars in operation until after Jan. 27, when the referendum vote on the bus license question is to be taken, was unsuccessful.

CANADA REPORTS DROP IN EXPORTS TO U. S. AND IMPORTS FROM U. S.

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—Exports to the United States declined $7,500,000 in the first three months of this fiscal year, and imports from that country declined $23,500,000, compared with the same period in the previous fiscal year, according to trade returns made public today. Exports to the United Kingdom for the same period declined $26,000,000, while imports increased $11,500,000.

The number of American seamen has increased from a little more than 24,000 in 1916 to approximately 55,000.

HUNTING DEER WITH BOW IS WOODCRAFT TEST

BY DR. SEXTON POPE

(America's Most Expert Bowman)

Killing a deer with the bow and arrow is largely a matter of woodcraft. Unlike the hunt for bear, panther, coyotes and animals of that sort, the use of bows by archers in search of deer is impractical.

This narrows the quest down to an ability to locate a buck by still hunting—no true sportsman would kill a doe or fawn—and then approaching within striking distance, say 60 or 75 yards, without being detected.

Ishi, the Yana Indian with whom Arthur Young and I had the pleasure of hunting during the five seasons he lived among white men in California, always prepared most carefully for a deer hunt.

The night before he avoided strong smelling food, fearing that his breath might become noticeable. On the morning of the hunt he always washed out his mouth with a tea made of aromatic herbs, gargled his throat and bathed his body to free it from human odors.

He had an old deer-head, stuffed with dried grass, which he used as a decoy. Placing this on his head and concealing himself at the edge of a deer run, Ishi would begin his primitive—but very thorough—methods of attracting his quarry within arrow range; which, for him, was fifty yards or less.

With the English-pattern long-bows we now use we have killed deer at 66 to 110 yards, driving steel-pointed arrows entirely through the body.

On a recent trip I hit a fork-horn at 65 yards, driving an arrow completely through him, so that it flew twenty yards beyond the deer, striking deeply in the ground.

One beauty about hunting deer with the bow and arrow is that you shoot without sound and do not disturb the game. I have dropped an arrow after arrow around a deer browsing on a hillside 150 yards away, without having the animal do more than glance up at the shafts as they sped through the air and then quietly go on feeding.

Finally a lucky shot has "plinked" him in the shoulder and he was off like a dash!

Another humane thing about shooting game with the bow is that arrows cause more bleeding than bullets. We keep our points very sharp by filing them, and the wounds they make are clean-cut. If a cavity is struck it is practically always fatal; if only a flesh wound, very little damage is done and it heals readily.

We have only wounded three deer that we did not get, and these were harmless cuts. In one instance the arrow hit a deer in the shoulder joint. The animal ran a short ways, then reached up with his hind leg, caught the arrow in the cleft of his hoof, pulled it out—and disappeared.

Hunting deer with the bow and arrow is the most entrancing sport that I know of. There is something in the sight of a feathered arrow toward a stag, fifty or sixty yards away, that gives one a thrill beside which the shooting of a rifle at the same object pales into insignificance.

Try it once and see if you don't agree with me.

SPIRITISM ATTACKED BY REV. FR. CORRIGAN TO CALL 15 ADMIRALS TO TESTIFY AT PROBE

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—The Rev. Jones J. J. Corrigan, S. J., head of the departments of ethics at Boston college, speaking before the Young Men's Catholic association at Boston college high school last evening on "Sir Oliver Lodge and Spiritism," declared "the net result to Boston of Sir Oliver's visit and lectures will be a great increase in the number of fraudulent mediums, a renewal of spiritism's sordid commercialism, and an unprecedented crop of psychics and hysterics."

The address was the first of five which Fr. Corrigan will deliver before the association on the evidential value of Sir Oliver's proofs for spiritism and the "New Revelation."

"London is Medium-Mad," said Fr. Corrigan. "Never has occultism had so many fervent disciples. Fashionable mediums are having the times of their lives. Their consulting rooms are thronged with an eager crowd of inquirers."

"This is the upshot of Sir Oliver Lodge's revival of spiritism in England. An uncritical public has been misled the dupes of a crowd of mediumistic exploiters and blackmailers. Let Boston beware!"

"It is stated that Sir Oliver is going to give 'new proofs' of survival and communication with the departed. It must be confessed that his long and unsuccessful efforts heretofore do not give warrant for much hope. The verdict of science on his old proofs is clear and unmistakable—they are unimpressive, inconclusive, beyond the warrant of the facts."

"It is admitted that remarkable happenings occur at times in so-called spiritistic practices. Sir Oliver Lodge is bringing out nothing new so far as the facts are concerned. Accounts of them are found among the customs of Assyria, Persia, Egypt, Greece, Rome, China, Japan and India."

Mock Fraud and Trickery
"Sir Oliver Lodge says he is in direct communication with his departed son, Raymond. In common with other spiritists he holds that the disembodied spirits of the dead are in touch with the living. A 'new revelation' is in process of delivery."

"Do the facts warrant Sir Oliver's conclusions and inferences? Many explanations are offered, and by scientific men, who differ absolutely from Sir Oliver in their conclusions."

"Some maintain that most of the happenings result from fraud and trickery. Certain it is that spiritism has much to be ashamed of in 70 years of notoriously fraudulent mediumship. The whole history of the spiritistic movement is filled with evidence of fraud."

"To take up with spiritistic practices is, of a certainty, to invite physical, mental and moral ruin, and, not infrequently, complete loss of faith. The church warns her children away from the danger by putting spiritistic practices under her absolute ban."

CENTRALVILLE LODGE
At a largely attended meeting of the members of Centralville lodge, 215, I. O. O. F., held last evening, in Old Fellows hall, Bridge street, the recently elected officers were inducted into office, the exercises being presided over by District Deputy Grand Master William Robinson of Lawrence, who was assisted in his suite. In the early part of the evening supper was served by the women of Centralville Rehearsal lodge, those in charge being as follows: Mrs. J. W. Estabrook, Mrs. Ethel Abare, Mrs. Walter Merrill, Miss Minnie Ramette, Miss Leona M. Enall, Mrs. Chas. Wells, Mrs. Arthur Atwood, Miss May Beggs, Miss Mildred Smith, Mrs. Walter Caswell, Miss Charlotte Haskell, Miss Lillian R. Green was the pianist.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Fifteen admirals, named by Chairman Halls of the senate naval sub-committee investigating naval decoration awards, are among those Secretary Daniels has been asked to summon as witnesses in the investigation which begins tomorrow.

The list is headed by Admiral Sims, who brought the controversy over naval awards into the open by declining to accept a distinguished service medal on the ground that war honors had not been properly distributed in the navy.

After the admirals have testified, commanding officers of naval vessels sunk or seriously damaged by submarine attack during the war, probably will be called before the committee.

PARKS HAS WISDOM LIKE UNTO SOLOMON

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 15.—It's a far cry between King Solomon, with his shrewd decisions, and the Massachusetts Industrial Accident board, but when it comes to getting results it might be said that the judges in the latter organization wouldn't have to take a great deal of back water if they were pitted in decision-making against the lawgiver known in history as one of the wisest that ever wore the purple.

Solomon, it will be remembered, was called upon to decide a case in which two women claimed the motherhood of one child and each wanted the king to award the youngster to her. "The demeanor of each seemed equally sincere, so the king couldn't tell which one was stringing him. To discover the mother he ordered the child cut in two and divided between the women. Then the anguish shown by one of the claimants denoted it was she to whom the child belonged."

Joseph A. Parks, a member of the Industrial accident board, which passes upon claims for compensation under the workmen's compensation law when an employee is injured, was called upon to decide a case in which one Charles Talewicz, an employee of the Waltham Bleachery and Dye Works, asked that the board order resumption of weekly payments after they had been discontinued.

Talewicz suffered an injury to his right arm while pushing a truck last summer and was given compensation at the rate of approximately $13 a week. As the law reads, compensation is stopped when an employee recovers from an injury unless he is otherwise incapacitated. When the thirteen per cent was cut off, Talewicz claimed that he wasn't being given a full measure of justice, saying that he still has a pain all through the arm and consequently isn't able to do a tap of work.

Mr. Parks listened to the tale of Talewicz and also to that of the opposition. He told both sides he would consider the case and appeared so interested in the claimant's side that on ending the hearing he asked for a handshake, which was duly exchanged.

His decision, in part, follows: "I find that this man should go to work. He shook hands with me very readily when I asked him to and I found that he had as good a grip as it was possible for a man of his build to have. The evidence shows that the employee has not been totally disabled."

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO- PHOSPHATE

Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks' Time in Many Instances

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing hollows and angles by the soft curves of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by A. W. Dows and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, reporting her own experience, writes: "Bitro-phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.—Adv.

DANCING PARTY AT LINCOLN HALL

As a prelude to their annual parish reunion to be held in Associate hall next Wednesday evening, members of St. Patrick's parish conducted a most successful dancing party last evening in Lincoln hall. Despite the sharp temperatures prevailing outside, there was a good-sized crowd present to enjoy a long program of dance numbers that continued from shortly after 8 o'clock until midnight. A short orchestral concert preceded the dance.

Shortly after 10 o'clock refreshments were served. A number of the clergymen of the parish were present at various times during the evening and greeted the merry-makers. A substantial sum was realized for the benefit of the table to be conducted at the reunion under the direction of Rev. James A. Curtin.

The dance was in charge of a committee which included Miss Lillian O'Brien, Mrs. Della Donohoe, Mrs. Louise Keefe, Mrs. John McDermott and Mrs. Alcide Parent.

THE SUGAR SITUATION IS IMPROVING

That the local sugar situation is steadily improving and that the "famine" of the past few months is now practically at an end, was the statement of Daniel Cosgrove, president of the Lowell Grocers and Butchers' association, speaking before the members of the organization in the Mks' building last evening. The meeting was well attended and considerable routine business was transacted.

TEXTILE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION
The Textile Christian association conducted a social for about 100 Textile school students last night, with music as the chief diversion. Selections by the band-mandolin club and by the "syncopated seven," a school septet addicted to jazz, were greatly enjoyed. There also were songs by Dick Hadley and J. Rice, and piano selections by Boris Leeststein. Light refreshments were served at the close of the program.

PLAN BIG THRIFT DRIVE

Date For Nation-wide Campaign Is From January 17 to 24

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Eight ways to be thrifty will be taught the people of the United States, in a national thrift campaign extending from Jan. 17 to Jan. 24.

"National Thrift Week," will witness the Y.M.C.A. with government backing carrying a thrift message to every man, woman and child in the country. The campaign is being conducted with the co-operation of the banking, insurance, real estate and commercial interests of the country.

Among the influential men who are supporting the movement, both financially and actively, are Homer L. Ferguson, president of the United States chamber of commerce; Herbert S. Houston, former president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World; Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale; Gov. Allen of Kansas, Adolph Lewisohn and E. K. Satterlee, New York banker.

The campaign will be conducted solely along educational lines. How to spend wisely will be stressed upon even more than how to save.

Each of the eight days set aside for the campaign will be devoted to one special subject and line of activity. The first day, Saturday, is intended to be a thrift or bank day, and will emphasize the service a bank renders a community.

It will be conducted by the banking interests in each locality. The other days, their designation and purpose, will be:

Sunday, Jan. 18—Share With Others Day.
Monday, Jan. 19—Life Insurance Day.
Tuesday, Jan. 20—Own Your Own Home Day.
Wednesday, Jan. 21—Make a Will Day.
Thursday, Jan. 22—Thrift in Industry Day.
Friday, Jan. 23—Family Budget Day.
Saturday, Jan. 24—Pay Bills Promptly Day.

BLISS NATIVE HERB TABLETS FOR RHEUMATISM

This painful malady is the direct result of a poisonous condition of the blood. It is caused by a disregard of that condition known as constipation. Unless the alimentary tract is kept clean, sweet and wholesome the food ferments, decays and causes ill health. Bliss Native Herb Tablets are nature's remedy for relieving the system of blood impurities, by maintaining a healthy condition of the liver, kidney and bowels. A dollar box contains 200 tablets, and will last the average family six months. Be sure and get the genuine and avoid spurious imitations. Look for the money back guarantee on every box, and our trade mark. Put up in two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold by leading druggists and local agents everywhere. Made by Alonzo O. Bliss Co., Washington, D. C.

CIDER IS NOW PLACED WITHIN "DRY" BAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In one of the broadest constructions yet placed on provisions of the act for enforcement of constitutional prohibition, Prohibition Commissioner Kremer has ruled that fruit juices and elixirs come within the dry ban if they contain more than one-half of one percent alcohol.

The commissioner's interpretation of the law was set forth yesterday in a memorandum charging prohibition directors and inspectors with the added duty of examining the alcoholic content of such beverages.

The drastic regulation goes into effect with constitutional prohibition Jan. 16. Violation of it carries the same penalties as for the manufacture or sale of stronger liquors.

Officials, in discussing the ruling, asserted that such a step could not be taken under war-time prohibition, nor was it enforceable under the prohibition laws of most of the states. Hitherto, the bureau of internal revenue has held fast to the policy of assessing taxes against fermented liquors containing more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol, but actually the regulations could not be applied to cider and fruit juices because of the technical language of the law, it was said.

Strict enforcement of the regulation will hold liable dealers in fruit juices and elixirs in which the alcoholic content increases even while in storage. The department does not intend, however, to gauge all beverages thus produced, officials said, but a "watchful eye" would be kept on these manufacturers and dealers. Natural fermentation will offer no excuse for evasion of the regulation, it was declared.

VARTENOUSCH KARAGHEUSIAN

ARAB SLAVE IS IN UNITED STATES
NEW YORK.—Miss Vartenousch Karagheusian, first American girl held as an Arab slave to arrive in America, has had a run of thrilling adventures. Her family was driven into Turkish territory, in the vicinity of Mesopotamia, and she alone survived the march. Being assigned to a Turkish hospital at Vartenousch, she managed to escape to the British lines and was then sent to the American relief station at Beirut. Her brother, John, a wealthy rug merchant of Minneapolis, met her on her arrival in New York.

WORLD ALMANAC FOR THE YEAR 1920

The celebrated World Almanac has made its appearance for 1920 and as usual, this handy compendium of all kinds of information, will be given a prominent place in offices and homes where a readily available digest of facts and figures is used frequently. The 1920 Almanac is even more complete than its predecessors and in neatly tabulated form contains information concerning various events that have transpired in the past year. The 18th amendment to the constitution is given in full as well as the complete text of the peace treaty which was recently ratified by countries which took part in the world war with the exception of the United States. The usual elaborate tables of vital statistics, laws, historical facts, etc., all find their proper places in this handy volume. A complete index is one of the most helpful features of the work.

The names of the 60,000 Canadians killed in the world war will be inscribed on the walls of a church which will be erected in Notre Dame de Grace, a suburb of Montreal.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

PLEASANT MEETING AT THE C.Y.M.L.

An enjoyable get-together of the C.Y.M.L. and St. Patrick's Holy Name Society was staged at the C.Y.M.L. headquarters on Suffolk street Tuesday evening. The program embraced a splendid entertainment in which several members of the two clubs appeared in song and minstrelsy; remarks by Rev. James L. Keenan, spiritual director of the organizations, and a whist, billiards and checker tournament in which the honors went to the C.Y.M.L.

President Pendergast of the C.Y.M.L. and President Flannery of the visiting club were the other speakers. The entertainment program included selections by Frank Bourke, John J. Keefe, Patrick McGarrett and Philip Flynn.

Easy to Make This Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and lasts about 42.

You know that pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several peculiar elements that have a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membranes of the throat and chest. Pine is famous for this purpose.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pine in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membrane—and this of Pine and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs. Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

the C.Y.M.L. were present and are as follows: President John J. Flannery; vice president, John J. Keefe; financial secretary, John F. Murphy; recording secretary James H. LUNATIC INSPIRED SONG, WRITER SAYS

LONDON.—Several of England's song hits were inspired by a lunatic, their author, E. E. Weatherly, declares. "I knew him in a hospital when I was a boy," Weatherly says. "He told me fairy stories I later wove into popular ballads."

A Woman Is As Old As She Looks

Nowoman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor." Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store.

Beauty depends upon health.

Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregularities and weakness of a distinctly feminine character in a short time bring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.

To retain the appearance of youth you must retain health. Instead of lotions, powders and paints, ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This famous medicine strikes at the very root of these enemies of your youthful appearance. It makes you not only look young but feel young. It overcomes the weakness and builds you up.

Your druggist can supply you with liquid or tablets; or send ten one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial pkg. of the tablets will be mailed to you. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been in use 50 years.

If you wish to know all about yourself, drop a line to Dr. Pierce for free pamphlet on Diseases of Women. Should you desire to consult his medical staff of physicians or ask for information, the same will be cheerfully furnished you wholly without cost and your letter will be treated as merely confidential.

YANKEE DIVISION DANCE AT STATE ARMORY

The spirit of "Carry On for the Y.D." was finely typified at the state armory in Westford street last evening, when 1500 former members of that New England division with their friends danced until the midnight hour, and enjoyed one of the best social affairs of the winter season. The dance was held for the purpose of raising additional funds for the campaign to build a Yankee division clubhouse in Boston, of which Lowell has been allotted $3000 as its quota, and the local total of $300 already secured by individual gifts was substantially augmented.

Up to last evening Treasurer Roland Black of the Union National bank had reported the following subscriptions:

James J. Kerwin $25.00
Frank S. Bean 25.00
Walter L. Parker 25.00
John Jacob Rogers 50.00
Mrs. J. Tyler Stevens 5.00
Georgia H. Runcis 10.00
Charles A. Stevens 250.00

Total $390.00

The Y.D. danced last night in a drill shed whose bleak, stern lines were rich in a display of national flags and colored bunting. The United States Cartridge Co. band was seated on an improvised stage at the far end of the hall, with a background of pale blue on which the division insignia was prominently displayed. The side walls and roof were almost entirely covered with attractive displays of bunting and festoons of flags hid the balcony rail. The boys in charge were deeply indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Armstrong, Miss Florence Armstrong and Miss Helen Panzer, who composed a decorating committee. Their efforts were greatly appreciated.

Prior to the general dancing, the United States Cartridge Co. band played a snappy concert program under the able leadership of William Rogan, while cabaret numbers were contributed by George "Babe" Rogers.

From 8.30 until 12 o'clock a dance program of 18 numbers was enjoyed. Mayor and Mrs. Thompson and Commissioner Murphy being present for a short while to represent the interest of the city. Throughout the evening the balcony was filled with friends of the boys, who seemed to enjoy the affair quite as much as the dancers below.

Officers of the dance follow:

General manager, John J. O'Rourke; assistant general manager, John T. McQuiston; floor director, Daniel P. Brennan; assistant floor directors, Patrick J. Brown, Harvey N. Bishop, William Murray; chief aid, Earl M. Gray; assistant chief aids, Russell Smith, James P. McCready, George M. Walsh; chairman of reception committee, Charles A. Stevens; treasurer, Roland W. Black; aids, W. C. MacBrayne, Hon. John C. Leggat, John D. O'Dea, George W. Emaley, Thomas W. F. Bagley, Irvin Whitcomb, Dr. S. R. Walter, Walter J. J. Esperance, Harry G. Sheldon, Arthur B. Cashin, George J. Faneuf and Walter S. Douglas.

The Y.D. club dance committee was composed as follows:

Chairman, Mrs. Charles A. Stevens; secretary, Mrs. Earl Gray; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur Cashin; refreshments, Mrs. John Quessy and Mrs. John K. Whitler; music, Mrs. Martha Cronshaw and Mrs. William H. Marzilli; advertising, Miss Ruth Burke; tickets, Mrs. S. R. Waller and Mrs. Paul Kilbridge; general committee, Mrs. Perry D. Thompson, Mrs. W. C. Hineley, Mrs. W. C. AMERICAN UKRAINIANS IN CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The national convention of American Ukrainians opened here today with delegates of 1000 Ukrainian societies, scattered all over the United States, attending. The convention is held under the auspices of the Ukrainian national committee.

The chief objects of the sessions are to perfect an organization for the relief of war sufferers in Ukraine, where great numbers of persons are reported to be dying of typhus; to outline a program for combatting bolshevism; to plan for the establishment of a Ukrainian language daily newspaper here; to promote commercial relations between the United States and Ukraine and to appeal to the United States government for the recognition of the Ukrainian republic.

Some Vienna theatres do without ushers by mounting electric lights in such positions that they illuminate the numbers on seats as long as they are unoccupied.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

Communists Use Berlin
Riots To Inflamm Masses
Throughout Germany

Manifesto Urges Election
of Revolutionary Employes' Councils

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—A communist manifesto issued today urges the immediate election of revolutionary employes' councils in all industrial establishments.

Fear Riots Will Spread
LONDON, Jan. 15.—Fears are expressed in diplomatic dispatches received here that the Berlin imbroglio may spread throughout Germany, and even to Vienna through the agency of the communists, this element using the recent Berlin disorders to inflame the masses by representing those killed as martyrs to the cause of the people.

Vienna, it is pointed out, would be likely to furnish fertile ground for the agitators because of the great unrest that already exists there.

Thus far no disorders are reported outside of Berlin.

The advice, in analyzing the upheaval in Berlin, point to its original cause as the dissatisfaction of the independent socialists over the failure of the government to provide a method for the establishment of the workmen's councils called for by the constitution, but give the immediate cause as indignation at the attitude of the government towards strikers. This resulted in the organization of the
resulted in the organization of the reichtag building.

The violence that followed, however, is declared to have been due to communist agents, who took advantage of the assemblage and, working on mob psychology, started the riot which resulted so disastrously.

Quiet in Berlin
LONDON, Jan. 15.—Berlin was completely quiet Wednesday, according to a wireless despatch from the German capital. The large factories were working normally, and the railway tram services were not interrupted.
Strong indignation is expressed in every branch of industry at the unscrupulousness of the independent

A Child's Soft Teeth Are Easily Injured

The teeth of young children are not yet thoroughly calcified; many have naturally soft, chalky teeth. Many tooth pastes contain pumice, powdered oyster-shell, acid-calcium-phosphate, Prof. Gies of Columbia college found one of these which was gritty enough to scratch glass! It is well for mothers to be careful.

A great many professional men al-used in their homes. Dr. Henry H.

Kreider, professor chemistry at Toledo university, considers it a superior preparation, and the children of the Rochester Orphan asylum have their "tooth drills" with it.

Albodon is calcium carbonate, sa-ponified and mixed with the well-known antiseptic oils of cloves, cinnamon and eucalyptus. It is peculiarly effective and safe for women and children. A tube lasting five weeks can be bought, guaranteed, at any drug the despatch adds, because the leaders hid behind machine guns while the masses were driven forward to face the guns of the soldiers.

It is announced that the Berlin government will not permit demonstrations on the occasion of the burial of the victims of Tuesday's rioting.

GENEVA, Jan. 15. (Havas)—Recent events in Berlin are said to be only the prelude to others of more importance which the independent socialists intend to provoke on the occasion of the anniversary of the death of Dr. Karl Liebknecht, Jan. 15, according to German advices.

Troops March on Leipzig

where they occupied the squares and public buildings, according to a Berlin despatch to the Exchange Telegraph

Medical Examiner Thomas B. Smith said today that he did not expect to receive a report for several days from Professor William M. Whitney of Harvard university on his investigation relative to the death of little Eleanor Petrie, 14 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Petrie. It is understood that the analysis of the child's digestive organs, on which will be based the fact of whether or not death was the result of arsenical poisoning, is quite exhaustive and will take at least ten days.

Bishop Brent, Senior Chaplain With A.E.F., Expresses

Views in Open Letter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Bishop Charles H. Brent, senior chaplain with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, has addressed an open letter to Secretary Baker and the next of kin of the American dead in France regarding the return of the bodies of American soldiers who fell overseas. The letter was made public today by the American field of honor association, which is opposing the movement for the wholesale return of the bodies and follows charges presented in the senate and house that the movement is being fostered by undertakers for their personal profit.

"America," wrote Bishop Brent, "has left to the decision of the next of kin in each case what the final resting place of our dead is to be—whether in France or in this country. No one will dispute the right of parent or wife to claim the fulfillment of the promise made by the American government to return to America the bodies of our dead soldiers. But it is conceivable that there are those who, after learning of the plan to establish and maintain in France an American field of honor for those who are forever overseas, may consider this the more excellent way.

"A bill to incorporate the movement has already been presented to congress, and is to be introduced shortly. There will be an American central field of honor with as many departments as may be necessary. Here each year on an appointed day commemoration of the dead will be observed. Over all the sheltering folds of the Stars and Stripes will forever wave.

"Those of us who have given for more than a year careful consideration to the American field of honor are moved by a single-minded purpose. It is the work of love carried through by a sense of reverence for that sacred duty which, though mingled with the sell of France, is forever America. It aims to pay high honor to those to whom high honor is due. It would preserve as far as may be the comradeship of the war among those who met a common fate. It would express to all who are concerned, the undying value of the sacrifice made. It would perpetuate in death that work begun in life to bind together nations of like ideals."

35,000,000 TREE SEEDS

Gift of American Forestry Association to France, Belgium and Great Britain

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Thirty-five million tree seeds were formally presented to the governments of France, Belgium and Great Britain by the American forestry association here today. They were accepted by the consuls of the three countries and will be sent to the forestry departments of each to aid in reforesting the devastated areas of Belgium and France, and the woodlands cleared in the British Isles for war purposes. The consignments included Douglas fir, western larch, Englemann spruce, red oak, sugar maple, white ash and loblolly spruce.

"A hundred years from now these trees will tell the story of all those who heard the call of humanity," said Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry association in presenting the seeds to the consuls. "They will tell the story of those who heard that call from across the seas. We on this side are planting memorial trees and seeds of remembrance, but this gift to help reforest the battle areas and the areas in Great Britain which were sacrificed to war's demands will, I believe, do more than anything else toward cementing the friendship that was born of war and baptized in blood."

"As a memorial, as a sign of ever-renewing life, as a symbol that they have not died in vain, there can be no more fitting monument than the trees that look at God all day and lift their leafy arms to pray," The American Forestry association is proud indeed to collect and present this gift to your governments. May every tree seed prosper and grow, and carry the message not alone of the American people to future generations, but may each one of them carry the message—that greater message—of him who heard humanity's call, and hearing, answered.

PORTER ADAMS SEEKS DIVORCE

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Porter H. Adams, Brookline millionaire, engineer, inventor and dare-devil airman, is suing for a divorce from his young bride, formerly Miss Irene McGillivray of Toronto, with whom he eloped in October, 1916.

The libel was filed at the Dedham court and will probably come to trial next month. Desertion is given as the sole grounds for divorce.

FRANK A. MUNSEY BUYS N. Y. HERALD

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Frank A. Munsey, magazine and newspaper publisher, who last night purchased the New York Herald, the New York Evening Telegram and the Paris edition of the Herald, said today that he would have no announcement to make concerning his plans for these newspapers until he had an opportunity to study his new properties. He declined to disclose the price paid.

Announcement of the change was made in today's Herald by Paulman Wauvaker and the Guaranty Trust Co., as executors of the estate of James Gordon Bennett.

The Herald commenting editorially on the sale, recalls the friendship between Mr. Munsey and the late James Gordon Bennett, and adds:

"The sale of the newspaper to Mr. Munsey is in accord with the desire of Mr. Bennett's will, his chief desire as therein expressed being that the Herald be continued and developed, to be an enduring monument to its great founder."

"The Herald was founded by James Gordon Bennett, Sr., and made its first appearance on May 6, 1835. It passed into the hands of James Gordon Bennett, Jr., upon the elder Bennett's death in 1872. The younger Bennett was in active control of the paper until his death in Paris in 1918.

"The Herald was perhaps the first newspaper to send reporters great distances to cover news stories, and during the Civil war, had 62 correspondents in the field with the Union armies. Its greatest exploit was under the direction of the younger Bennett, when it sent Henry M. Stanley to Africa to find the explorer, David Livingstone. Franking with this was the outfitting of the Jeannette Arctic expedition. The first enterprise was successful, but the Jeannette was crushed in the ice and her commander perished.

The guests included District Attorney Nathan A. Tufts, Clerk of Courts William C. Dillingham, Sheriff John R. Fairburn, J. D. JUDGE PICKMAN SUBMITS INQUEST REPORT

That the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. is not held responsible for the death of seven-year-old Robert Emmott of 12 McGovern's court, who was struck and fatally injured by a Lakeview avenue street car Oct. 15, is the finding of Judge Pickman in his inquest report on the lad's death, made public today.

The inquest report states that Emmott was playing on Lakeview avenue with some companions, and suddenly ran directly in front of an approaching car, which was traveling at a slow rate of speed. The boy's skull was fractured and he lived but a few hours.

ALL BEER SIGNS MUST COME DOWN

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Signs which have been landmarks for years on buildings or fences advertising the merits of beverages containing alcohol, are in violation of the national prohibition law, and must be removed after tomorrow, Acting Collector of Internal Revenue Andrew J. Casey announced today.

Unless signs which contain advertising matter intended to promote the sale of beverages containing one-half of one per cent, or more of alcohol are taken down, the owner and advertiser will be subject to penalties for violations of the prohibition law, he said.

NOTHING DOING IN POLICE COURT

Another one-minute session of police court today.

We say another because these self-same one-minute sessions are quite the thing at the Lowell court in these dry days.

Must be a pretty soft life for the cops, we'll say.

Only case to come before Judge Enright was that of Augustus, Patraskias, called on continuance on a charge of assault with a knife on Andrews Kalaklidis. The case is the result of a stabbing affray in the Merrimack mills, according to the police. A further continuance until Jan. 26 was granted.

BIG CHIEF HAS BOSTON VISITORS

Supt. Welch of the Lowell police department received a pleasant surprise last evening when three prominent Boston men, whom he numbers among his many friends, dropped into his office for an informal visit.

The trio consisted of Daniel Shea, United States attorney; Frank Ford, commissioner-elect of the Hub, and now acting as mayor during the temporary absence of Mayor Peters, and James Tighe, deputy United States marshal. The party motored up from Boston, and returned later in the evening.

Your Children Need Laxative!

The children need your closest attention, especially after "stuffing" themselves with sweets, etc., at a party or the like.

They are liable to get up in the morning complaining of cramps, bad tasting mouth, liable to have puffed eyes from restless slumber; feel tired and cranky; distended and whimpering. Act promptly. Give them a dose of Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative, and Worm Expeller, which millions of mothers were given by their parents, and who themselves are administering today, to their little ones.

Only the purest of herbs are used—no harmful drugs—will relieve pleasantly the ordinary cases of children's illness: constipation—worms, etc.

Symptoms: Nervous Constipation, deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly, with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Mrs. Wm. G. Bonin of Caddo, Oklahoma, wrote regarding Dr. True's Elixir: "We have used it for our children for the last 12 years, and certainly know the value of it."

BY LEE J. SMITS

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 15.—Canada has a law which, legal authorities insist, would abolish lynching in the United States and cut down the number of crimes of violence. It would, they say, serve to check the "crime wave" which is sweeping through every large city in the country.

Five men are held in the grim little jail in Peterboro. They were sentenced to hang Jan. 15 under this law. They were convicted because one of them accidentally killed a man, while all were committing robbery.

The trials of all five consumed exactly seven days of court, with evening sessions.

Follows the Law

Chief Justice Sir William Mulock was almost overcome by emotion in passing sentence, but he only followed the plain course laid down for him by the law.

The five men were vigorously defended by Basil W. Essery, formerly corporation counsel in Toronto, and G. M. Gordon of Peterboro.

They are Michael Bahri, Thomas Kordeck, Phillip Iotyski, Samuel Zaluski and Alex. Martynuk, all Russians save Bahri, who is Austrian.

The death sentence has been commuted to life imprisonment for all but Bahri and Kordeck on the plea of Barrister Essery. No pardon or parole can intervene in the cases of the three, who will spend at least 20 years in prison, after which time the Canadian custom favors release, if the prisoner's record is clean.

Bahri led the gang in a holdup of the employees of the Ontario Rock Co. at Havelock, 17 miles east of Peterboro.

Were Gambling Best

He is said to have induced the four Russians to accompany him to Havelock from Toronto on the promise that they could win money from the quarry workers by gambling. When they reached the quarry, Bahri suggested getting money without bothering to play cards, and the five ascending the stairs of the bunkhouse where the crew was asleep, Kordeck was in the lead, fumbling his way in the dark with an army automatic pistol thrust before him in his nervous right hand.

The gun had a half-trigger. At the top of the stairs, Kordeck stubbed his toe against the head of bunk No. 13, occupied by Phillip Yanow, and the pistol was discharged.

The quarry workers were robbed of $110. The man in bunk No. 13 was stripped of his money belt while he lay moaning. The excited amateur bandits did not realize that he had been hit, but thought he was merely playing possum.

Surprised at Death

They were all arrested the next morning at Indian River. They had relied on the fact that foreigners seldom complain when they have been robbed, and were boldly making their way back toward Toronto, keeping together in broad daylight and pausing for target practice along the way. They were astounded to learn of the killing.

There was no direct evidence linking them with the death of Yanow until Zaluski, an ex-soldier, leaped to his feet during the trial of one of his associates, and pleaded to be permitted to tell everything.

The Canadian criminal code, which closely follows the British, provides that "If several persons form a common intention to prosecute any unlawful purpose, and to assist each other therein, each of them is a party to every offense committed by any of them in the prosecution of such a common purpose, and to assist each other therein, each of them is a party to every offense committed by any of them in the prosecution of such a common purpose, commission of which offense was or ought to have been known, to be a probable consequence of the prosecution of such a common purpose."

All Equally Guilty

That bars the element of accident, and makes the five bungling bandits equally guilty.

Canadian attorneys explain that the prevalence of lynching in the United States is difficult for an Englishman to understand because, under British law, it would only be necessary to prove that a man was a member of a lynch mob to convict him of first degree murder.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

(By Theatres' Own Press Agents)

THE STRAND

Be with the crowd and laugh yourself tired at Charlie Chaplin in his latest million dollar comedy, "A Day's Pleasure." More new stunts and side-steps. See them all and howl with delight. The other features include Alice Lake and an all-star cast in a dramatic, intensely human story of a New England fisher girl, "The Fisherman's Boy." It's a gripping story, the problem of whether to reveal or not to the man she loved more than life, a secret of her youth, entitled "Should a Woman Tell?" It's a gripping story. The other feature is Peggy Hyatt in "The Web of Chance."

Don't forget the coming of the Mack Sennett Bathing Girls, in person. It's a real novelty that will attract, entertain and satisfy. Don't miss it.

OPERA HOUSE

"Johnny Get Your Gun," is a farce comedy of rare merit, and the satisfying manner in which it is being treated by the Lowell Players at the Opera House this week, commends itself to entertainment. If it's a good, hearty laugh you are looking for, you will find it at any of the performances of "Johnny Get Your Gun." Walter Buckley, as the epistolary Englishman in search of an American heiress, is particularly amusing, and John Meehan and the rest are good.

Next week's play, "Branden," will offer Miss Marguerite Fields her biggest dramatic role of the season. It's the story of a woman who goes from childhood to motherhood and finally to martyrdom. It's greater than "Madame X." Don't miss it. Order your tickets early.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

A dancer who has been a champion at two styles of dancing is Johnnie Ford, who, with his Five Original Melodrama Stars, is appearing at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. The act is a mixture of excellent foot work and piano and vocal music. Five pianos are used by the males, who distribute notes at all the way through. Ralph Ash and Sam Hyams, who are comedy producers, have a turn called "Nothing in the Level." The name is derived from a song which one of the pair sings. William Grew and Gweneth

2 AMERICANS KILLED IN SIBERIAN BATTLE

LONDON, Thursday, Jan. 15.—Two Americans were killed and three wounded in a clash with an armored train of Gen. Semenov, commander-in-chief of the all-Russian armies, between Lake Balkal and Verkhneudinsk, in the province of Trans-Balkal, according to the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Harbin. The Americans were reported to have captured the train.

Details of the brush between the Americans and the Semenov forces were unavailable.

Other clashes were reported between the Czech-Slovaks and Gen. Semenov's troops.

A Moscow wireless despatch says the majority of the Cossacks in the Amur region and also the Burians and the Kirghiz of the Trans-Balkal region have revolted against the massacre of Gen. Semenov and repudiated his representatives.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Russian Soviet troops, which are almost 400 miles east of Taisa, will be aided by Chinese Bolsheviks, according to a Moscow despatch.

The Bolsheviks expect soon to encounter Japanese forces, and the Moscow despatch states the Soviet forces will not "undertake any aggressive action calculated to provoke a collision."

It says, however, that "the menace of the Japanese and of the entire vassals in the west will compel the Soviet authority to devote a great part of its forces to military purposes."

The Ukrainians, who are reported as having occupied Odessa, do not appear to be fighting as comrades of the Bolsheviks, although they are opposing Gen. Denikin's troops.

They have an original skit called "Hail Hail" and which is crammed full of good things. Others on this excellent bill are: Mine, Ayer, singer; Volstead, dancers; Brower, Trio, musical; Clocks, water jugglers, and Stanley & Dale, minstrels. And, of course, there is the latest Chaplin picture, shown at every performance.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Dorothy Dalton, one of the most interesting and attractive stars in London, comes to the Merrimack Square theatre today for a three days' engagement in one of her most successful productions, "His Wife's Friend." The story is taken from "The White Room," and mystery is entertainingly mingled with love and adventure in the plot. Robert Warfield in "An Adventure in Hearts" is the other feature for the latter half of the week and a comedy and news picture round out an excellent bill.

THE OWL THEATRE

"Love at First Sight" will supplant the former saying, "Love at First Sight," to the experience of Jack Robin, leading character in "Burglar by Proxy." Jack Pickford's latest picture which will be seen commencing Thursday at the Owl theatre.

Pickford plays the part of Robin, in love with Dorothy Mason, whose voice he heard while driving his sporting roadster down a fashionable avenue. The love bug hits Jack so hard he turns burglar to assist in winning the girl.

The added attraction is Beatriz Michelena, one of the most beautiful and magnetic actresses of the screen, who has a vivid and intensely vital role in her new production, "Heart of Juanita," made under the direction of Geo. E. Middleton.

No character in life or in drama makes a stronger appeal than that of a woman whose sins are of the heart, whose impulses have made her the victim of a brutal man who uses her as a dup and then casts her aside for another.

Juanita, queen of the dance hall in the primitive settlement, was not a virtuous woman by conventional standards, but she was faithful to one man. Used as a lure by Jim Brandt, the dance hall boss, Juanita was the life of the primitive place of amusement. When a bluff-haired blonde from San Francisco captured the fancy of the boss, Juanita's love turned to hate.

GOOD-BYE, WEAK NERVES!

"Nothing wrong but my nerves." We hear it everywhere. Nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken arm or leg than a shattered, run-down, nervous system.

Overtwork and worry drains the nerve cells of all their strength and vitality; then come the sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry, and fear, that go with a run-down nervous system.

In cases of this kind, Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and build up the phosphate-hungry nerve centers. It takes hold right from the start.

The way the majority of people "come back" is remarkable. You can almost see their nerves grow strong, steady and peaceful. Their eyes sparkle, their cheeks are filled out, and flushed with the healthy, ruddy glow that only pure, red, ironized blood can give, and their whole system is alive with youth, energy and good spirits.

Phosphated Iron will do all this for old or young if they will give it a chance. Get a box today and watch it build you up.

NO WRESTLING BOUTS
The wrestling bouts scheduled for last night at the Crescent rink were called off. Jim Prokes, the promoter, announced that all the wrestlers were on hand, but the attendance did not warrant going through with the show. He said that the cold weather and the fact that the local Greeks were observing their New Year last night, kept many from attending and consequently he postponed the show until some future date.

O'CONNOR CAPTAIN OF
O.M.I. CADET FIVE

As a tribute to his splendid leadership since taking charge of the O.M.I. Cadets basketball team, Daniel O'Connor has been elected captain of the quintet for the fourth consecutive season. Capt. O'Connor has had remarkable success in directing his team and during the past three seasons has piloted his charges to victory over some of the best teams in the state. While a star player he is a firm believer in team work and his success is due principally to his ability to develop combination work and eliminate individuality. Francis Gargan, an overseas veteran, has been chosen manager of the team. He has arranged a stiff schedule for the season, with the first game coming tomorrow night. The Cadets' opponents in the "opener" will be the Bowers A. C. The game will be played in the cadet armory. The first out-of-town game of the season will be played at Danvers a week from Saturday, when the cadets will line up against the strong St. John's quintet.

TERRY MARTIN WRITS FRIEDMAN

EACH DINER GETS CASE OF BEER
NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 15.—The first annual dinner of the real estate board of Newark almost ended in a riot last night when Christian Feigenspan, president of the United States Brewing Co., and owner of the largest brewery in New Jersey, startled the 500 diners with the announcement that every man present would be given a case of "pre-war" beer. The rush that followed in the general anxiety to have no name escape the list somewhat resembled a gridiron scrimmage.

Mr. Feigenspan announced he made the gift in order to "tide the banquet-ers over until the prohibition amendment is declared invalid." The beer will be delivered today. Some of it, the donor explained, was 4 per cent, some 5 per cent and a few cases of ale had a 7 per cent kick.

Owner Cronin of the Worcester team is one of the most enthusiastic men connected with the game. He usually travels with the club and he knows the game from A to Z. One night his team arrived in one of the cities minus a goal tender. He secured the town and spent considerable money telephoning and telegraphing for a substitute, but without success. Finally in desperation he donned the regalia himself and went out there and put up a pretty good game at that.

Lowell's new uniforms are about as classy as anything we have seen on the polo surface.

Jack O'Brien will be right there in his old position tomorrow night, and if he plays anywhere near as good a game as he did last Tuesday night, Lowell's chances of winning are exceedingly good.

MARRIES BY PROXY
GETS FOUR CHILDREN
LONDON.—The next time Walter Smith marries he'll take a lawyer with him to the altar. Smith now has a wife and a ready-made family of four because he didn't know the marriage law was obsolete in England. Smith was engaged to Mrs. Sarah Ann Innes, a widow with no family. Mrs. Innes couldn't come to the wedding and rather than delay the matter, Smith escorted Mrs. Innes, sister, also Mrs. Sarah Ann Innes, to the church and was wed.

NEW HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 11.—That the public school pupils of Massachusetts may soon be studying a new history of the United States was indicated at a conference among members of the state department of the American League held here today when they signified their approval of a proposition with this end in view.

It was made by Comrade Henry J. Ryan of Boston, after he had quoted Bryan Smith, commissioner of education, as being in favor of the project.

The present textbooks dealing with American history," said Mr. Ryan, "are far from being the kind of books out of which the boys and girls should receive their knowledge of our country's history."

"In them you will find little of the real history of the American people. The greater number of the books are written, it would seem, in the belief that they were to be studied by people living in other countries. In fact, most of the history which is taught the boys and girls is that which deals with affairs of other countries and not with the one under whose flag they were born."

Mr. Ryan severely criticized the school authorities for their policy of laying greater stress upon the history of European countries than upon that of the United States. "Nobody here is particularly concerned about the history of the ancient peoples, no matter how glorious that may have been," he said, "but on the other hand every man, woman and child is interested in the history of their own country, a history written to the minutest detail."

After the conclusion of his remarks the members voted to send to every local school superintendent in the state questionnaires, drawn up by Mr. Ryan, in which the school authorities will be asked for information as to what is being done to Americanize the students and as to what text books are being used.

It is the purpose of the league, it was said, to have a history written which should meet with the approval of its members and of all people in the state.

HELP POLAND

On more than one occasion during the war, when long lines of young men crowded High street, as they left the Polish church on Sunday, the remark was made that if they had been in Poland during the war, most of them would have been killed, for the reason that the opposing forces of Russia and Germany fought back and forth over a large part of the country as many as half a dozen times, each army burning and wrecking everything as it retired.

Yes, Poland for two years was the storm center of the war and suffered terribly; but those who survived have had the good fortune to see the fragments of their ancient nation reunited after centuries of separation and oppression, and once more forming one nation under their own government with Paderewski, the well known pianist, as the leading spirit, counselor and adviser of the new republic. Well may the men of Polish origin in this country rejoice at the deliverance of their fatherland; well may they look back to her with a filial love and reverence, and with earnest hopes for her future prosperity.

Al! prosperity may come in the future years; but today, the people of Poland are starving and no food can be found unless sent by other nations.

Here, then, is a duty and a responsibility that comes to the young Poles of this and other American cities. If they love their race, if they have any national pride, they should send to their starving country folks cargoes of food and fuel sufficient to tide them over this terrible period of famine.

Every Pole in the United States should contribute one, two or three weeks' pay for the relief fund.

Of what use is a few paltry dollars in such a national emergency as this? Out of gratitude to God for saving them from the horrors of war and bringing freedom to stricken Poland, the men and women of that nationality now in this country should show their sympathy by contributing enough money to relieve their suffering kinsfolk, now threatened with death from starvation.

NORTHCLIFFE'S VIEWS

Lord Northcliffe, in a recent London despatch, dealt with the Irish situation and contradicted many of the false statements circulated in this country by British propagandists. It appears that he is in favor of a settlement of the Irish question which would over-rule the claims of Ulster to dominate the rest of Ireland. He states that the salaries and wages paid in Ireland are the lowest in any English speaking country at the present time and that some English workers earn as much in a day as Irish laborers earn in a week. He dwells upon the rich natural resources of Ireland and the necessity of industries to offer opportunities for profitable employment for the people. He denies the statement that the people are thrifless and unwilling to work. He judges of their inclination by what he saw of the Irish people in this country. He says they are good workers and that they love to work under right conditions, when they are fairly paid.

It seems that if Premier Lloyd George concurred with Lord Northcliffe, the Irish question might be speedily settled. The prime minister, however, is playing politics and keeping the Ulster unionists on his side as the most aggressive branch of the old Tory party. His plans for a settlement of the Irish question, combined with his efforts to stamp out the Sinn Féin by military force, have only aggravated the situation. The friends of Ireland are determined to keep up the fight and carry it into Canada, Australia and other British colonies, in several of which movements for complete independence have already been inaugurated.

SHOOTING AT THE MOON

The man in the moon, at the safe distance of 240,000 miles from our planet, need not feel in the least alarmed at any alleged risk of having his luminous visage disfigured by any rocket or pyrotechnic missile projected from our planet. Only flashes of light and radio pulsations imparted to the luminiferous ether, can affect our satellite as directed from our mundane abode by human power.

We are not ready to accept as true the alleged story that Prof. Goddard of Clark university, has invented a rocket that can carry to the moon. We are willing to admit that it may rise 200 miles or to the utmost limits of our atmosphere; but beyond that, it is not likely to go very far.

The diameter of the moon is about one-fourth the diameter of the earth, or a little over 2000 miles. There is a line between the moon and the earth at which the attraction of the earth is overcome by that of the moon, and where a small body moving in space would be drawn towards the center of the moon. Should Prof. Goddard's rocket reach that point, it would have powerful assistance to draw it towards the moon.

What this rocket may do is to produce a flash outside our atmosphere that will be reflected on the moon. But as for going to the moon and exploding there, the supposition that such a thing is at all within the range of possibility is seriously to be doubted.

HOOVER AND EUROPE

Herbert Hoover has done everything a service by publicly diagnosing Europe's condition. He finds the patient is more frightened than permanently hurt. Only 5 per cent of Europe's population is in danger of starvation. Sufficient help for the needy can be supplied by 15 per cent of America's surplus wheat and flour. What the rest of Europe requires is to get back to work, and chiefly to mine coal. So speaks Doctor Hoover.

Europe, says Hoover, can get all the financial credit it needs in the United States through the usual commercial channels. Europe has the necessary collateral in its South American, Chinese and other securities as yet untouched. The whole affair is simply a matter of business. That may sound harsh; but it isn't. You don't help a man to his feet by carrying him, but by steadying him.

Reports from Europe persistently describe the allies as recovering their balance. Hoover says it's true. He declares, in effect, that Europe is solvent, and needs only to get its nerve back. Europe couldn't have a better recommendation for credit. By piecing Europe as a going concern, Hoover has done the allies a far better turn than those who cry bankruptcy to the world. If Europe and America accept Hoover's judgment, civilization will right itself the quicker through facing realities.—N.E.A.

A NEW MILL TOWN

President Wood of the American Woolen company of Lawrence, is going back to the corporation system of forty years ago, under which the textile companies provided houses for their officials and operatives. The only difference is, that in the old days, boarding houses were also maintained for the operatives. Mr. Wood may adopt this feature later on as a means of lowering the cost of living for the unmarried operatives. He is also to maintain a company store which is a feature of certain big companies in Pennsylvania and other states. The store may be all right at first, but if not an exception, it will ultimately receive the greater part of the money earned in the mills.

In building Shawsheen village in Andover, with streets and all the conveniences needed in an active little town, Mr. Wood is embarking on an enterprise that will be closely watched. The houses are to be sold on easy terms to the employees of the company, and with the insurance and other features provided by the American Woolen company, its host of foreigners will surely decide to change their opinion of the "capital class" and of the United States in general. It is presumed that loyalty to the flag will be a sine qua non in the qualification of every resident of Shawsheen village. In this light, President Wood may discharge a heavy debt that his company owes to the city of Lawrence.

WOMEN IN POLITICS

The republican party is giving much attention to the demands of women for representation on the committees preparing for the national convention. To begin with, the 48 state chairmen who will sit in the convention, will be "aided and abetted" by 48 state representatives of the Women's Division of the National Committee. The women are going right in for an equal share in everything except in presenting candidates for the presidency. Chairman Hays is very obsequious in his deference to the attitude of the women. He is planning to bring as many as possible into the republican party, and hence they are to be represented on the platform committee, which is to submit a draft to the convention next June. It is generally conceded that the women may be able to furnish the party with some platform ideas of which there seems to be such a dearth among the party leaders.

The government did the right thing in refusing to accept any part of the indemnity money demanded by the allies from Germany, on account of the destruction of the war vessels at Scapa Flow. It is a small matter, so far as we are concerned, but it seems like blood money. We don't want it. The American delegates to the peace conference did not approve of the punishment meted out to Germany under the conditions. Indeed, they rather approved of the sinking of the vessels under a different arrangement, however.

It would indeed be good news for Lowell if the report proved to be true that the American Woolen Co. is to purchase the Bigelow Carpet Co.'s plant. This factory would make an excellent site for a plant of the American Woolen Co., and we have no doubt that a sufficient number of suitable operatives could readily be obtained. President Wood is doing things on a very large scale these times, and it would not be surprising if his operations would extend beyond the limits of Lawrence and Shawsheen village.

Can you imagine with what equanimity a public school teacher, who contributes a good round sum annually to secure a pension for herself, would contribute an additional sum to provide pensions for janitors of schools and other city buildings?

The bill for pensions for janitors of city buildings goes to the legislature with the endorsement of the municipal council. It is now up to the citizens to see that it be defeated.

At last, both operators and miners agree to accept the award of the coal commission. This may safely be taken as a proof that both will be favored at the expense of the consumer.

The Taunton jail is to be closed March 1, as New Bedford jail can accommodate all the prisoners from both cities. This, it is taken, is the result of prohibition.

The Harvard Brewery may not be liquidating; but its payment of dividends in good old rye whiskey has caused many people to regret that they are not stockholders.

SEEN AND HEARD

And Margaret Sullivan of Jersey City, N. J., believes the girls of today do up their faces like circus clowns.

The high price of eggs is not painful to everybody. A theatrical periodical remarks upon the fact that nowadays few actors are pelted with hen fruit.

Motorman James Carville was standing in Merrimack square last night and a lady, stopping up to him, asked: "When's the last Fletcher street car go?"

The last Fletcher street, my dear lady," said the genial James, "went over a year ago."

Dr. W. S. Rankin, president of the American Public Health association, says "Only half of the people in the United States are healthy."

Doctor William Powders adds: "There are more fresh air cranks among the healthy half than the other."

Moral: Keep the windows open. Better still: Keep outdoors.

Aunt Sarah Jennings, Sunbury, Pa., has quit patching trousers. Well, she's entitled to quit, having mended 23,225 pairs in the half century she has been half-patching pants for men and boys of central Pennsylvania.

"Folks are too prosperous now to wear patched clothes," Mrs. Jennings is quoted. "In the old days when men got a dollar, or at most two, a day, they wore patched trousers even on Sunday. Now they won't wear 'em to work."

Who did you say caused the high cost of living?

Mr. Babe Ruth was disposed of for $425 per pound on the hoof, establishing a new high record for ball-players. It is by reading these base-ball marketing reports that so many

Country Snow
(Copyright, 1920, N.E.A.)
Out in the country where the snow is white
It brings a benison to bless the sight.
Here is a stretch of what was weeded waste
Now rolled in softness, exquisitely laced;
Here is fresh napery spread across a field
Preparing for its feast of summer yield
Here is a wood with every finger bearded;
Here is a royal-robed and crinoid world
Here to every eye a chaste delight.
Ruling the day and banishing the night
Out in the country where the snow is white.

I had been city-bounded a grievous time
And morning snow had turned to evening drizzle.
Until I had forgot that whittened cabin
Soothing the far horizon, like a balm.
From a far chimney, like a ghost at dawn,
A wreath of smoke groped out and straight is gone.
No sound nor color mars the quietude,
As if all nature, in a musing mood,
Were drawing of our loved and loving dead.
With God's white coverlet above them spread,
Like sleeping children tucked within one bed.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Frank O. Stevens of Auburn, Maine, was a buddy of mine at the first Plattsburg camp during the spring of 1917 and we received second lieutenant commissions on the same day in August. He went home to Maine for 14 days and we met again at Devens on August 29. For three days we lived together and tramped the muddy roads of the cantonment which at that time had not received its first consignment of troops. Then orders took me away on Sept. 3, and from that day until yesterday, our paths never crossed. But yesterday was another day and again at Camp Devens we met in almost the identical spot we parted company on that fall day, two years and five months ago.

He still wears the officers' uniform, but he is a first lieutenant now, regular army. He is a little older, somewhat heavier, much more serious and on his left breast a faded croix de guerre with two palms gives an inkling of what he has been through. I told my story as we sat together at the hostess house and then he told his. I'll try to re-spin it for you, although lack of memory will necessitate the skipping of names and actual dates. With apologies, here it is:

"We hung around the pier for six days and then sailed. We went to Southampton and then Liverpool and after another short wait shipped across the channel to France. A training area came first, but it wasn't very long before we were sent up. That was in June, I think. On the 10th of July we went into action and from that time until the armistice was signed I was on every front from the ocean to Switzerland."

"Orders to report to special machine gun schools took me away from the outfit on several occasions, but I always went back. We got hell day in and day out. My machine gun company was in the Argonne for 41 days, with no chance for a bath or a change of clothing, and sleeping each night in the mud. But it was around the Messus that we got it proper. I don't know why I wasn't shot off the earth there, and I didn't get a scratch. I went up after a machine gun nest at the top of a hill—six officers and 216 men—after we had taken it there were two officers and 106 men left. The Hunns let us come on quite a distance and then put a box barrage around us. We fought our way out, but paid heavily for it."

"It was there I got a whole skin full of mustard gas which eventually took me back for three weeks in the hospital. It was late in the afternoon that I left an advanced machine gun emplacement to go back to the outfit and evidently a Roche battery spotted me for a shell hit about 10 feet to the left. Instinctively I jumped for the hole for I knew the second one wouldn't be apt to hit in the same place, but just as I reached it another one hit right behind me and the concussion knocked me into the crater and practically covered me with dirt. I didn't know they were mustard gas shells until I landed face down. I guess I was partially 'out,' but had sense enough to grab for my mask when I smelled the gas. Everything went black just then and when I woke up an hour later my right arm was crooked around, holding the mask in front of my face. I got back to the company and didn't feel any different than usual, except for a slight headache. Then my throat commenced to get sore and it was hard to talk. My eyes dripped water and the dog at the dressing station sent me back. I was in the hospital three weeks and during that time I never spoke above a whisper and for two weeks was totally blind."

"After the armistice we went into Luxembourg and for the following eight months I did every job ever heard of in the army. I finally wound up at Brest, in July, 1919, ready to sail, but was put on active duty again and was not able to get on a passenger list until early last December. I got home just in time for Christmas. I'm still a casual officer and have Siberian orders in my pocket, but now that the American troops are being withdrawn from there I may miss that trip."

There are many things left out in this narration, one of them his nearest approach to death, but it didn't occur in action. It was on a street car in Brest which got away from the woman driver and crashed into a truck filled with iron. The woman driver and two soldiers were killed and the car reduced to splinters, but he escaped with only a few scratches.

He didn't mention his war cross and I didn't ask him. I knew he would make it just a matter of fact story, perhaps not tell the whole of it—undeserving and all that sort of stuff—for he's just that kind of a man.

We often wondered during those Plattsburg days, which seem years and years ago, if we would each come through whole and meet again to swap stories. We did."

That scouting cannot come into its own in Lowell until public spirited citizens of the city will volunteer to give some of their spare time as scoutmasters and scoutmaster assistants, was the statement made to me by Read I. Ripley, Lowell's scout executive, today. Fully 50 men are needed to take charge of new Boy Scout troops which must be formed if all the young Americans of the community are to be enabled to sign up with the organization, he said. There is no pay attached to this work and the only reward lies in the honest satisfaction of having had a hand in planting the seeds of democracy, manliness and fair play in the hearts of the city's future citizens.

"I have been paralyzed on the whole right side since April 30th. I referred the case to a physician who wrote me, advising the use of 'Fruit-a-tives'.
I would not be without 'Fruit-a-tives' for anything; no more strong cathartics or salts; no more bowel trouble for me.
I recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to all. I feel more like 40 than 62, which I have just passed."

TO COMBAT INFLUENZA IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—A campaign of defense against a possible recurrence here of an influenza epidemic began under direction of John Dill Robertson, city health commissioner. Reports of three deaths from "flu," 137 new cases and 23 deaths from the influenza ally, pneumonia, with 52 new cases in 24 hours prompted the action.

The health commissioner ordered downtown street sweeping down at night and an effort was made to have surface and elevated cars kept as free from dust as possible.

"Indications are that we are not in for an epidemic," said Dr. Robertson. "When influenza swept the country 30 years ago, it returned in a comparatively light form the following year. In my opinion that is what is happening to us now."

BOSTON MAN TO BE U. S. AGENT AT BERLIN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The United States government, beginning Saturday, will be represented at Berlin by Ellis Loring Dresel of Boston, who has been designated as commissioner. Mr. Dresel has been in Paris for the past few months. He will leave for Coblenz, accompanied by Allen W. Dulles, who will act as his secretary. Officials of the state department said yesterday that Commissioner Dresel cannot represent the United States government officially at Berlin because of the treaty situation in the senate, but can keep in touch with the situation and keep the state department advised. He also will be in position to render assistance to American business men in Germany, but so long as Germany and the United States are technically at war his work will be unofficial and informal. He has a diplomatic status only to the extent that he represents the state department, and cannot be officially received.

Was With Gerard in Berlin

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Ellis Loring Dresel went to Berlin in March, 1915, as special counsel to the embassy on the staff of Ambassador Gerard. He is a native of Boston and when here lives with his sister at 305 Beacon street. He is a member of the firm of Goodwin, Dresel & Parker, with offices at 54 State street.
He was graduated at Harvard with the class of '87. He traveled abroad for a time and upon his return entered Harvard Law school, where he received the degree of LL.B. in 1892. He is a member of the Harvard clubs of Boston and New York, the Somerset, New Riding, Tennis and Racquet, St. Botolph and Exchange clubs of this city, the Myopia Hunt club, Eastern Yacht club and Automobile Club of America.
Mr. Dresel is the son of Otto Dresel and Anna Loring Dresel.

CARRIER PIGEON TAGGED

A carrier pigeon, on whose leg is a metal tag thought to have been placed there by the United States army signal corps, is today at the headquarters of the Lowell Humane society and will remain there until society officials have communicated with the chief signal officer of Boston. The bird was picked up on Dutton street late yesterday by George F. Carroll, a pupil at the Bartlett school and appeared to be entirely exhausted. The bird took it to his principal, Miss Murkland, who got in touch with the Humane society. Inscribed on the tag on the pigeon's leg was the following: "U.C.M. 6295 A.U. 19."

CHEMSFORD'S CANDIDATES

Two new candidates have sprung up for the office of selectman in Chemsford, George Rigby, a resident of the village, who is employed in this city and Samuel Kershaw, who is now holding the offices of registrar and auditor of the North Chemsford fire district. This brings the list of candidates to four, Messrs. Rigby and Kershaw, Edward Tucke and Patrick S. Ward. Ulysses J. Laplan of West Chemsford, a member of the school committee, will seek re-election.

ARE YOU DISAPPOINTED

often by not feeling well enough to attend some social gathering, or to keep an appointment, on account of an attack of indigestion? Such experiences cause disappointment, don't they?

You can ward off these attacks, and keep your stomach and digestive organs healthy by taking SEVEN BARKS. Nature's remedy of roots and herbs.

When the stomach is out of order, the liver not working properly, or the bowels are sluggish, a few doses of SEVEN BARKS will stimulate the liver, regulate the flow of bile, expel distressing acids and dangerous poisons, and quickly restore you back to good digestion and normal health.

Stomach disorders are the direct cause of nearly all the ailments that affect the human system, and make life a burden, instead of a pleasure.

Digestive trouble also spoils beauty, robs you of sleep, makes dark rings around the eyes, and ruins the complexion. Let SEVEN BARKS digest your food and tone your stomach, then you may eat what you like and bright eyes will soon return.

Ask your druggist for SEVEN BARKS. If he does not happen to have it, he will get it for you. Accept no substitute. PRICE, 50c.—Adv.

N. H. GOVERNOR SUES FOR $50,000

Brings Action Against Newspaper For Alleged Malicious Libel

Three Men Arrested at Portsmouth Following Charges of Vice Conditions

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 15.—Papers were served early today in an action for $50,000 brought by Governor John H. Bartlett against Edward J. Gallagher, correspondent for a Boston paper, and editor of the Concord Patriot, and against the New Hampshire Patriot Co., for alleged malicious libel and defamation of character.

The charges upon which the action is based were said to have been reprinted in the Patriot from a Boston paper and it is claimed linked the governor's name with certain "corrupt and immoral practices" said to have taken place in Portsmouth.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 15.—S. Decker and J. M. MacFarlane, Boston newspapermen, and H. W. Weinbaum, who is connected with a local newspaper, were arrested here last night on capias writs issued in the case of the first two for alleged malicious libel, and in the case of Weinbaum for alleged circulation of libel, as a result of charges of vice conditions published in a Boston newspaper and in a local newspaper. All three were released on bail of $10,000 each.

ROOSEVELT UPHOLDS OSBORNE
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 15.—Asst. Sec. of the Navy Franklin L. Roosevelt arrived in Portsmouth yesterday from Washington and was received at the navy yard with full ceremonies. After a short tour of inspection of the yard he examined the naval prison.

Before leaving for Boston Mr. Roosevelt stated he found conditions at the prison very satisfactory and that he had come here to investigate two complaints, one being from a board and the other from an investigator of the department of justice. He left with Lieut. Com. Osborne, ex-warden of the Sing Sing prison, some specific charges which are to be answered in writing to the department of justice.

A complaint had been made about the fear of Portsmouth citizens of escaped naval prisoners, but Mr. Roosevelt felt that this complaint was unwarranted.

because during the 2½ years Lieut. Com. Osborne has been in charge of the prison, 6682 prisoners have been handled and only eight have escaped. Mr. Roosevelt further stated that no hearsay evidence would be considered. He expects to return here at a later date and will give those who have preferred charges an opportunity to be heard.

Hear Admiral Herbert O. Dunn, commander of the 1st naval district; rear Admiral Alexander F. Halstead, commander of the Portsmouth navy yard, and Capt. John J. Hyland, aid to rear Admiral Dunn, were Sec. Roosevelt's escort.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Will Come Into Being Tomorrow Morning at French Foreign Office

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The League of Nations will come into being tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at a public ceremony to be held in the "clock room" of the French foreign office. Leon Bourgeois, the French representative, will preside and make the opening address, while Earl Curzon of Kedleston, British secretary of state for foreign affairs, will also speak. Hugh C. Wallace, the American ambassador to France and American representative at the peace conference will not attend.

Besides M. Bourgeois and Earl Curzon, the meeting will be attended by Vittorio Salasola, Italian foreign minister; Premier Venizelos of Greece, Paul Hymans, Belgian foreign minister; Count Quinones de Leon, Spanish ambassador to France; Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain; Dr. Alfonso Costa, Portuguese peace delegate, and Dr. Gastao da Cunha, Brazilian ambassador to France.

Press comment on the meeting dwells principally upon the absence of the United States from this entry into the realization of President Wilson's chief aim in the peace conference. Most of the newspapers of Paris predict this absence will not be of long duration, and say: "The League of Nations cannot be complete until America is represented."

BRYAN PREDICTS RATIFICATION TODAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—William J. Bryan, on route to Washington yesterday, predicted that the senate would ratify the peace treaty today.

While giving no specific reason for expecting this action, Mr. Bryan said that the senate must bow to the public demand that there be no more delay.

"The people want action," he said, "instead of words."

High School Students

reported in the press and discussed in school.

The questions on which the survey was based were as follows:
"What vocation do you expect to pursue as a life work?"

"Do you intend to remain permanently in Lowell? (If not, why not?)"
"As a future citizen what would you suggest that the chamber of commerce undertake for the general improvement of Lowell?"

As to vocations, 158 of the boys and 100 girls were undecided. Some of the vocations which the boys intend to pursue were: Textile chemistry, architectural engineering, textile manufacturing, business administration, mechanical engineering, journalism, medicine, automobiles, brokerage, chemistry, the ministry, office work, pharmacy, electrical work, civil and mechanical engineering, landscape gardening, scientific farming, the law, jobbing, shoe dealing, accountancy, contracting, telegraphy, stenography, illustrating, motion picture production, steam engineering, the priesthood, music, mechanical drawing, dentistry, machinist, undertaking, baking, Episcopal ministry, furniture dealing, airplane, mechanics, marine engineering, printing, grocery, the milkman, soldiery, the chauffeur, the salesman, the constructing engineer, architecture, civil service, magic and ventriloquism, cartoon drawing, bookkeeping, mining, engineering, naval engineering, a naval officer, and the short-hand reporter.

Among those named by the girls were stenography, teaching, private secretaryship, office work, nursing, bookkeeping, social welfare work, physical training, music, domestic science, organ playing, agriculture, telegraphy, dental nursing, telephone operating, elocution, library work, surgery, housekeeping, designing, landscape gardening, dietetics, art, singing, missionary work, literary work, that of a waitress, millinery, the law, dressmaking and the merchant.

The answers to the second question showed that 222 boys and 350 girls expected to remain permanently in Lowell, while 133 boys and 130 girls either would not or were undecided as to whether they would stay permanently in this city. Many of those who stated they would leave the city gave as their reason that there were better opportunities elsewhere or living was better. However, the proportion who are intending to remain in Lowell is unusually high as compared with other cities. This is a favorable sign for Lowell's future. It means that the future of the city lies in the hands of those who have grown up in its schools. The surveys usually indicate that a majority may or will leave the city ultimately.

The response to the third question indicated that nothing which might be done for the welfare of the city had escaped notice. While the suggestions were numerous, in quite a number of cases hundreds were in agreement. For instance, this was true in the case of the new high school. Nearly every student urged immediate construction. This, perhaps, was to be expected. Cleaner streets, deepening of the Merrimack river, the elimination of grade crossings, the expansion of the park and playground system, better street car service, improved housing conditions, the immediate erection of the auditorium, better buildings in the center, a stadium for athletics, better street lighting in the suburbs, Americanization, and more sanitary tenement districts were among the suggestions strongly stressed.

In connection with the third question one student, a senior boy wrote, "use influence to have the study of civil government taken up more generally in the schools so that the men and women of tomorrow may be able to choose really intelligent and efficient men for public office. Teach the children to regard public office as a very high honor and responsibility and to consider it far more important than high salaried private endeavor."

The civic program outlined and hotted down from the suggestions made by the high school students, follows:

New high school.
Athletic park.
Make the Merrimack river navigable.

Street improvements.
Beautification of the city.
Elimination of grade crossings.
Stimulation of the work of Americanization.

Improvement of living conditions in congested districts.

Clean streets.
Better car service.
Lower fares to the suburbs.
Additional cars on certain lines.
A dispensary in congested districts.
Another skating rink like Shedd park.

Suppression of cheap dance halls.
Abandonment of junior high school.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The tone of the stock market was strong at the active opening of today's session, although fears of yet more stringent money rates continued to hang over the financial district. Oils and motors, recent features of weakness, recorded substantial rallies with several of the representative steels, equipments and shipping shares. Further changes within the first half hour were mainly advancing quotations.

The early advances assumed further dimensions, especially among motors, steels, equipments and shipping. General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Crucible and Republic Steels, Baldwin and American Locomotives, Atlantic Gulf and American International were the outstanding features at gains of 2 to 5 points. Tobacco, metals, American Woolen and Industrial Alcohol also strengthened materially. Bulls kept in the background and oils became uninteresting on the weakness manifested by Middle States Oil, which extended yesterday's severe loss by 10 1/2 points. Columbia Graphophone was weakest of the specialties, falling 3 points. Call money opened at 9 per cent.

Stocks made another demonstration of strength at mid-day, their further advance coinciding with word from Washington that the federal reserve board had adjourned without considering interest and discount rates. Some gains were again reduced, however, on recurrent weakness of minor oils and specialties.

Another rally from the reaction of the mid-session occurred later, rails and metals also making moderate advances. The closing was firm.

Elections Throughout Ireland Today

LONDON, Jan. 15. (Via Montreal).—Local government elections take place today, throughout Ireland. The results, which will be declared Saturday night, are looked forward to with much curiosity on account of the new circumstances of the contests.

The chief points of uncertainty are the effect of proportional representation which is being tried for the first time, and how it will influence the Sinn Fein. If the Sinn Fein succeeds in proportion to its supposed strength, it will control the municipal machinery over three-fourths of the country.

The vacant seats are roughly, 1500 in number. The Sinn Fein has 707 candidates, labor 595, the Unionists 430, and the constitutional nationalists and independents 558.

Forty head which were sold brought a total of $44,380.

They were former King Constantine and his queen, of Greece, and former Emperor and Empress Charles and Zita of Austria-Hungary. They made no purchases. A Parisian dealer bought a necklace for 500,000 francs and other jewels brought very high prices.

PLANS FOR PUBLIC FORUM MEETINGS

Lowell Community Service Inc., has formulated more or less final plans for the conduct of its series of public forum meetings to be held at the Community club in Dutton street and has arranged the first one for the last Wednesday evening of this month. The speaker will be George W. Coleman of Boston, head of the public forum movement in the country. He will take as a topic, "Get Together or Perish."

The securing of Mr. Coleman makes the remainder of the course easier to schedule, for through him Lowell Community Service will be able to obtain the biggest forum speakers in the east. The series will continue in monthly gatherings and is open to the public.

Arthur Smith, editor of the Lowell local French daily, has accepted the position of managing editor of the Independent of New Bedford, one of the newspapers published by the Independent Publishing Co. of Fall River. RETAIL TRADE BOARDS DECLARES HOOVER IS A REPUBLICAN

Organization To Safeguard Conduct of Legitimate Retail Business

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—A combination of retail trade organizations throughout the country "to safeguard the conduct of legitimate retail business enterprises" was favored in resolutions adopted today by the National Shoe Retailers' association at the closing session of its annual convention. Union with dry goods associations and clothing merchants was proposed.

As outlined in the resolutions the several retail bodies would organize within their respective states, the general combination to be known as the retail trade boards.

The purposes of the proposed boards would include the encouragement of "uniform and common sense legislation intended to foster legitimate retail trade and to oppose and arouse public sentiment against legislation which seeks to shackles trade, or that which is not founded in justice, or which is an influence against the public good."

Announcement of the selection of Milwaukee as the place of next year's convention was made today.

SENATORS CONFER ON TREATY COMPROMISE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—A conference today between informal committees of republicans and democrats, prominent in the effort to reach a compromise on the peace treaty, has been arranged. Senator Lodge, the republican leader, and Senators New, Indiana; Kellogg, Minnesota and Lenroot, Wisconsin, were to meet with Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, administration leader; Senator Owen, Oklahoma and two or three other democrats.

The conference was arranged through Senator Owen, at whose home a score of democrats conferred last week in the compromise movement. No program of compromise reservations had been prepared for submission to the republicans, Senator Owen said, but it was expected that the conferees would go over the whole field of suggested compromises.

A new substitute reservation on Article X of the League of Nations covenant, drafted by Senator Colt, republican, Rhode Island, of the "wild reservation" group, was discussed today by the Rhode Island member with several democrats and republicans. It would declare that congress had the sole power to declare war and that the United States would not assume any territorial obligations or interfere in any controversy between nations unless "in any particular case" congress should authorize intervention.

HARDSHIPS ENDURED BY AMERICANS IN MEXICO

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 15.—Additional accounts of the hardships endured by American settlers in Mexico since Carranza came into power were given the senate sub-committee investigating the Mexican situation today by three women. Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Willie and Mrs. Halley, residing in widely separated regions of Mexico told of murders and outrages. Mrs. Wright describing how she concealed her daughters for days in order to keep them from the marauding Mexicans.

P. W. Warner, the organizer of the Atascadero colony, also was a witness. His account of the vicissitudes of the American farmers on that property was similar to that of G. E. Blalock, who testified yesterday about the devastation of the Blalock colony and adjoining property.

MEXICO RELEASES TWO AMERICAN SAILORS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Harry V. Learned and Harry O. Martin, sailors of the American submarine chaser Tecumseh, who were arrested at Mazatlan, Mexico, on a charge of assaulting a Mexican citizen and sentenced to two months' imprisonment, were released last Tuesday night, according to advices to the state department today from the American consul at Mazatlan. The sailors are being cared for by the consul, who asked for instructions as to how to return them to the United States.

Checker Champion Gives Exhibition

Arthur A. McCullough, recently appointed captain of the All-England checker team, gave a brilliant exhibition of this methodical pastime at the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday night. He played a number of the checker "sharks" of the "Y" simultaneously and won every match with the exception of one, which was drawn. He then moved the wooden discs about the board while blindfolded and this feat brought down the house. He visualized the board perfectly and rarely made a false move. In addition to actually playing Mr. McCullough explained situations at length and showed the younger students how to crawl out of seemingly impossible predicaments.

Two Fire Alarms

An overheated stove at 270 Salem street was the cause of two alarms from box 123 this forenoon, the first at 8:20 o'clock and the other at 9:03 o'clock. The blaze in both instances was of a slight nature and little damage was caused. At 11:25 o'clock there was a telephone alarm for a chimney fire at 31 Crawford street. No damage.

Janitors' Wages Increased

Marchand of the public buildings department has granted an increase in wages to a number of janitors employed by that department, including those at city hall, the comfort station and police station. LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

Commissioner John F. Salmon was notified by the civil service commission today that it hoped to be able to supply him a list of men eligible for appointment to the local fire department, in anticipation of the double platoon system's becoming operative here, by Jan. 21, at the latest. Last November 63 Lowell men took the mental examination for appointment to the department, but have not yet taken their physical examination. The latter will be held at the East armory in Boston between now and the 20th of the month and each of the local men eligible to take it will receive a personal notification from the civil service commission of the time he is to report.

What strange case-rival has made Mrs. Betty Cole, young San Francisco bride of former Lieutenant H. E. Cole of the United States army, prefer the affection of a lion to the devotion of her husband?

More exotic in many ways than the famous classic "The Lady or the Tiger," the Cole case of "The Man or the Lion" provides the weirdest triangle that ever disrupted a home.

U. S. Must Aid the Poles

If such a loan were made, the allied governments should be required to aid Poland in a military way, Gen. Bliss said.

Military men believe the Bolsheviks will not try to press eastward beyond Lake Baikal to fight the Japanese, General Bliss said, and that instead of sending armies toward India or Turkey, they would attempt "military propaganda there." This, he pointed out, indicated a westward movement of the Bolshevik armies.

Whole of Europe in Danger

Possibility of Poland pressing against the Russians also was emphasized by General Bliss, who said the peace conference delayed fixing the eastern boundary of Poland until December 2, and then only determined upon a tentative boundary. Polish armies, he added, then were 250 to 350 kilometers east of the eastern boundary of their country.

"The question is," he continued, "whether the policy of Poland will precipitate a situation dangerous to the whole of Europe."

Mrs. Monica Ever Tells U. S. of British Labor

Third-party talk in this country lends added interest to the visit here of three envoys of the British labor party, now achieving a position of dominance in English politics. Mrs. Monica Ever, Mrs. Marjorie Mann and B. N. Langdon-Davies are the delegates touring the United States to further a "spiritual alliance" between Americans and British.

TEACHERS POORLY PAID CAPT. MOHRAT IS DEAD

Total Earnings at 70 Equal To Those of Plumber at 40—May Quit Profession

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—The number of school teachers who have abandoned the profession because of low wages has increased 40 per cent in the last three years, according to a survey of trade conditions in Chicago by teachers, made public today.

"School teachers work under a 25-year handicap on the basis of a lifetime earnings," the report says.

"The average teacher will have to live to be 70 before her total earnings amount to as much as a plumber can make by the time he is 40. Blacksmiths, butchers, soda clerks, shoe clerks and chauffeurs would, under their present wages, have earned as much at 40 as the school teachers would have earned at 52.

"The teacher's salary is almost equal to that of janitors, teamsters and laundresses."

BIG FIRE AT SALISBURY

Ocean Echo, Largest Amusement Building, Destroyed

—Loss $125,000

SALISBURY BEACH, Jan. 15.—Ocean Echo, the largest amusement building on the North shore, was destroyed by fire here last night. The damage amounting to about $125,000. The building is owned by Michael and Daniel Cashman of Newburyport and is partially insured.

The fire was first discovered by the coast guard at Plum Island, who telephoned to the Newburyport fire department. The front of the building extends over the water and had it not been for the stiff westerly wind hundreds of cottages nearby would have been destroyed. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin, as the building was closed for the season.

HEADACHES MAKE

LIFE MISERABLE FOR MANY WOMEN

Thin blood and a general run-down condition of the system are responsible for so many trying disorders that it is almost impossible to exaggerate the benefit to be secured from building up the blood. This treatment is useful in almost all conditions in which there is no acute disease and people who are thin, pale and subject to headaches and backaches and disordered digestion would do well to investigate the remedy that Mrs. H. McCarl of No. 29 Oak street, Springfield, Mass., tried.

"Close confinement to work brought on a generally weakened condition, a sort of general debility," says Mrs. McCarl. "This lasted for months and at the same time I was subject to sick headaches. I was pale and thin and so nervous that the slightest thing annoyed me."

"A friend who had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with benefit advised me to try them and I did. The first box helped my headaches and I continued until I had used six boxes. The pills gave me new strength. On another occasion I took four boxes as a general blood tonic and they built me right up. I also used them for a pain in my shoulder which I was told was neuritis and they again helped me. I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at every opportunity."

Those who take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People as a tonic invariably say that their improvement began with a noticeable increase in the appetite. When you are sick and your vitality is low your appetite falls. Nothing tastes good. You take no pleasure in your meals. Under such circumstances good digestion is impossible.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills tone up the entire system, the blood is enriched and good red blood is essential to normal digestion. The glands that secrete the digestive fluids are strengthened, not merely stimulated, and you once more enjoy a good appetite. Looking forward pleasantly to meal time is the first sign of returning health, strength and vitality.

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., postpaid on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System."—Adv.

STRIKE OF PROFESSIONAL BLOOD DONORS ENDS

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—A one-day strike of professional blood donors, men who sell their blood for transfusion operation, was ended today. The men had demanded $55 for a pint of blood, an increase of $15 over the present rate and $30 more than they received up to two weeks ago. They returned to work at the $40 scale.

Student nurses acted as strike breakers. Ten minutes after the strike started one nurse was on the operating table as a surgeon performed a transfusion operation and the hospital received a pint of blood free. Two hours later the nurse was attending a clinic.

Reports Coming in Tell of Terrible Loss of Life as Result of Earthquake

MEXICO CITY, Wednesday, Jan. 14.—Reports slowly coming in from eastern sections of the state of Puebla tell of terrible loss of life in that region as a result of the earthquake on Jan. 3. Further east, in the state of Vera Cruz, the death toll seems to be growing, reports from Coahuila stating that the number of dead in that city and in surrounding villages is more than 3000.

The lake which inundated the village of Barranca Grande was caused by a mountain collapsing and damming the river. The waters were backed up until the former site of the village was inundated.

An exploring party returned to this city today from a visit of inspection to the crater of Mount Popocatepetl. The members of the party said the crater had been entirely changed and that huge fissures had appeared. There were perceptible indications of poison vapors rising at the time the party was on the mountain and it is said they probably resulted from recent seismic disturbances. The last eruption of Popocatepetl occurred in 1807, although in 1902 there were perceptible vapors above the crater.

To Expand Traffic Force

I am allowed to purchase a couple more motorcycles. I can put these on duty on the outskirts of the city and thus relieve a number of men now on duty there.

"These men I can transfer to the central section of the city for traffic duty. At the present time, I do not believe that our traffic posts are 'over' enough hours during the day. There should be somebody on duty in the downtown districts from 8 in the morning until 10 at night, during the summer season, at least. At the present time the men do not go on duty until 3 or 4 in the morning and come off duty after their dinner hour, finishing their day's work early in the evening. Of course, I can't work one man more than eight hours a day, but by having relief men to go on duty during dinner and supper hours and in the latter part of the evening, the department will be able to have the traffic taken care of continually without lapses as is the case at present."

"I am planning to establish a new traffic post in the spring at the junction of Merrimack, Dutton and Moody streets in front of city hall here. I think it is an important post. During the summer season I shall also have a man stationed at the junction of Moody and Pawlucket streets, another dangerous corner."

At the present time there are five men assigned to traffic duty in addition to the three who are on motorcycle duty.

BILL TO LICENSE GASOLINE PUMPS

In order that this city may have some ordinance governing the use and erection of gasoline pumps on its public streets, City Solicitor William D. Regan, at the direction of the municipal council, has prepared a bill for the consideration of the legislature to provide for the proper licensing of such pumps.

The act is a general one, being entitled: "An act relative to the use of public streets in the city of Lowell for the storage and sale of merchandise." Section 1 reads as follows: "The license commission of the city of Lowell may issue under the conditions hereinafter provided and under rules of its own not inconsistent herewith and rules of the municipal council of the city of Lowell not inconsistent herewith licenses for the use of specified parts of public streets and places in said city for the storage and sale of merchandise."

Further sections of the act provide that a person wanting such a license must apply to the license commission, giving a description of the premises he proposes to use for storage purposes, gain the consent in writing of the owner of the property and in some instances of the tenants.

The application must then be approved by the license commission and referred to the municipal council which in turn, will order an investigation and report by the officials of the fire department. If the report is favorable and the council approves the application, the license commission will then grant the license and charge a fee of not less than $5 or more than $100, according to the size, capacity, etc., of the storage space. The license cannot be granted for a period longer than 12 months, but may be renewed.

Owing to the many applications of local garage and automobile accessory store owners for permission to have a gasoline swinging pump on the sidewalk, the solicitor prepared the bill and the next step will be to have the legislature approve it.

CARING FOR THE HORSE IN COLD WEATHER

That Lowell people are becoming kinder to their horses with each passing year is the belief of Agent Richardson of the local Humane society. He gives as a reason for this statement the fact that fewer complaints in connection with the improper blanketing and care of Old Dobbin have been registered this winter than during any past year.

"Lowell folks are giving their horses much better treatment than in the past," declared Agent Richardson. "Not that I wish to infer that in previous years the drivers of the city neglected their horses, but the public as a whole appears to have come to believe in the doctrine of kind treatment to their dumb servants, with the result that very few complaints have been received of animals being abused or not properly cared for during the past months."

"It is most essential that a horse should be properly looked after during the winter months, particularly with reference to warm blankets and warm bits. There is no greater cruelty than to force a steel bit into a horse's mouth during the winter months without previously warming the metal. This can be done either by dipping it into hot water or warming it over a fire or by blowing on it. Unless the frost is taken out of the steel, it will adhere to the sensitive skin in the horse's mouth and cause a painful sore."

Agent Richardson also gives a few "cold weather" rules in connection with the care of horses, which are as follows:

Protect your animals from the cold. Stop the holes in your barn. Board in your tie-up.

Give the horse a good feed. Water your horse three times a day. Keep your horse's feet soft and have it shod often.

CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT

The public is reminded that the exchange of tickets for the reserved seat coupons opens for the public on Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the Strand Theatre. As the exchange continues from 10 to 1 and as every seat in the theatre is perfectly satisfactory for a concert of this kind, there is no necessity for purchasers of tickets to get to the theatre promptly at 10 o'clock and stand in line. There has been a big advance sale of tickets although there are still some to be had at the stores as indicated in the advertisement on another page. With an interesting and varied program such as is to be given next Tuesday evening and with such excellent artists as Reinald Werrenrath, Diedo Howell and Ben Redden, with a number by the Boston Festival Orchestra thrown in for good measure, the concert ought to be one of the most enjoyable ever given by the Choral society.

Lewis B. Macfarlane, secretary of the Massachusetts chamber of commerce, spoke on present day conditions before the brotherhood of the Highland Congregational church last evening. He talked for more than an hour and then answered many questions put to him by the men. The evening's program had been arranged by James McAllister.

THE OCCUPANCY OF ERSTWHILE SALOONS

The topic of discussion on the streets of Lowell today was "What will the liquor dealers do after tomorrow and what will be done with their places of business?" Of course, it would have been a very hard task to interview every liquor dealer in this city, so the best The Sun could do was to get hold of a representative of the Lowell Liquor Dealers' association and find out through him just what will be what and accordingly some interesting information was secured.

To begin with, out of a total of over 100 liquor dealers in this city only about 40 of them have kept their places open since July 1 when the war time prohibition went into effect, and that was for the sale of 2.75 per cent. beer and soft drinks, licenses having been issued by the license commission at $1000 per subject to regulations by the federal government. When the supreme court ruled that the sale of the 2.75 per cent. beer was illegal many of those who had taken out licenses dropped out of the business and closed their establishments, but others kept right on with the sale of beer and soft drinks.

"Tomorrow national prohibition goes into effect and no coverage containing more than half of one per cent. of alcohol will be offered for sale and that includes the famous cider with a 'kick,' the sale of which has been going on in this city for some time."

Most of the liquor dealers, so it was learned, own their own stores or have long term leases on the premises and it is understood that in many cases negotiations are under way for the sub-letting of the stores. The liquor store of P. J. Broadnahan in Cabot street, so it is said, will soon become a pool and billiard parlor, while that of D. T. Sullivan & Co. in Lawrence street has already been converted into an A. & P. store. The shop of D. J. Cooney in Gorham street has been occupied for some time by a meat market, while the store of L. F. L. Turcotte, in Merrimack street, has been turned into a tonic building plant. The Waverly hotel in Market street is undergoing extensive repairs and changes and will be converted into a hardware store, while the proprietor of the Harrison hotel is making plans to convert his wine room into a modern bake shop. The old Rockingham hotel in Central street has been turned into a modern bank and several other former liquor establishments have been converted into stores of another nature.

"The Lowell Liquor Dealers' association is still in existence, but its members are undecided as to what they will do. A decrease in the membership has been noted since July 1 for most of the former liquor dealers, who have dropped the business, have also turned in their membership cards and are no more connected with the organization."

BILLS OF INTEREST TO LOWELL PEOPLE

A number of new bills of interest to Lowell people have been filed with the clerk of the house of representatives at the state house, according to a bulletin received at the office of the city solicitor today. One of them provides for the regulation of the wages of scrubwomen, another to prohibit boxing where the contestants are less than 21 years old, and a third relative to the pensioning of foremen in the employ of cities and towns.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS by Olive Roberts Barton

DOWN THE CHIMNEY Up out of the chimney came words. Like this: "Oh, please, let me go. Please!"

Then some more words. "No, indeed, I won't! You stay where you are." "If you'll just let me go, I'll send you some candy next Christmas." "Next Christmas? And where do you think you'll be next Christmas?"

There wasn't any answer and the twins got more and more curious. "Maybe it's a joke," said Nancy. "Or he's a prisoner."

"Go on!" cried Nick. "Maybe." "Then they discovered a hole. 'Why, it's a chimney, I do believe!' exclaimed Nancy. 'Here's some soap. Let's go down.'"

So the green shoes made them very, very small, and making sure the magical mushroom was safe in Nancy's pocket, down they started.

Near the bottom they began to smell the most delicious smells they ever smelled—I mean they ever smelled.

And when they got all the way down such a funny sight met their eyes they nearly fell into the soup.

Mrs. Woodchuck was getting dinner. And poor Daddy Long Legs was sticking right in the middle of a custard pie! He must have fallen down the chimney. His high hat was on one side of his head and his cane was sticking up in the air beside him.

"Well, if you want to go out, scurry out," said Mrs. Woodchuck. "You've spoiled my pie."

"The custard's setting and I can't," begged Daddy. "Now if I had a broom straw—"

Nancy and Nick stole quietly up the chimney again. They had seen a little gleam in Mrs. Woodchuck's eye and knew she was only giving. Daddy's scare.

American Steamer Calls For Assistance

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The American freight steamer Kiekapoo, from Smyrna November 23 with cargo for New York, was reported by wireless today, as having lost one of her propellers and leaking, about 200 miles east of the Virginia capes. The wireless report stated that the pumps were able to take care of the leak, but that the assistance of a tug was required.

Worst Blizzard in Years

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., Jan. 15.—Scores of northern Michigan towns were isolated today, by the worst blizzard that has swept this section in years. Zero temperature and impassable snow drifts have put a number of communities in a serious predicament, owing to shortage of coal and inability of farmers to bring in wood.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty marriage took place this morning when Mr. Valmore Vigeant, manager of Vigeant's market in Merrimack street and a prominent clubman, and Miss Antoinette Chapdelaine, a popular young woman of Pawtucketville, were united in the bonds of matrimony, the ceremony being performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at St. Joseph's rectory at 7 o'clock by Rev. Guillaume Ouellette, O.M.I. The bride was attired in a brown travelling suit trimmed with beaver and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and sweet peas. She was given away by her father, Mr. Louis Chapdelaine, while the groom was attended by his father, Mr. Ambrose Vigeant. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives at the home of the bride's parents, 4 Eighth avenue and later the happy couple left on a three-weeks' wedding trip to New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia. Upon their return they will make their home at 157 Merrimack street. The bridegroom, who is a popular member of Club Lafayette, was tendered a bachelor party in the quarters of the club in Wana-nanah street last evening and as a token of esteem he was presented a handsome leather easy chair. In the course of the evening a varied entertainment program was given and a buffet luncheon was served.

Keefe—Damphouse

Mr. Dennis Keefe and Miss Florida Damphouse were married Jan. 13 at St. Peter's rectory, the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. J. Heffernan. The bride was attired in dark blue satin with picture hat to match and carried bridal roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Mabel Moran, who wore dark blue satin with picture hat to match and carried tea roses. The best man was Mr. Walter McNamara. At the close of the ceremony a reception was held at 20 Daly street, where a buffet luncheon was also served and present at the festivities were guests from North Billerica, Boston, Brooklyn and New York.

Decker—Cahill

At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the marriage of Mr. Lambert H. Decker and Miss Della T.
